Items From Pensula Towns That Will Interest Our Readers

At this time it is said to be a hard matter to estimate the outcome of the tomato crop in Talbot.

Plans are being formed and work will probably start in the very near future on construction that will place at the command of practically every hamlet on the Eastern Shore of Maryland and give to every farmer on the main thoroughfares of the shore electric current. This work is being done by the McCalls Ferry Co. through its subsidaries.

Despondency, brought on by poor health, resulted in Alfred Boyce, aged 66 years, committing suicide. The aged man placed a shotgun under his chin and with a forked stick pulled the trigger.

While saving a young son from the water recently in Wye river, off Bryan Point, Thomas Edward Higdon was drowned. The heroic manner in which the father gave his life for that of his son will be a silver lining to the dark cloud that has enveloped the family.

But for the sheer pluck of 12-year-old Rebecca Wise, daughter of G. Stewart Wise, Roland Park, Md., Charles L. Goodhand, Jr., of near Stevensville, in all probability would have been drowned recently off Kent Island. Gooding in some manner fell overboard and was rescued by young Miss Wise.

Harry Howard, escaped convict from the Maryland Penitentiary, was recaptured at Princess Anne, Md., recently.

Edward and William, aged 8 and 6 year, sons of Edward Simpson, of near Elkton, were in a field keeping some cattle off the growing corn recently during a storm. Edward was killed by a lightning bolt. William was stunned.

Talbot fruit growers are being confronted with a comparatively new insect pest, known as the European Red Mite.

Governor Ritchie recently appointed Robert L. Seth, of St. Michaels, to be sheriff of Talbot county, succeeding Ira B. Caulk, resigned. The new sheriff will serve until the election of his successor.

Famous Bull Dead

Tuberculosis last week claimed the last of the two famous bulls, owned by the late John E. George, of Sudlersville, and famous throughout the Holstein-Fresian world for several years. He was King Segis Pontiac Merengo, half-brother of King Segis Pontiac Alcarta, the famous $50,000 sensation of Holstein-Fresian artistocracy. With King Segis Pontiac Merengo went fifteen fine Holstein-Fresian milch cows, owned by Mrs. Elvira A. George, and valued at approximately $3,500. They were on the farm of Frank Biddle, near Sudlersville, and were condemned by state authorities after a tuberculin test. King Segis Pontiac Walker, the other famous bull of the George herd, died several years ago.

The animals were ordered shipped to the Greenwald Packing Company, Baltimore, for slaughter. The state authorities pay about $100 a head for each thoroughbred cow ordered killed, because of tuberculosis infection, and as a result Mrs. George will lose nearly $2000 because of the appearance of the disease.

Plans To Enlarge Study Of Farming

Fourteen new departments of vocational agriculture will be established this year throughout the state, many of them on the Eastern Shore, J. D. Blackwell, recently appointed State Director of Vocational Education, announced recently.

Mr. Blackwell has taken up his duties in the Department of Education. He succeeds Roy Dimmitt, who has been appointed dean of the faculty and director of student activities at Alabama Polytechnic Institute.

The new director is cooperating with county superintendents and local school authorities in obtaining teachers for the vocational agriculture departments, he said.

A conference of vocational home economics teachers is planned at the University of Maryland in the near future.

Districts conferences for teachers of vocational agriculture probably will be held throughout the state, it is said.

POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENT

Centreville, Maryland.

August 3, 1923.

TO THE DEMOCRATIC VOTERS OF THE SECOND JUDICIAL CIRCUIT OF MARYLAND:

By the Constitution of Maryland, provision is made for the election, by the people, of Judges for the several Judicial Circuits into which the state is divided and, among other things, the qualifications therein mentioned for Judges are as follows:

"They shall be selected from those who have been admitted to practice law in this state, and who are most distinguished for integrity, wisdom and sound legal knowledge."

If my reputation, after having engaged in the practice of law for practically thirty years, and my record, after having served as Associate Judge of your Judicial Circuit for nearly one year, leads you to believe that I possess the above mentioned necessary qualification, I will be very grateful should you determine to support me at the approaching Democratic Primary Election.

The duties incident to my present position preclude me from making the usual personal and political campaign.

Very truly yours,

THOMAS J. KEATING,

BRICE'S MILL

JOSEPH BRICE, Proprietor.

Bake things he likes with FLAVO FLOUR. It's healthful and tissue building. There is more nutrition and a sweeter taste in FLAVO FLOUR. It is made with a new process by the most modern mill in the world. Nature's food values and the delicious flavor of the wheat are not milled out as they are by other methods. FLAVO FLOUR is milled at home from home wheat. It is good. Buy it and patronize Home Industry.
