TIMOTHY SEED!

Our car of fine NEW CROP Western Seed has arrived.

The Purity and Germination are of the best.

The Price is RIGHT.

Better place your order at once, as the market is very strong and continues to advance. Order now and save money.

Yours for service,

Jones & Satterfield

CHESTERTOWN, MD.

PHONE 51

When it comes to buying gifts you want to go to the store that offers the most suggestions in that line.

This store and our stock teems with gift suggestions for every member of the family or circle of friends.

Come in and get the suggestions whether you purchase or nol.

DIAMONDS KODAKS SUPPLIES SILVER WARE CUT GLASS CHINA

J. S. Kreeger

JEWELER AND OPTOMETRIST

WATCHES PHONE 53-J CHESTERTOWN, MD.

CULP Lumber

Everything to Build Anything

WORKING PLANS FREE

AT OUR OFFICE

Full Stock Building Material

W. S. & A. M. CULP

Phone 5 Chestertown, Md.

GEO. W. FRENCH, Agent.

For all kinds of insurance. Prompt personal attention.
Phones 117 and 222R. Court Street.
Chestertown, Md.

ANNOUNCEMENT TO THE PUBLIC

Mr. John Wethered Barroll, Counsellor-at-Law, announces that he has opened his office in the frame law office on Court Street, adjoining the Lyceum Theatre. All kinds of legal business will receive his prompt and close attention. When not in the office, a message can be left with his father, Hope H. Barroll, Esq., whose assistance is always at his command.
Phone No. 182. 08-tf

CAPITAL $100,000

Business Established Since, 1885.

Stewart Fruit Co.,

of Baltimore City,

1 & 3 E. Pratt St., Baltimore, Md.

Commssion Merchants.

Jobbers and Distributors

All Fruits, Vegetables and Farm Produce generally.

We have an excellent store location, expert markers.

LOCAL ITEMS OF INTEREST

—Chestertown's new fire equipment will be here in about ten days.

—Goose-bone prophets are stating that the coming winter will be normal.

—Kelley's Band, of Chestertown, furnished music for the big auction lot sale held on Monday.

—Fishing on Chester River bridge has been the poorest this season than for many years past.

—Centreville papers are chronicling the fact that the town will soon have a plant to pack tuna fish.

—The big grain elevator belonging to Metclfe Bros., near the Chestertown depot, is nearly completed.

—Alex Herzberg, Jr., nine years old, won the Ford car given away at the Usilton lot sale Monday.

—It is understood that the work of laying cement on the Maple avenue road will begin Monday morning.

—The New York Yankees won the world's championship baseball series, taking four games out of six played.

—There is 3,584 acres of marshy land in Talbot County, 192 acres being fresh marsh and 3,392 salt.

—On Tuesday morning of last week W. F. Dukes, of Snow Hill, committed suicide, taking a large dose of sulphate of strychnine.

—Northern cities are making bids for Kent and Queen Anne's county holly and crow foot for the Christmas holidays.

—The Caroline County dog fund has vanished, due to the incessant raids on turkeys and sheep by dogs and so forth.

—One of the features of the Rock Hall school festival tonight will be the competitive sailing of Ritchie and Armstrong canes.

—Solomon Chaires, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Chairs, has been appointed book-keeper in the Peoples Bank in place of Mr. Oscar P. Comegys, resigned.

—Fire of unknown origin destroyed the garage of Mr. A. P. Story, at Crumpton, Wednesday morning. The contents of the building were moved to a place of safety.

—Harry C. Stevens, a farmer of near Sudlersville, is the owner of one of the most profitable cows on the Shore. The cow is thirteen years old and has given birth to fourteen calves.

—The Samuel Maslin farm, near St. Paul's Church, has been sold at private sale by W. M. Slay, Esq., attorney, to Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Carver, of Baltimore, who will tenant the same.

—Ability to choose between the laying hen and the nonlayer is easily developed by poultry owners and should be put in practice at the proper time and the non-layers culled out.

—Unaccompanied, and with only a 17-foot open canoe to combat the elements, C. Norman Davis, of the C. & P. Co. at Salisbury, has started on a vacation trip of about 400 miles. His destination is Newburgh, N. Y.

—The luscuous strawberry, which has returned to the coffers of the farmers in Wicomico County millions of dollars in recent years, is slowly but surely losing out in the opinion of many engaged in the business.

—Hardly had the town of Pocomoke City gotten over its recent disturbance when a new stable, belonging to Sylvester Messick, special policeman, was dynamited. The case has been turned over to the Grand Jury for investigation.

—On Sunday, Oct. 14, an oyster scald was held by the ex-service men at Quaker Neck Wharf, under the auspices of the Frank M. Jarman Post, American Legion. The scald was held on Sunday because most of the ex-service men are busy during the week.

—State Policeman Herbert McCauley, of the Commissioner of Motor Vehicles office in Baltimore, and who visits Chestertown every two weeks, was cut on the head in Baltimore recently, while giving an examination to an applicant, colliding with another car.

—The Old Line Construction Co. is now laying concrete on the hill east of Wilkins' Lane. When completed this road will be a big thing for the Quaker Neck farmers, who, for many years, have been compelled to reach Chestertown through many inches of mud in winter and spring.

—The auction sale of building lots on the John G. Usilton tract, Chestertown, last Monday, was the biggest event of the kind ever negotiated here. More than 100 lots were disposed of at prices ranging from $60 to $275 per lot of 25 feet frontage each. The sale aggregated about $12,500.

—A compromise has been effected in the dispute over Cedar Point Ducking Shore by which the former renters are enabled to gun several more years at Hale Point. Hale Point is owned by Mr. R. Nelson Stevens, one of the men interested in the lease of Cedar Point to the Baltimoreans.

—The sum of $1,0[illegible]3.815 was paid by 301,430 persons to see the World's Series of 1923, ending with the sixth game Monday. These figures make a new record, the old high mark having been established in 1921, when the Giants and Yankees, in an eight-game series, attracted 269,[illegible]77 persons, with receipts of $900,223.

—By the filing of application with the Public Service Commission, the purchasers of the Patuxent and Potomac River lines of the defunct Md., Del. and and Virginia Railway on Monday took the first official steps toward organizing the lines into a new corporation. The new organization will be known as the Baltimore and Virginia Steamboat Co.

—The celebration of the Jr. O. U. A. M. on Wednesday night was a big success, notwithstanding the fact that a number of other important events were in progress about town. A memorial service will be held at the lodge room on Sunday afternoon at 3 p. m., Oct. 28, in honor of departed members. Addresses will be delivered by Senator W. F. Russell, Mr. J. B. McIntire and Mr. Hague.

—These are busy days for the Talbot county farmer. He has just finished his tomato harvest and then he jumped immediataely into preparing his seed bed for wheat. Ordinarily but little wheat is seeded before Oct. 15, but this year has not been the case. The cool evenings and mornings of recent date, with a few touches of frost, have made the conditions ideal for seeding.

—One of Easton's citizen's religiously believed in the time-worn saying, "see a pin and pick it up and all day you'll have good luck" until the other day. He saw a pine and stooped to pick it up. However, his hat fell into a puddle of water, his glasses dropped from his nose and smashed on the sidewalk, he burst three suspender buttons off and tore the buttonhole of the neckband of his shirt. Warning: Don't show him more pins lying on the sidewalk.

—On the Eliason farm, in Talbot, enough peas to pack 18,000 cases, or about 96 tons of peas. On the same land 30 acres of cowpeas were grown and 20 acres of alfalfa.

—Depending upon whether assets on hand can be liquidated to advantage, investors in the stock of the bankrupt R. L. Dollings Co. of Pennsylvania will receive about 20 cents on the dollar, according to the appraiser's report. The receiver filed his report recently in the U. S. District Court, at Philadelphia. It shows 3000 stockholders hold stock with a par value of $3,000,000, the concern's assets being $693,147.93.

—Ralph W. Cooper, aged 23 years, of Wilmington, Del., who frequently visits friends in Chestertown, had a narrow escape from death recently when 3600 volts of electricity passed through his body when he came in contact with a live wire on the "high line" while his engine was passing through Philadelphia. He was a drum major in the 198th Artillery in the World's War. While extremely ill, he is improving.

CHURCH NOTES

(Other Church Notes on page 2)

At the Chestertown M. E. Church, the Rev. T. J. Sard, Pastor, the services on Sunday will be, Sunday School at 10.00 o'clock. Preaching at 11.00 sermon text, "In Beginning God Created the Heaven and the Earth." Epworth League at 6.45 Topic, "Faith in Prayer or Faith in God." Leader, Miss Maud Kemp. Preaching at 7.30 sermon text, "O Lord, Revive Thy Work."

The Chestertown Group Meeting on "World Service" will meet on Wednesday Oct. 24th. for afternoon and evensessions, program as follows. 2.00 Devotions, Rev. S. T. Barrett; 2.15 Roll Call; 2.30 Introduction of World Service Book, Rev. J. J. Bunting; 3.00 Foreign Missions, Rev. E. W. McDowell; 3.15 Home Missions, Rev. O. E. Jones, D. S.; 3.30 Committee on Conservation and Advance, Rev. Frank White; 3.45 What the Centenary Has Accomplished, Rev. T. J. Sard; 4.00 The New England States, Rev. G. E. Sterling; The South Atlantic States, Rev. E. M. Shockley; The Territories, Rev. W. B. Horner; World Service in China, Rev. W. H. Revelle; Our task in India, Rev. W. C. McClintock; World Service in Europe, Miss Suse Hill; World Service in South America, Mrs. Walter Bramble; 5.00 How to sell the Book, Mr. H. F. Jefferson; Evening Session, 7.30 Devotions, Rev. J. M. Lindale; 8.00 Address.

Still Pond M. E. Church, Sunday School 9.30 a. m. A. J. Hackett, Superintendent. Divine Worship 10.45 a. m. sermon byRev. Omar E. Jones, District Superintendent. Our Superintendent is able to preach for us only once each year and it is hoped that a large congregation will be present to hear him Sunday. Epworth League 7.30 p. m. leader, Miss Mabel Norris. Prayer services 7.30 p. m. Friday. All invited

Betterton M. E. Church. Our annual Harvest Home Services will be held this Sunday. Rev. Edwin L. Earp, of Drew Theological Seminary, Madison, New Jersey, will be the speaker of the day. Special music by the choir. Services at 3 p. m. and 7.30 p. m. All are invited to be present at each service. Prayer service Wed. 7.30 p. m.

Christ M. P. Church, Chestertown N. O. Gibson, Minister, Sunday Oct. 21st. Divine Worship and Harvest Home sermon 10.30 a. m. S. S. 2.30 p. m. C. E. 6.45 p. m. Divine Worship and sermon 7.30 p. m. Prayer and Bible Study Wednesday 7.30 p. m.

Bond and Mowbray Chapels Rev. Wm. C. McClintock, Pastor. Bond: Sunday School at 9.45 a. m. Divine Worship, Sermon by Pastor at 11.00 a. m. Junior League Services on Tuesday evening at 7.30, followed by the Epworth League Service at 8.00 p. m. Sunday School Rally Service will be held next Sundey morning, Oct. 28.

Mowbray: Sunday School at 2.30 p. m. Epworth League Song Service at 7.00 p. m. The evening service will be addressed by Mr. Harry Jones, of Sudlersville. Everybody invited. Revival Services will begin next Sunday evening. Oct. 28. Encouraging reports were given at the recent quarterly conference.

Elder and Mrs. R. D. Hottel, of New Market, Va., who lived at Rock Hall thirty years ago, and who helped to establish the Seventh Day Adventist Church at that place, are visiting their old friends over the week-end. Elder Hottel will hold the service in the church Sunday night, to which all are cordially invited to attend.

Salem M. E. Church, Fairlee, Rev. W. B. Horner, pastor. Sunday will be known as Automobile day at this church. Everybody is invited to use their cars to bring them to the services. Sunday School will be at 10 a. m., Walter Barnes superintendent; 11 a. m. preaching by the pastor; 7.30 p. m., League service, Miss Margaret Elliott will lead.

Union M. E. Church, Worton, Rev. W. B. Horner, pastor. Service for Sunday: 2 p. m., S. S., B. F. Rash, superintendent; 3 p. m., preaching by Rev. O. E. Jones, Dist. Supt.; 7.30 p. m., revival services, which will continue every evening next week.

A Harvest Home service will be held at Union M. E. Church on Crumpton Charge Oct. 21, 1923. Love Feast 9.30 a. m.; preaching 10.30 by Dr. E. L. Hoffecker, of Bellevue, Md.; Young People's meeting 2 p. m.; preaching 3 p. m. by Rev. J. T. Sard, of Chestertown; preaching 7.30 p. m. by Rev. W. T. McGum, of Hillsboro, Md. Rev. J. A. Buckson, minister in charge.

Sunday, Oct. 21. Emmanuel P. E. Church, Chestertown: Holy Communion, 8 a. m.; service and sermon, 11 a. m.; S. S. 2.30 p. m.; evening prayer and sermon, 7.30 p. m.; Young People's Guild on Monday evening at 8 p. m. Litany service on Wednesday evening with continuation of lectures, "Why I am a Churchman." The drive for the Children's Home in Easton is still on with good results.

WEDDINGS

Miss Myra Loleta Kendall, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles O. Kendall, of Rock Hall, and Mr. Charles Franklin Reeder, of Baltimore, were married Saturday evening at 7 o'clock by the Rev. W. H. Revelle at Rock Hall M. E. parsonage. The bride looked charming in blue canton crepe with hat to match. She wore white gloves and carried cream colored rose buds. Mr. Reeder was dressed in black. The couple were attended by the bride's sister, Mrs. Millard Gibson, of Rich Neck, and brother, Mr. Oliver Kendall. The ceremony was followed by a reception at the home of the bride's parents.

Chevrolet Stands Second In Sales

The motor cars exhibited at the National Automobile shows are assigned to their places by an election, in which dollars are ballots. The honor of first place goes to that car for which purchasers have paid the largest total amount of money for the preceding twelve months, ending June 30.

At the New York Automobile Show in January, 1924, three of the divisions of General Motors will have leading places. Buick for the sixth consecutive year will have the first place. Chevrolet will have the second place, and Cadillac the sixth. The drawings for space were made at the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce in New York October 4.

BOY SCOUTS

Kent County Organizing Troops Of Scouts—Other News

A very well attended and enthusiastic meeting was held at Rock Hall on Thursday evening for the purpose of organizing a troup there. Mr. Bradford was very much encouraged at this meeting in the fact that the parents, as well as the boys, were present, there being about 100 at the meeting.

A troop of sixteen boys was organized with the Rev. Mr. Revelle as scoutmaster, to be assisted by two able assistants.

Meetings of this troup will be held every Thursday evening at 8 p. m. in the School Building.

The towns in the county that have been organized and have troops are Still Pond, Millington, Rock Hall and Chestertown.

A meeting was scheduled to be held in the Washington College Gymnasium, Chestertown, at which time the Chestertown boys were registered and a permanent organization formed.

Troops will be organized at Kennedyville, Galena and Betterton within the next three weeks. Mr. Bradford, the scout executive, will be present to organize these troops.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL

Mr. Channing Rash, the son of Mr. Harry T. Rash, is enjoying life in the lake regions. At present he is at Flint, Michigan.

Mrs. H. C. Coleman and Mrs. Edgar Pyle were in Baltimore this week.

Mrs. John P. Crossley left Baltimore on October 10 to visit friends in St. Louis, Mo., and Topeka, Kansas.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar F. Leaverton have been entertaining the latter's parents, Capt. and Mrs. J. K. Middleton, of Portsmouth, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer C. Thomas, of Betterton, have announced the arrival of a son, Elmer Collins, Jr., born Oct. 2, 1923.

Mr. Frank W. Wood, wife and son, of Atlantic City, has been the guest this week of Mr. Frank E. Duyer and his daughters.

It has been reported that Buck Neck farm has been rented to Capt. W. H. Cooper.

Miss Allegra Wood, of New York, and Mrs. Helen Wilson, of Wilmington, are the guests for the week of Mr. and Mrs. William Slay.

Mrs. C. Kent Lambert and children will leave for Panama the last of the month.

Mrs. Ellsworth Newcomb spent the week-end with relatives in Baltimore and Cumberland.

Mr. William Pippin spent part of last week at the Hagerstown Fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving Sparks, of Baltimore, were the week-end guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Sparks.

Mr. and Mrs. John G. Massey, of Baltimore, were week-end guests of the former's sister, Mrs. J. F. McLaughlin.

Mr. John Allen, of Chester, was the week-end guest of his son, Mr. J. F. Allen.

Miss Marion Collins was the week-end guest of friends in Wilmington.

Miss Elizabeth Reed spent the week end in Philadelphia.

Mrs. Charles Schreiber visited relatives in Baltimore last week.

Mrs. Alfred Crew is the guest of friends in Baltimore for the week.

Mrs. Owen Anderson, of Baltimore, spent the week-end with her mother, Mrs. Bertie Crouch.

Miss Bessie Duyer, of Hagerstown, has been visiting relatives near town.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Mogle and Mr. Spencer Peterson spent the past Sunday in Wilmington as guests of relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Cranor, of near town, are visiting relatives in Wilmington.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Quinton Moody, of Rockville, are visiting Mrs. W. E. Moody and Mrs. Cahall in Chestertown.

Mrs. Elmer Sterling and little daughter returned home from a Baltimore hospital last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles N. Satterfield and Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Smith are on a motoring tour of the south.

Mrs. Ringgold, of Salisbury, and Mrs. Parker, of New York, are guests of Misses Anna and Helen Welch.

Mrs. Ella Adkinson and daughter, Miss Marguerite, leave today for New York City, where they will spent the winter.

Your Problems —Our Business

To many, the selection of NEW FALL CLOTHES will be a pleasure,—a desire satisfied; others not so fortunate find this same desire a problem.
Allow this GREAT BIG FRIENDLY INSTITUTION to help make your clothing problems lighter —(your problems—our business.) HERE, under one roof, you find EVERYTHING pertaining to MEN'S and BOYS' WEAR, qualities wide in range, pleasing to everybody, a selection that has made this friendly institution Big.
COME IN SOON.

MULLIN'S CLOTHING STORE
WILMINGTON

GET INTO A GOOD OVERCOAT!

You want comfort, you want style, you want real wear in an Overcoat.

That's exactly what you get in the Canterbury. Note the comfort feature—the roomy patch pockets and the convertible collar which you can button snugly around your throat on colder days.

The Canterbury has raglan sleeves, box pleat in the back and all-a-round belt. We have this model in all the popular weaves and shades.

You'll find many other handsome Overcoats here—and Suits in plenty, too.

Overcoats $11.25 to $32.50

Suits $15.00 to $32.50

Vansant & Newsome

Head-to-Foot Outfitters For Men and Boys

Chestertown, Maryland.

©Maryland State Archives msa_sc3326_scm8222-0802