DEMOCRATIC MEETINGS

As will be seen by reference to the schedule of the meetings at the head of this column, a number of Democratic meetings have been arranged for this county. Every voter who can should attend one or more of these meetings and hear from first hands the issues of the campaign discussed. There are a number of important issues in this campaign that are of vital interest to the people of this county and state that the voters should become familiar with. So satisfactory has Governor Ritchie's administration been to the Democrats of the state that a candidate could not be found in the state to oppose him in the primaries. His administration thus speaks for itself, and it is upon this record that the governor is making his fight for re-election in November. The Republicans are endeavoring to find holes in the Democratic platform for argument for their ticket, but so clear and clean is the Democratic platform that the Armstrong ticket cannot penetrate it. Governor Ritchie will speak in Chestertown Oct. 25, when all who wish will be given an opportunity to hear him present his views on the issues now before the voters of this county. Secretary of State Brooke Lee and Congressman Tidings and others will speak at Betterton on Saturday, Oct. 20, and other speakers of recognized ability will speak at the other meetings throughout the county.
