DEATHS

(Other Deaths On Page 7)

The funeral of Mr. Joseph Mallalieu, who died at his home in Millington yesterday morning about 2 p. m., will take place Monday next from his late residence in Millington at 11 a.m., Rev. G. F. Newton, officiating. He was perhaps the oldest living Mason in Kent county, having been a Mason for about 61 years. Mr. Mallalieu was a member of the Mallaieu family, who established the Mallalieu Woolen Mills in Queen Anne's county, near Millington. He was a prominent Republican and was one of the few Republicans who was ever elected to public office in Queen Anne's, where he then resided, being elected to the House of Delegates from that county about forty years ago. Mr. Mallalieu was a man of generous impulses and a good citizen. He was about 82 years old.

Millington Boy Scouts Organized

Troop No. 1, Boy Scouts of Millington, were organized last Thursday night, Oct. 3, at the Millington High School. The troop organizing and the Parent-Teachers Association held a joint meeting. Mr. W. T. Ritter, principal of the High School, was chosen to serve as scoutmaster of the new troop. Eighteen boys expressed their desire to become scouts. All of the teachers and a large number of the townspeople were present. The scout executive, W. Goldsborough Bradford, of the Eastern Shore Council, Boy Scouts of America, was present and gave an illustrated talk on the Boy Scout movement.

This is the third troop to be installed in Kent County. Fairlee, Rock Hall, Kennedyville and Galena are expecting to organize in the next two weeks.
