AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENTS

Death Claims Several As A Result Of Motoring In This Section Of The Country

Death claimed several and a number are laid up by injuries because of automobile accidents in Kent county and this section of the country during the past week-end, when a most liberal outpouring of motoring from far and near jammed the roads from dawn until dusk.

A man by the name of Catts, driving a large truck, crowded with colored people, returning from a picnic, ran into the evening train at Millington as it was approaching the station, instantly killing the driver and seriously injuring a number of the occupants. The driver of the truck evidently failed to see the approaching train as it was nearing the station and endeavored to cross the tracks ahead of the engine which struck the truck and dragged it and its occupants for some distance.

Another accident occurred near Brown's Woods in Queen Anne's Co. near Chestertown in which several of the occupants of a car were injured.

A brother of Dr. Davidson, superintendent of the Easton Hospital, was seriously injured in an accident near Queenstown Monday.

While on their way to Chestertown from Wilmington Saturday, the family of Mr. William E. Truitt, of Wilmington, were badly injured when their car struck an abutment, after the driver had turned around to speak to some one in the car. The accident occurred near Chesapeake City. Mr. and Mrs. Truitt suffered concussion of the brain from the force of the blow received when thrown from the car, and the little girl, Mary Virga Truitt, died in Elkton Hospital, as a result of having her skull fractured. All of the party are in a serious condition and some doubt exists as to their recovery. Three of the other Truitt children, William, Bessie and Charles, and their cousin, Miss Minnie Whiteley, of Chestertown, who were also thrown from the car, were only slightly injured.

The funeral of Mary Virga Truitt was held Thursday afternoon, conducted by Rev. N. O. Gibson, interment in Chester cemetery. C. L. Dodd, undertaker.

The bearers were Elwood Erskin, Harrison Jackson, Walter Truitt, Kennard Truitt, Elmer Truitt and Walter Barnes.

Cruising Fleet At Betterton

The cruiisng fleet of yachts from the Delaware river made its appearance in the waters of the Chesapeake Bay off Betterton Saturday. It was the third time that the fleet had been to Betterton in its 30-day stay in the Chesapeake. There were 28 boats in the fleet which anchored off the beach. Four of the members of the fleet did not return across the bay from Annapolis, but proceeded up the Potomac river to Washington. The fleet was one of the largest in the history of the annual riverside cruise and was without a doubt the largest to remain together in the group for the outing.

The fleet was a representaive one from the Delaware river section. There were representatives from the following clubs: Adelphia, Farragut, Columbia, Wilmington, Forest Hills, Yachtsmen's and a mammoth Riverside delegation.

WEDDINGS

The wedding of Daniel Quinn and Miss Mary Cornelius, of Galena, who were married several months ago by Father Kerns, has just been announced.

The wedding of Mr. William Shelmerdine Perkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter W. Perkins, of Mr. and Mrs. Walter W. Perkins, of 269 W. Walnut Lane, Germantown, Pa., to Miss Constance S. Ranyard, of Santa Monica, Cal., will take place on Saturday, Sept. 8, 1923, at Saint Augustine P. E. Church Santa, Monica. Mrs. Perkins is now in California and Mr. Perkins will go west for the wedding. The young couple expect to make their home in Beverly Hills, Cal.

—Chestertown boys have been playing havoc with watermelon patches in Queen Anne's, near the bridge. Not only have they been going into the patches and helping themselves, but have also deliberately set about to destroy the whole patch. A few years ago this same condition prevailed until one of the farmers in that section, taking the law in his own hands, filled several of the night raiders with small shot. Until the past few days, the habit of watermelon stealing in that section was broken up.
