A wedding of particular local interest occurred at Sacred Heart Church Chestertown, on Thursday afternoon, when Miss Vera Stuart Layton, the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Layton, of Frankford, Del., became the bride of Mr. James Clarence Usilton, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Gale Usilton, of Chestertown, Md. Rev. Father Earner performed the ceremony. After the wedding the happy young couple left for a honeymoon trip to the seashore. Miss Layton is one of the best known young ladies of Frankford and has a host of friends. Mr. Usilton is the agent on the Maryland-Delaware Peninsula for the Armour Fertilizer Co., and is well-known over the Peninsula. His many warm friends here and elsewhere wish Mr. and Mrs. Usilton a most happy voyage over the matrimonial sea.

Organizing For Boy Scout Work

Mr. W. Goldsborough Bradford, the new Scout Executive for the Eastern Shore Council of Boy Scouts, has established an office at Salisbury, the hub of the Shore, and has alerady done considerable work toward organizing troops in the different counties.

Mr. Bradford met with the Kent Co. Scout Committee Wednesday evening to arrange for the organizing of troops in Kent County. It was decided at this meeting to form community troops, that is, a troop for each town and section of Kent County, and it is up to each community to make its troop the best.

Most of the work done so far has been to select suitable scoutmasters and assistants, but the boys of the county will soon be able to take the scout oath and be full fledged scouts.

Mr. Bradford, in his talk to the local committee, said that he was very much encouraged with the enthusiasm shown all over the Shore, and the Council is indebted to the Salisbury Chamber of Commerce, who have donated an office and furniture for the use of the Scout executive.
