THE TRANSCRIPT

THE Democratic primary fight in Kent County is progressing rapidly. New recruits are coming to the support of the Copper ticket and the present outlook is more than encouraging. It seems to be the general impression throughout the county that Mr. Copper is the logical candidate for the Senate on the Democratic ticket. Many voters who never before took an interest in politics are ardently working for Mr. Copper and the candidates on the ticket he is heading. Mr. Ellsworth C. Bowers, who has served two terms in the Legislature, is meeting with great encouragement in his fight for renomination. The other candidates thus far announced on this ticket, Messrs. Nicholas V. Waters and Ernest Willson, are more than pleased with the outlook for their nomination for County Commissioners.

THE daily papers report activity among the various men mentioned as Presidential candidates. Those mentioned to date for the Democratic nomination are Messrs. McAdoo, Cox and Underwood, with occasional reference to Henry Ford. Mr. Harding is actively engaged in a fight for renomination on the Republican ticket, while Senator La Follette threatens to complicate Republican politics by seizing the third party standard. The voters in Kent seem to be more interested in local politics than in national affairs at the present time. In fact, local politics seem to be the general topic of conversation.

FORWARD! FARM BUREAU

The Farm Bureau movement in Kent County is going Forward. Already many farmers have given of their valuable time to this cause and to the interest of all Kent County Farmers. They are unusually interested in what they are doing. They are SERIOUS.

Next Saturday, July 28th, the farmers of Kent will publish a sixteen page Special Farm Bureau Edition, to tell the Story of the Farm Bureau to every Farmer, Farmer's wife, sons and daughters, and to all business men, professional men and others in Kent County. Every farmer will receive a copy of this Special Edition. Be sure to get yours and read it. Every word is a message.

Sixteen meetings are scheduled, three per night as follows:

July 30th—8:00 p. m. Millington, Massey, Galena.

July 31st—8:00 p. m. Locust Grove, Chesterville, Kennedyville.

August 1st—8:00 p. m. Still Pond, Betterton, Lynch.

August 2nd.—8:00 p. m.—Worton, Chestertown, Pomona.

August 3rd.—8:00 p. m. Lankford, Fairlee, Rock Hall.

August 4th.—1:30 p. m. Committees at Chestertown.

Don't fail to attend one or more meetings. Every Kent County Farmer owes this to his neighbor and himself.

No membership will be solicited or taken upon request at the meetings. Come and hear about the Farm Bureau, think it over, sleep on it, and then you will be visited the following week for your membership.

Southern Delaware Hit By Storm

Southern Delaware was visited by one of the most severe electrical storms in many years on Monday night, accompanied by torrential rains, hail and wind, doing considerable damage to the corn and tomato crops in the central part of Sussex county.

The wind assumed almost cyclonic proportions in the vicinity of Piney Grove and Stockley, uprooting orchard and forest trees and laying flat corn and tomato fields. Hail stones as large as small marbles cut the tomato and corn crops, doing considerable damage to both.

No More Swimming On Bridge

Swimming on Chester River Bridge stopped suddenly this week when notices were posted on both ends of the bridge and draw to the effect that no more swimming could take place. It seems that some young men, not content with swimming on the draw, had a fashion of climbing on the highest points of the draw and leaping overboard. Several horses were badly frightened by this practice.
