Wrestling Bears in N. Dakota with eyes on NCAA championship

FARGO, ND — Coach James Phillips and his Morgan State University wrestling team arrived here late Thursday to await the whistle for opening matches in the NCAA national championships.

The Bears qualified for the tournament finals, set here at North Dakota State University Sunday and Monday, by capturing the NCAA's Eastern Regional title last week at Johnstown, PA.

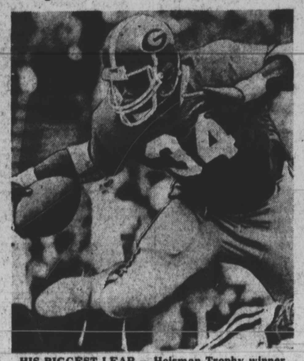
The Bears won with relative ease, accumulating 79¼ points, with Southern Connecticut (63¼) second and Springfield College (57¾) third.

The margin was assured when Morgan won first place in three weight classes and second places in two others.

John Davis, a junior from Norfolk, VA, captured the 158-pound crown. Greg Veal, a senior from Flint, MI, scored at 167 pounds, and Willard Crews, a junior from Penns Grove, NJ, took the 190-pound title.

Runners-up in their respective divisions were Darryl Cuffee at 118 pounds, and Emanuel Yarborough in the unlimited division.

At the Johnstown event, Phillips was named outstanding coach and Veal was voted the outstanding wrestler honor.



HIS BIGGEST LEAP — Heisman Trophy winner Herschel Walker, shown clearing the reach of defending linesmen while starring at University of Georgia, made biggest leap of his career Wednesday when he jumped over his senior year of college into the arms of pro football. Walker, after numerous denials, admitted he signed to play for the New Jersey Generals of the new United States Football League for an estimated $13.2 million.

Weekend track meet pits stars from the CIAA, MEAC, SWAC and SIAC

GOLDEN, CO (UPI) — An athletic event marking the first time the nation's four top black college conferences will compete against each other will be held this weekend at Jackson State College in Mississippi, the sponsor said Tuesday.

The Adolph Coors Brewing Co., said the indoor event, which begins Friday, will feature the finest track and field athletes from the Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association, Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference, Southwestern Athletic Conference, and the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Conference.

A Coors spokesman said 34 black colleges from around the country will be represented and that male and female athletes will compete in the 24-event games.

"With the incredible talent lined up for this first-time meet, we are proud to have been given the chance to become involved with such a first-rate event," said Mac Davis, manager of special markets at Coors.

"With Mississippi being one of our newest states, and the movement of Coors into the Southwest, this is a natural for us," he said.

Coors began marketing its beer in the southeast in January and will have completed its entry into Florida, North and South Carolina, Alabama, Georgia, Virginia, and Washington, DC by the end of the year.

SIGNAL HONOR — Spingarn (DC) High and Syracuse star Dave Bing becomes the first player in Detroit Pistons' history to have his uniform number retired by that NBA club. Ceremony is set March 18, at Pontiac Silverdome, home of the Detroit team for which he played nine years.

Robbie and Ollie

Baseball Hall of Famer Frank Robinson and football Hall of Famer Ollie Matson, who starred in the NFL after a brilliant collegiate career at University of San Francisco, last weekend were inducted into the Bay Area Hall of Fame at San Francisco.

Twiggs exhibit

ORANGEBURG, SC — An exhibition of batik paintings by Dr. Leo F. Twiggs, professor of art at South Carolina State College will open at the York County Museum in Rock Hill Sun., Feb. 27.

Twigs, a native of St. Stephen, SC, began experimenting with batik in 1965. Batik is an ancient wax resist process traditionally used to decorate fabric. His experiments led to the development of a unique batik painting technique which has gained international recognition. his work has been exhibited in over 40 one-man shows and in U.S. Embassies in Rome, Italy; Dakar, Senegal; and Togoland, Africa.

Several national publications have featured articles on his work and reproductions of his paintings have appeared on the covers of "Instructor" and several issues of "The Crisis" magazines.

In 1972, he was honored by South Carolina State College for outstanding contributions and notable achievement in art and in 1980 he received the Governor's trophy—the O'Neil Verner Award as the State's outstanding in-

A BLOW FOR AGE — Al Bumbry takes swing in first practice session as the Orioles opened spring training in Miami Wednesday. Bumbry, who will be 36 before the season is a month old, is bent on holding his centerfield job against the threat of 25-year-old John Shelby.

Firebirds remain No. 1, Wolves second

WASHINGTON

The University of the District of Columbia Firebirds' basketball squad recorded their second consecutive 20 win season, 20-2, and extended their current win streak to fifteen (15) games with wins over Virginia State (95-89), Lincoln (81-69), Radford (104-92), Morgan State (117-81), California State (93-83), and Lincoln (131-90) at home.

Senior Forward Michael Britt pulled down his 1,000th career rebound in the second Lincoln game, collecting 15 caroms to push his career total to 1,003.

During the last six (6) games, the Firebirds have averaged 103.7 points per game (ppg), and in the last three (3) home contests UDC's offense has averaged 417.3 ppg. Firebird mentomentor Wil Jones commented:

"The team is getting ready for the NCAA playoffs superbly... they are executing wellon both offense adn defense, and are showing tremendous hustle on every play."

Jones continued, "Make no mistake about it, we don't intend to lose our concentration and let someone slip up on us for an upset." "If you get lazy or complacent at this time of year that can easily happen."

Bits o' briefs

That's speed!

NEW YORK — Stephanie Hightower and Candy Young, two of America's premier female hurdlers, will compete in the USA Indoor Track and Field Championships Friday night.

Benita Fitzgerald, ranked third in the country behind Hightower and Young, will also compete in the 60 - yard dash field.

In their exciting photo finish last year, Hightower and Young ran stride for stride at the Wanamaker Millrose Games to a 7.37 world indoor record tie at 60 - yard hurdles.

Two for one

Two heavyweight title fights will take place on May 20, with World Boxing Council champion Larry Holmes defending his title against Tim Witherspoon and World Boxing Association title holder Michael Dokes facing ex-champion Mike Weaver.

The program will take in two separate locations and will be televised on a pay-per-view basis and on closed circuit. ABC Video Enterprises and ESPN are co - promoting the fights with Don King.

Elder eases up

Profiting from a small piece of the Hawaiian Open, Lee Elder eased his way up from 77th place to 65th among pro golf's 100 money leaders this week.

Meanwhile, Calvin Peete dropped one place from 7th to 8th in the standings, climbed over by Japanese Isao Aoki, whose spectacular 128-yard shot gave him the Honolulu title.

Peete has won $35,679, Elder $8,122.

Walcott ailing

Former heavyweight champion "Jersey" Joe Walcott was listed in stable condition early Wednesday morning at Cooper Medical Center in Camden (NJ) after he complained of chest pains Sunday, hospital officials said.

"He's doing fine," a nursing supervisor said of the 69-year-old Walcott. "He came in late Sunday."
