THE TRANSCRIPT

TUESDAY, Sept. 4, will be Registration Day for the primaries. All persons who are not now registered and do not register on that day will be unable to vote in the primary. If you are not registered, be sure to do so on Tuesday.

THE POLITICAL SITUATION

From all parts of the county reports are very favorable to the nomination of the full ticket headed by Mr. W. B Copper. In fact, we never in any campaign saw prospects brighter than they are at the present time.

The district workers report that the Copper ticket is gaining supporters every day and many people in all parts of the county are out working for its success on September 10.

THE following ticket, subject to the Democratic Primaries, is a very popular one in this county. All indications point to the nomination of every candidate on this ticket.

Mr. George E. Noland, candidate for State Central Committee, represented Kent County in the Legislature several years ago. He is well known throughout Kent County. For many years he was manager for the Tolchester Company at Tolchester. He now conducts a department store in Chestertown and manages his interests at Tolchester. He will be a credit to the Democratic party as a member of the State Central Committee.

Mrs. Ida C. Loller, of Worton, is a member of the present State Central Committee and is a candidate for re-election. She is a lady of wonderful executive ability, a hard worker, and of great value to the Democratic party in Kent county.

Mr. G. Ellsworth Leary, of Rock Hall, is one of Kent County's leading business men. He conducts his large lumber interests in the Fifth District, is well known throughout Kent County and will make an able representative on the State Central Committee.

Mr. Charles L. Gill, candidate for sheriff, has had experience in the sheriff's office, having served as a deputy. Mr. Gill proved to be a very courageous official and well qualified for the office of sheriff.

The present judges of the Orphans' Court, Dr. Edward A. Scott, Mr. Walter K. Hudson and Mr J. Henry Thompson, who have administered their duties in a satisfactory manner, have no opposition in the primary and will be the Democratic candidates.

Mr. S. Scott Beck, State's Attorney for the past four years, who has filled the office in a very able manner, has no opposition in the primary.

Mr. Robert A. Kennedy is a young and prosperous farmer of near Kennedyville and representative of the farming interests of the county. He is a candidate for delegate to the State Convention and should be nominated.

Mr. Samuel S. Hurlock, of Massey, is a young and active business man and a son of Mr. Clarence S. Hurlock, who has figured in Kent County politics for half a century. Mr. Hurlock is a representative Democrat and should be sent as a delegate to the State Convention.

Mr. Joseph Everett, of near Pomona, a successful farmer of the Seventh District, is well and favorably known throughout the county. He is deserving of the support of the Democratic votes in his candidacy for delegate to the State Convention.

Chautauqua In Progress

As we go to press today, the Chautauqua for 1923 is in progress, with good prospects for a fine program and a week of real enjoyment. The Chautauqua has become a part of the life of the community as each year it brings to us its message of good cheer and happiness. During the past few years it has required considerable effort on the part of our people to continue the Chautauqua another year, but those behind the movement are confident that it will be held here next year as usual. The Chautauqua began Thursday afternoon and will be held every day until Wednesday evening, which will be the concluding performance. Many lecturers and musical artists of note are on the program, perhaps the most prominent being Mr. Redfield, who was in President Wilson's cabinet.

UNDER a ruling of the Attorney General of Maryland, any voter who has been registered in Baltimore City, or in any county of the state, and has been a resident of Kent County for six monthsprior to Sept. 4, can register on Tuesday and vote in the primary on Sept. 10.

THE CONQUEROR
By Grantland Rice

Here I shall wait
To meet the rush of some relentless fate,
Content to know that I will be supreme
Against the bitter sword that life may wave;
Where I will hold to one eternal dream
Of valor riding roughshod to the grave.

Here I shall stand
Against misfortune, with its crushing hand,
And, though it crowd me to the lowest pit
Where I may see no starlight in the sky,
Yet I shall struggle upward, bit by bit,
Until I see the white dawn drifting by.

For any soul
The fight is more important than the goal.
Strife, toil and struggle, with their share of pain,
Are winning trainers down the long, hard beat,
And fate, in all its fury, sweeps in vain
Against the soul that marches through defeat.

The game means more
Than any flare of glory from the score;
The dawn is brighter that we see at last
Through shadows blacker than the stain of sin;
And when we know the final fight is past,
What is there left worth while for one to win?

Interesting Case In Court

The Court House here has been crowded by people interested in the outcome of the trial of Nelson Stevens vs. members of the Cedar Point Ducking Club, which is a suit to prevent Mrs. John Wood, of Eastern Neck Island, near Rock Hall, who owns the Cedar Point Ducking Shore, from executing a lease to Mr. Stevens and a number of sportsmen from Baltimore, for a period of 10 years at an annual rental of $1500 per year. The point at issue between the interested parties is that John Wood, one of the heirs to the property, who has the management of the estate, made a verbal agreement with the members of the Cedar Point Ducking Club to rent or lease the shore to the club for a period of three years at an annual rental of $500, which lease, it is claimed, has not yet expired, notwithstanding the fact that all the heirs to the property, including Mrs. Wood, recently executed a written lease to Mr. Stevens for the period mentioned above at an annual rental of $1500. Lawyers for Mr. Stevens contend that the lease made by John Wood, only one of the heirs, and which is not a written lease, is not binding upon the estate, but that the lease recently executed and is said to contain the names of all the heirs to the property, is the only valid lease. Judge Lewin W. Wickes is hearing the testimony in the case, which has been held up for the time being.

HOPE TO AVERT COAL STRIKE
Miners And Operators In Conference Called By Governor Pinchot, Of Pennsylvania, In Effort To Settle Disputes

One of the most important things to people of Kent county, as well as the nation at large, is the threatening coal strike among the bituminous miners of the country, and all eyes eagerly scan the papers each day for the result of the conference which Governor Pinchot, of Pennsylvania, has called at Harrisburg, Pa., where an effort is being made to settle the disputes between those who operate the mines and the owners.

The belief is strong that the miners' reply will go far toward opening the door for complete adjustment, and while no definite word has reached the country belief grows that their reply will be, in the main, a reluctant acquiescence.

There seems to be a great difference in opinion regarding the outcome of the conference. The Baltimore Sun is of the opinion that the conference will settle the differences, while, on the other hand, the New York Times takes a widely different view and thinks a strike quite probable. Whichever is right, it is clear that even should the optimistic feeling be well-founded, there will be several wrinkles to be ironed out. Governor Pinchot evidently thinks so, for he has announced that the meetings are closed affairs,instead of being open, as heretofore.

The probability of a protracted conference, running into Saturday, may mean some temporary suspension of mining.

At best, the situation is a grave one, with the public being greatly inconvenienced, one way or another, before it is settled permanently.

News Items Of General Interest

A gross profit of $379,000 was made by the Leviathan on her maiden trip, according to figures issued at Washington. Receipts on the outward voyage from New York to Europe were $441,000 and those on the return trip $368,000. The actual operating expenditures, not including capital cost and other overhead, for the round trip totaled $400,000.

Edward W. Bok will pay $100,000 for the best practicable peace plan. This plan must provide a practicable means whereby the United States can take its place and do its share toward preserving world peace,while not making compulsory the participation of the United States in European wars, if any such are, in the future, found unpreventable.

During a debate in the South African Assembly relative to an appropriation of a quarter of a million pounds for the relief of unemployment, two radicals chained themselves to the rail of the public gallery, and from there insisted on addressing the House. It required half an hour to unchain them.

The Paris City Loan Bank, or municipal pawnshop, has added an automobile section to its activities. Two plots of land have been acquired on which garages are being built for the purpose of housing machines of temporary impoverished sportsmen.

A wild rubber plant, resembling the Texas greasewood bush, grows in Texas. It is the only rubber-producing plant known to grow uncultivated in North America. It is found in the Big Bend country of both Texas and Mexico. There is a rubber factory located in Brewster county, Texas, that manufactures rubber from this plant.
