INSTRUCTOR-ASSISTANT PROFESSOR OF INDUSTRIAL ART EDUCATION
MILLERSVILLE STATE COLLEGE

Two full-time positions with possible tenure track are available effective August 30, 1983, contingent upon budget approval. One position will teach industrial arts education methods, general laboratory courses and requires the supervision of individualized senior research projects in a wide variety of technological areas. Secondary strengths in industrial materials would also be desirable. The second position is available for an individual to teach laboratory courses and should have primary strengths in electricity, electronics, and electronic communications systems. Secondary strengths in power technology would also be desirable. Emphasis will be placed on a demonstrated commitment to industrial arts teacher education. Job responsibilities will include student advisement, participation in curriculum development, program and faculty improvement, department and college committees, and laboratory maintenance. Candidate must have technical and teaching proficiencies in the above-mentioned areas, a bachelor's and a master's degree in industrial arts - industrial education, and three years teaching experience. Persons invited for interview will be asked to provide portfolio or other evidence personal and-or teaching ability in the above-mentioned areas. Persons holding the doctorate, or committed to completing the doctorate, will be given special consideration. Salary is competitive and commensurate with academic preparation and experience. Appointment is for nine months with the possibility of limited summer employment. Fringe benefits include hospitalization, dental and visual programs. Millersville State College has an enrollment of approximately 6,000 undergraduate students and 500 graduate students. The Industrial Arts Department consists of 19 full-time staff members, 400 undergraduate and 40 graduate students. The college is located three miles southwest of Lancaster in the heart of the Pennsylvania Dutch Country, 80 miles from Philadelphia, 75 miles from Baltimore, and 120 miles from Washington. Individuals interested in applying for these positions should forward a resume and credentials by May 9, 1983 to: Dr. Philip D. Wynn, Chairperson, Department of Industrial Arts Education, Millersville State College, Millersville, PA 17551 (Phone 717-872-3316). Millersville State College earnestly seeks and is eager to receive applications from women and minority candidates.
