Kent Boy Promoted

Mr. Harry Derringer, formerly of this town, now of the United States Navy, has been promoted from the rank of ensign to Lieutenant. Lieut. Derringer has been connected with the Asiatic Station for the past year, where he developed some physical trouble, resulting from an injury sustained while taking part in an athletic contest at the Naval Academy and is now at the Naval Hospital, Mare Island, San Francisco, but expects to be transferred to the East Coast and be home Thanksgiving. We congratulate him upon his promotion and hope that he will soon be off the sick list. Lieut. Derringer is the son of Mrs. Alice Derringer.

Rev. Sheen Has Cavalry Troop

Kent County has an independent cavalry troop, made up of boys over twelve years of age, which is the only organization of its kind in the United States. Under the leadership of the Rev. Mr. Sheen, rector of St. Paul's Church, this troop has grown until today it has twenty-eight members, that is, boys who have their own horses, and can ride. Rev. Sheen is an ex-service man. He enlisted as a private in the artillery during the World War and soon worked his way up to a lieutenant's commission. To him does the credit belong for the forming of this unique organization of mounted boys, and no doubt will be copied in other parts of the country. The boys are being trained along military lines and have had a number of maneuvers in the field in which they did exceptionally well. This troop is open to all boys over 12 years who have a horse, and is absolutely non-sectarian. The troop has not been given a name, but is known as Sheen's Cavalry Troop, Fairlee Cavalry Troop or Maryland's First Independent Cavalry Troop.

That every eligable voter in Kent County should vote.
That if you believe in Democracy, you will vote.
That YOUR vote counts as much as any vote in the County.
SO lets go to the Polls Tuesday and feel that we have done our duty toward keeping DEMOCRACY SUPREME.

ARMISTICE DAY CELEBRATION.

To Be Observed By Frank M. Jarman Post, No. 36, of Kent County

Sunday, Nov. 11, will be the fifth anniversary of Armistice Day, one of the most joyous and historic days in the lives of those living today.
We can well remember the day when the good news came, the feeling that passed through us, how we stood still and looked back, then into the future, and realized that our friends and relatives whom we had been worrying about daily would soon be back and with us again.
Let us observe this day as one of the greatest in the history of the world and at 11 o'clock, Nov. 11, humble ourselves in memory of those who sacrificed their all that the world might be free from autocracy and that Democracy and Peace might reign in its stead supreme.

Celebration in Chestertown

The American Legion, Frank M. Jarman Post No. 36, of Kent County, will celebrate Armistice Day with the following program:
All ex-service men in Kent County, including the local Sanitary Corps and Sheen's Cavalry, will meet at the Armory, Chestertown, at 10 a. m., Saturday, Nov. 10, in uniform. If you have no uniform, come without it, and at 10.30, they will parade to Washington College Campus, where the flag will be raised and speeches made. After this, Sheen's Cavalry will give an exhibition of cavalry maneuvers on horse back.

Meeting At Night

Saturday night at 8 p. m. the Legion Post will hold an oyster scald in the Armory to which all ex-service men and the local Sanitary Corps are invited. At this meeting there will be the annual election of officers of the Frank M. Jarman Post of Kent County.

To Attend Services Sunday

All ex-service men are requested to meet at the Armory in Chestertown, Sunday, Nov. 11, at 9.45, as the Legion will attend services at St. Paul's P. E. Church.
Remember, that all ex-service men are invited to these exercises and requested to be on hand Saturday and Sunday, Nov. 10 and 11.

DEATHS

The funeral of the late J. Wilbur Strong, whose untimely death we noted last week, was held Sunday afternoon at 2 p. m., conducted by Rev. Mr. Sheen, being largely attended. The pall bearers were Page Comegys, Eugene G. Anderson, Austin F. Shure, Chaplin Willis, John Ahern and Lewin Deputy. C. L. Dodd, undertaker. Mr. Strong's sad ending came as a distinct shock to his wide circle of relatives and friends in Kent county, and removes a figure well known and liked by all with whom he came in contact.
