ON page six of this issue will be found the platform adopted by the Democratic Convention at the meeting on Thursday, Sept. 20. The campaign will be fought this fall on the issues embodied in this platform. therefore, every voter should read this platform and acsuaint themselves with these issues. It is a platform that any Democrat should be proud of.

REGISTRATION

Tuesday, Oct. 2, and Tuesday, Oct. 9, are registration days. All Democrats who did not register or transfer on Sept. 4 should not fail to do so on Tuesday, Oct, 2, or Tuesday, Oct. 9, as these are the only days you will have an opportunity to do so. If you have moved from one district or precinct in the county to another district or precinct since the election last November, you must get registered in the district or precinct you now live in, in order to be able to vote this coming November. Tuesday, Oct. 16, is for transfer only. You cannot register on that date.

DISTINGUISHED GUESTS HERE

Eastern Shore Society, With Governor Ritchie As A Guest, Here Last Last Friday

Chestertown entertained some distinguished guests last Friday evening. In the gathering were Governor Ritchie, candidate for re-election; Mr. Robinson, candidate for Attorney-General, and Mr. Gordy, candidate for Comptroller. These gentlemen were here with the Eastern Shore Society of Baltimore, who were on their annual tour of the Eastern Shore. When the boat left Batlimore there was a general understanding that politics was not to be discussed, so by common consent, the conversation and speeches on board and ashore were held rigidly to discussion of the Eastern Shore and the nobility of character, chivalry, culture and courage, courtesy, breadth and intelligence of Eastern Shoremen wherever and when ever found, with occasional lapses into dneunciation of the metropolitan press of the day. In the party were the following former Kent countians: James W. Chapman, D. B. Stewart, Leaf Erickton.

At Chestertown, where the Talbot carrying the Society, docked for the night, a big reception was held in William Smith Hall. Washington College, where the visitors were gretted by Postmaster T. D. Bowers, in a most appropriate speech, and officially and felicitiously welcomed by President Titsworth, the new head of Washington College, the future of which is brighter than for many years. Responses were made by George L. Radcliffe, president of the Society; Governor Ritchie, and John H. Shanahan. All the visiting speakers told merry little stories, most of which were now on the Eastern Shore and well received.

The party left Chestertown for Talbot at 12 o'clock. It rained hard during the night and the boat had to tie up to a wharf until it was over. At Easton and elsewhere on the Shore the Baltimoreans were given a royal welcome.

Enter Fine Cattle At National Show

One thousand one hundred and fifty of the finest pure-bred dairy cattle of the five leading breeds, Holstein, Ayrshire, Guernsey, Jersey and Brown Swiss, have been entered in the National Dairy Show, which will be held at the fair grounds at Syracuse, N.Y., Oct. 5-13, County Agent H. B. Derrick has been informed by the management. A significant feature of the entries is that many of them are for one or two cattle, showing that breeders are sending only their best to the exposition. In one group of 95 entries, Mr. Derrick was informed, only 12 breeders entered more than 11 cattle. It is evidence, he said, that the champions of champions are being sent to the show to fight it out for the championship of America.
