Dorothy Porter's COMMENT ABOUT CAMDEN

LAWNSIDE, N.J. — An overflowing crowd of citizens of Lawnside and vicinity, filled the Lawnside Borough Hall, Saturday, where final rites were held for Mayor James Bryant.

Father Earl Pierce, the rector at St. Augustine's Episcopal Church in Atlantic City, presided and gave the homily.

He related the mayor's concern for youth. The audience was moved when the rector read a poem by Bryant entitled "To Young People, My Second Love."

The invocation was given by the borough chaplain, the Rev. Alton May.

Father Carty, acting rector of St. Augustine's Episcopal Church, of which the deceased was a member, read the Old Testament Lesson, and the New Testament Lesson was read by John C. Bryant, who also read the obituary.

"The Lord Prayer" was sung by Mrs. Lucille Harris.

The resolution from the borough council was read by the president, Mrs. Joyce Pierce.

The closing prayer was given by the Rev. Jacob Sowale, of Nigeria.

Burial was in the Berlin Cemetery, Berlin, N.J.

He was a native of Georgia, where he attended elementary, junior and senior high schools. After coming north he was graduated from Temple University High School.

He worked in the building trades as a laborer, carpenter, dock builder and welder, before, during and after his matriculation at the Philadelphia College of Art, from which he graduated with honors and received his Bachelor of Arts degree. In 1959, he received his Master of Education degree from Rutgers University School of Education, where he majored in administration and supervision.

He began teaching in Camden City Schools as an art teacher in 1953.

In 1963 he was appointed assistant principal of Pyne Point Junior High School. He was appointed principal of Cooper - Grant Elementary School in 1965. In 1968, he was assigned to Pyne Point School as principal.

In February 1975, he was appointed director of the Adult Education and Community education Program.

He held this position until his death.

He and his wife, Ophelia, have resided in Lawnside since 1953.

His career in politics began with his position as president of the First Regular Democratic Club of Lawnside. He was secretary of the Camden County Democratic Committee. He was later elected to the borough council and in 1974 was elected mayor of Lawnside.

Surving are his wife, Ophelia; three brothers, Foss, Carson and Lawrence; two sisters, Mrs. Lois Smith and Mrs. Blanche Lyo.

The arrangement were under the direction of the Carl Miller Funeral Home.

CAMDEN, N.J. — Services for Bernal Ford, 60, of Sunset Drive, Somerdale, N.J., were held, Saturday, at the Macedonia AME Church, Third and Spruce Sts.

The pastor, the Rev. William Smith, presided.

The Rev. C. H. Dunlap, pastor of the St. Paul Baptist Church, Camden, delivered the main eulogy.

Music was by the choirs of Macedonia AME Church and the St. Paul Baptist Church.

Burial was in Harleigh Cemetery, Camden.

Mr. Ford died Sunday, at John F. Kennedy Hospital in Stratford, N.J. after a lengthy illness.

He had been a member of Macedonia AME Church, since early childhood. He served on the steward and usher boards.

He was an investigator for the Public Defender's office from 1969 to 1979. He was a police officer between 1953 and 1964. He was an elementary school teacher in the Camden School District.

Mr. Ford was a Marine Corps veteran of both World War II and the Korean War.

He was a graduate of Morgan State College, Baltimore, Md.

An active fraternilist, he was a member of Oriental Lodge I, Camden, past commander in chief of Deltugo Consistory III, Camden; past high priest of Jeptha Chapter 14, Glassboro, N.J.; junior warden of Mt.
