THE prospects for the nomination of the ticket headed by Mr. Copper grow brighter every day. In fact, things could hardly look better.

VOTERS, don't be fooled by the Organization and Anti-Organization propaganda. Don't let a mere name influence you in your vote.

WE present to the voters this morning a full ticket headed by Mr. W. B. Copper. The additions made to the ticket as announced last week are as follows:

For Sheriff: Mr. Charles L. Gill. Mr. Gill has many friends in all parts of the county. He was deputy sheriff under Mr. Bedford Roe and is fully equipped for the office.

For State Central Committee: Mr George E. Noland, of Chestertown; Mrs. Ida C. Loller, of Worton; and Mr. G. Ellsworth Leary, of Rock Hall—are too well known to the voters of Kent County for us to add anything further in the way of an introduction.

For Delegates to the State Convention: Messrs. Robert A. Kennedy, of Kennedyville; Samuel S. Hurlock, of Massey; and Joseph Everett of Pomona—are well known and popular throughout the county and will ably represent Kent County if elected.

I wish to thank my friends who have stood by me, and hope they will give their support to Mr. Copper and the entire ticket he represents."

Wanted That "Farm Bureau"

The Estelline (S. D.) Journal prints the following:

"A Swede in Minnesota took out a membership in the Farm Bureau. About three months afterwards the Department of Agriculture at Washington received a letter from him:

"'I ban sign up for a farm bureau. Not received it as yet. School teacher she ban going to board at our house. My wife she want bureau for spare bedroom. Let me know how soon you will send it.'

"He received the following letter:

"'Dear Sir:—Replying to yours of recent date. We have no bureaus in Washington that we can send out at the present time. However, Sidney Anderson, of Minnesota, is at work on an A No. 1 farm bloc, and as soon as he finishes it we will have it sawed up, made into farm bureaus and send one to you."
