WORKERS BUNCHED AS THE BIG VOTE OFFER CLOSES

Final Extra Vote Offer Closes Saturday, Aug. 4

CAMPAIGN CLOSES AUGUST 8.

The close of the largest vote offer in the mammoth subscription drive on the TRANSCRIPT, found most of the workers in the drive still highly enthused and determined to work harder than ever during the remaining days of the drive to poll enough votes to win one of the best prizes to be given. Naturally some of the candidates did better than others but still no one has a sufficient lead to warrant any letup during the rest of the campaign.

Without question the campaign, so far, has proven to be a very hard fought contest, and all the candidates deserve praise for the excellent results they have obtained.. When it is taken into consideration the large number of new subscriptions and renewals that have been obtained, it is easily understood just how interested the candidates are and how hard they have worked.

FINAL EXTRA VOTE OFFER IN EFFECT NOW.

The second and final vote offer of the campaign is in effect until Saturday August 4th, just three days before the close of the campaign. Up to and including this date an extra club of 30,000 extra votes will be allowed on each and every $15.00 in subscriptions collected. This means that one subscription now is equivalent to two during the closing period, as a one year averages 4,000 votes, while the same subscription during the closing period only counts 2,000 votes.

The subscriptions taken during this period do not count nearly as many votes as were allowed last week, as it was announced in the beginning that the vote, would decrease each period. However, it is readily seen that this period is very important, as one subscription taken now is worth two at the finish.

As announced in the opening advertisement of the drive, the campaign will close on August 8th, and all prizes awarded on that date. Some of the candidates have been advised by their friends that the campaign would be extended and the closing date postponed. This rumor was probably started because of extremely short time allowed the workers in which to get votes, but under no circumstances will the time be extended and those who are expecting additional time in which to secure votes are doomed to disappointment as at eight o'clock Saturday, Aug. 8th, the polls will close and no more subscriptions be accepted.

NO OTHER CANDIDATES MAY ENTER

The bars of the campaign have been put up and no other nominations will be accepted in the drive, so no one need look for dark horses. One of the candidates in the list below are going to drive away the Studebaker, while the others will win the other advertised prises. Of course it is possible that not all the ones mentioned will finish in the drive as the rules are that each one must secure as many as five subscriptions weekly. However, anyone who is taking any interest at all will hardly fail to get this small minimum, and although subscriptions are harder to get than they were during the opening periods, it is certainly an easy task to get a few subscriptions each day.

TERRITORY NOT ALL COVERED

Several of the candidates Saturday seemed to be under the impression that the field had been well covered and that most every body in the entire section had been asked to subscribe, but that is a wrong impression as there are hundreds of prospective subscribers that do not know that a campaign is in progress. True, subscriptions have been received all through the trade territory adjacent to Chestertown, but in a good many cases the field has been hurriedly run over and not worked at all thoroughly. In fact, if one but looks around, good territory is plentiful.

Sad Accident At Church Hill

One of the saddest accidents of the year occurred in Church Hill Thursday afternoon, when Eugene Dudley, the seven-year-old son of Dr. and Mrs. Dudley was instantly killed when hit by an automobile. It is said that the youngster was running behind a wagon and, suddenly leaving the wagon, attempted to cross to the pavement. In doing so he ran in front of a passing auto. The young lad was a boy of exceptional charm and was well liked by all who knew him. Dr. and Mrs. Dudley have the sympathy of the whole Eastern Shore in their bereavement.

Isaac Dobley, driver of a Buick auto, of Centreville, who ran over the boy, at the coroner's inquest yesterday was exonerated from blame.

DEATHS

The whole community was saddened this week by the untimely death of Robert Ralph Copper, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse R. Copper, residing near Kennedyville, from blood poisoning, resulting from an infected arm. He was 17 years of age and was a youth of more than ordinary ability, well liked by all who knew him. He graduated from the Chestertown High School in June of this year and had great promise for a bright future. He is survived by his parents and three sisters, Mrs. R. W. Stavely and Misses Mollie and Jesse Copper. Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon from the home of his parents, conducted by the Rev. S. S. Hepburn, interment in Chester cemetery. The pall bearers were R. Wroth Stavely, Harry Schreiber, Calvin Copper, Wm. Urie, Solomon Chaires and William Loller. C. L. Dodd, undertaker.

He was well-known throughout the community and had an unusually large number of friends. His death is a distinct loss to this section.

Mr. Rogers Wilson, Supt. of the Nemours, West Virginia, works of E. I. duPont de Nemours K Co., and widely known throughout the country, died suddenly in Wilmington, Del., Saturday, following an operation, aged 49 years. He held a most important position with the company. Mr. Wilson was of a genial and lovable disposition and had a wide circle of friends in Wilmington and Chestertown. He was also popular among the employees of the various plants where he had held executive positions. He was interested in the progressive movements of the day and always maintained an interest in athletics which had distinguished him during his school days. He is survived by his widow, who was formerly Mrs. Emma Gilpin Hynson, of Chestertown, and by a brother, R. D. Wilson. He was buried Tuesday morning in Old Swedes Churchyard, the funeral place from the home of Lammot du Pont.

Mrs. Mary Ida Ayres, wife of Mr. Charles Ayres, died after a long illness at her home at Rock Hall on the 18th instant, aged 65 years. She was a member of the M. E. Church, Sunday School and Ladies Aid and was communion stewardess. Besides her husband, there is a foster son, Chas. Brown, of Chester, Pa., and three half-brothers, Marion, Charles and Benjamin Sewell, of Rock Hall. Funeral services were held in Rock Hall M. E. Church Friday afternoon, being conducted by the pastor, Rev. W. H. Revelle and interment made in Wesley Chapel cemetery, where the grave was covered with beautiful floral tributes. The bearers were Marion, Charles and Russell Sewell, Daniel and David Ayres and Marion Downey. T. H. Casey, undertaker.

Mrs. Ayres lived a long and useful life and passed away without leaving the record of an unkind act. She was of a kind and loving disposition, generous in all her dealing with people with whom she came in contact and was ever willing to lend her aid to those who needed it. Her home life was beautiful and serene and her neighbors and friends realize that her place in the community cannot be filled. In her death, Rock Hall has lost one who has left her mark indelibly on the life of the community, whose contribution to wealth of the world's goodness and charity has been inestimable.

Mrs. Pearl Sinclair Hammacher died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Emory Hogans in Rock Hall about 10.30 o'clock Friday night, July 20. She was 46 years old and had been a sufferer for months. She was a native of Frederick County, but has resided in Rock Hall for about 14 years. Besides her husband, Charles Hammacher, she leaves four daughter, Mrs. Emory Hogans, Miss Mildred, Lulu and Geraldine, and two sons, Burton and Thomas. Her brothers and sisters are John and Robert Lochner, Mrs. Lulu Waltemeyer, Mrs. Lillie Gosnell, Mrs. Virginia Koble and Mrs. Mazie Nichols, all of Baltimore. The funeral was held from the home of her daughter, Mrs. Hogans, Monday at 2 p. m., Rev. W. H. Revelle officiating. The bearers were her brothers, John and Robert Lochner, brothers-in-law, Fred Waltemeyer, Thomas Gosnell and Adam Koble, and nephew, Wm. Seidell. Inetrment in Wesley Chapel cemtery. T. H. Casey, funeral director.

Charles Owen Donnelly died at the Johns Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore, July 21, aged 63. Mr. Donnelly came to Rock Hall from Baltimore. He leaves six sons, Charles, Gordon L. and James S., of Baltimore; Howard O., Russell and Waide, of Rock Hall; two daughters, Mrs. Robert Lewis, of Rock Hall, and Mrs. George Lambert, of Worton Point. His sisters are Mrs. Annie Devore and Mrs. Mary Seaton, of Baltimore. He leaves also twelve grandchildren. The remains were brought Monday to the home of his son, Howard Donnelly, and rested there until the funeral services were conducted at 1 o'clock Tuesday by the Rev. W. H. Revelle in the M. E. Church. The bearers wer John Dowling, Sr., Nelson Rodney, Frank Davis, Romie Scoot. Marion Downey and Henry Urie, . of whom are members of the Knights of Pythias, of which order Mr. Donnelly was a member. T. H. Casey, undertaker.

Little Virginia May, only child of Mr. and Mrs. Gibson, of Baltimore, died at the Mercy Hospital, Baltimore, Md., last Saturday. She was a granddaughter of Mrs. Carvill Maslin, of this town, and a niece of Mrs. William Usilton, and she spent a good deal of time during her short life here. She was always considered the embodiment of sturdy health and childish beauty.

Eastern Shore Business Cut

According to reports in the Baltimore press, Baltimore has lost one billion dollars in trade from the Eastern Shore in the last ten year and that trade has been systematically diverted to Wilmington and Philadelphia. The above statement is made in a letter to Governor Ritchie by former industrial commissioner of the Board of Trade, who asked the Governor to appoint a committee to investigate.

—The price of No. 2 wheat at the time of going to press was about 92c.
