MR. CLARENCE NEWSOME, of Betterton, who has many friends in all parts of the county, has announced his candidacy for Treasurer. Mr. Newsome's announcement has met with much favor among the Democratic voters.

MR. HERMAN T. JACOBS, of Rock Hall, one of the best known and most highly thought of citizens of the Fifth District, has announced his candidacy for the House of Delegates. Mr. Columbus Ashley, who was a prospective candidate for the legisalture, has retired in favor of Mr. Jacobs.

THE ticket composed of Messrs. W. B. Copper, Ellsworth Bowers, Herman T. Jacobs, Nicholas V. Waters, Ernest Willson and Clarence Newsome is meeting with great approval throughout the county. Reports at the present time indicate that these men are thoroughly acceptable to the Democratic voters and point to a clear victory over the ticket supported by the opposition.

As the weeks go by the ticket headed by Mr. Copper is gaining strength and the number of voters who are supporting it is remarkable. Every day its strength is increasing and it is clearly the most popular ticket in the field at the present time.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL

After spending a most delightful two weeks camping at Newnam's Wharf, on the Chester river, Mrs. E. R. Anthony and children and Mrs. J. S. Kreeger and children have returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Carroll and son, of Newark, N. J., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Carroll.

Miss Sarah Stewart, of Philadelphia, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Collins.

Miss Alice Crane, of Baltimore, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Slay, left Chestertown on Wednesday.

Messrs. Frank Beck, of St. Louis, and Jesse Gundry, of Catonsville, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Allan Harris.

Mrs. Herbert Skipper, of Baltimore, has been the guest of relatives in Chestertown.

Mrs. Springer and daughter, of Baltimore, have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Hines.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Harris and Miss Cornelia Walker are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Brice at Far Hills, N. J.

Miss Frances Hackett, of Bayonne, N. J., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Julian Power.

Messrs. William Collins, Robert Pippin and Claude Parks, who have completed a six weeks' training course at Camp Meade, have returned home.

Miss Isabel Beck, of Baltimore, has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Allan Harris.

D. B. Ford, Jr., has been quite sick at the home his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Ford.

Mr. Henry Krusen, formerly of near Still Pond, who is now residing in Pennsylvania, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fallowfield.

Harrison W. Vickers, Esq., of Baltimore, is home for the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Panetti, of Baltimore, were Sunday guests of the latter's sister, Mrs. Ellsworth Newcomb.

Mr. A. Parks Rasin, of Baltimore, spent the week-end home.

Mr. James L. Crouch, of Baltimore, spent Sunday the guest of his sister, Mrs. John W. Barnes.

Mr. and Mrs. William Kersey, Mrs. H. D. Weyl, and Mrs. Jack Hammond, were Saturday and Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Emory A. Barnes.

Mr. Vernon Kirby, of Newark, N. J., spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James W. Kirby.

Mr. Dudley Stafford, of Newark, was the week-end guest of his father, Mr. W. B. Stafford.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hirons and two children, of Salisbury, were guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Hirons the past week.

Mr. Wm. Henry, of Chester, Pa., was home for the week-end.

Mrs. John Brock, of Baltimore, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Crew several days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Denver Benton and Mrs. Rayfield, of Baltimore, were the week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. J.W. Kirby.

Mrs. John Allen, of Ridgely, is the guest of her son, Mr. J. F. Allen.

Mr. Mark A. Perkins is convalescent again after a severe attack from gall stones.

Mrs. Emma Miller has returned from Mercy Hospital.

Mr. Dan Reed, of Washington, has been the guest of his sisters here.

Mr. William Bennett, while at work on his farm, near town, caught his finger in a piece of machinery and mashed the end of it off.

A fine son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Solomos recently.

Miss Alegra Wood and brother, of New York, motored to Chestertown recently.

Mr. S. R. Matthews and son, and Mr. Charles King, of Wilmington, were in town Sunday.

Mrs. Margie Finley and son, Mr. Harrison Finley, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Collins on Thursday and Friday.

BETTERTON

The hotels and cottages are now well filled and the season so far has been very satisfactory. On Saturday nights automobiles are here in great numbers and particularly is it a mecca for politicians.

The annual "shoot" given by the Betterton Gun Club attracted a large number of sportsmen from Maryland and Delaware. As usual, the Ladies Aid Society of the Methodits Church served luncheon on the grounds.

Rev. E. M. Shockley, who has been quite sick, is improving. His pulpit was filled last Sunday evening by Rev. Mr. Derrickson, of Odessa.

The Board of Trade of Betterton has engaged a boat to run on schedule between Havre de Grace and Betterton to connect with both north and south bound trains. This step was made necessary because of the irregular schedules of the boats that stop at Betterton.

Mr. Clarence Newsome has returned to his home after being in the hospital in Baltimore since April. We are glad to know that he is very much improved.

Mrs. Charles Gooding and daughter, of Wilmington, are spending several weeks with Mrs. Gooding's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Brice.

Miss Charlotte Cook, of Bushkill, Penna., is visiting Mrs. Violet Crew.

Mrs. Charles Elzey and daughter, of Baltimore, is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Tull, at The Maryland.

Mr. Armstrong, the candidate for governor on the Republican ticket, was entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Owens last week.

Capt. Harvey Brice is erecting a bungalow on his lot on Bayside.

The choir boys and the choir master from a Baltimore church sang at the Episcopal Chapel last Sunday evening. All of the Betterton churches have musical talent from the city at practically all of their services during the summer.

Rev. A. H. Goodhand, a former pastor of the Methodist Church, spent several days at the Chesapeake House this week. He also had charge of the prayer service on Wednesday evening.

In Memoriam

In the death of the late Robert R. Copper, the rector and vestry of I. U. Parish feel that they have met with a loss, the greatness of which they are unable to express in words. His regular attendance upon the services of the church, quiet but deep interest in all that goes on, and, above all, his readiness and dignity in the performance of his duty, as our Junior Warden, were object lessons to one and all of us.

There is not a member of our congregation who will not sadly miss him from our Sunday morning gatherings. This fair promise of a man of high principles and dignity of carriage has been suddenly blighted in its bud. Why, no finite mind can explain. We fall back upon our faith in the WISDOM and LOVE of the Infinite.

Resolved, That in expressing our deepest sympathy with his parents and sisters in the apparently untimely ending of their dear son and brother, we are expressing also our own irreproachable loss.

Resolved, That a copy of these proceedings of our Vestry be sent to the family and also to the county papers.

REV. S. S. HEPBURN, D. D.
P. A. M. BROOKS, Registrar,
For The Vestry.
