AS the early pioneers thought it meet and proper to return thanks to the Heavenly Father when the fruits of the earth were gathered in, so we have our Thanksgiving Day to render our gratitude to God for peace, prosperity, health and abundant harvests. Surely ours is a favored country, and it becomes us to be very grateful, as thankful hearts are pleasing to Almighty God and they certainly make men much more pleasing and acceptable to their fellow men. The cheery, thankful man is the one sought out as a companion, while the grouchy man, who sees a cloud on every sky, is usually avoided. When we resolve to do what we can to repair the wrongs of the oppressed elsewhere and out of our strength to give them courage, out of our abundance to supply their needs—we most truly give thanks on Thanksgiving Day.

MEMORIAL TO OUR SOLDIERS

The suggestion made by W. Irving Walker at a recent meeting of the Rich Neck Farmers Club, that the new bridge across Chester River at Chestertown be made a memorial to the soliders of Kent and Queen Anne's counties, is, we think, a capital idea. Surely there can be no reasonable objection that we can see to our soldiers thus being recognized. The Transcript strongly endorses the suggestion and believes that no reasonable tribute to our soldier boys—those dead and those alive—should be denied them. Many of them gladly gave their services and some their lives for their country, and it has many times occurred to us that their services were and are not now properly appreciated either by our government or by individuals. Let us all get behind Mr. Walker's suggestion and see if it can be carried out.

Local Farm Bureaus Meet

Local Farm Bureaus throughout the county met at Chestertown, Worton and Fairlee this week. The chief topic of the meeting was the mapping out of a program to follow throughout the year. Other topics were discussed, such as culling of cattle and poultry, so as to bring the herd and flock up to the highest possible standard. The meetings were held as follows: Chestertown, Wednesday night; Fairlee and Worton, Thursday night. There were about twenty-five men present at these meetings and much enthusiasm was shown.

It is amazing how much one may learn about so common a think as a kitchen range. One gets this feeling to the fullest extent while listening to the factory expert, located at the store of Wm. A. Hyland, Galena, Md., all this week, as he explains the manufacture and use of the Great Majestic Range. To encourage callers to buy a Majestic Range during the week of the demonstration each purchaser is given his choice of two fine sets of cooking utensils absolutely free with each range. See adv. on page 2.

—The commissions for the newly elected officers for Kent County arrived yesterday and are in the hands of Clerk of the Court Robert R. Ayres.

Word Comes From Kent Boy

The other day we received a most interesting letter from Mr. Harvey Wood, of the United States ship, "Tacoma." His ship does duty around Central America, and they have made a nice cruise since they left Boston, Mass., Sept. 19. The first stop was Hampton Roads, Va.; then to Key West Florida; then Donaldsville, La.; then Pensacola, Florida. From there he went to Galveston, Texas and then to Houston, Texas, returning to Galveston. They expect to visit more places of interest in a few days.

Ever Read Shoe Ads?

Notice the similarity—True, probably a great many sound alike; it's the merchant's privilege to use any words in the dictionary. But SHOES are not alike, despite the sameness of advertising. All shoes are stitched, all cut from leather, and frequently there the similarity ends.

BOSTONIAN SHOES are unique in their making, carefully cut, correct sizing. These features contribute to long wear. The style and leather gives added value. Drop in and see them. You'll be agreeably surprised, too, at the moderate prices.

EVERY HOUSEWIFE IS ASKED TO TRY A SACK OF ROSE BUD IF NOT ALREADY A CONSTANT USER

A Trial Will Be Convincing of its Many Superior Points For General Use

So confident are we that Rose Bud Flour will stand the most severe tests that we invite every housewife to try it in any manner desired. Make it up into biscuits or rolls or cakes—see if each isn't just a little bit superior to those made from the ordinary flour. As an all-around flour for general household use it positively cannot be beaten. It's finely milled flaky whiteness proves itself when used. There is nothing about it that will cause your bread to be soggy and dark in color. To the contrary you will find that everything made of Rose Bud Flour is superlatively fine. Try a sack.

Try it on Waffles and See If They Do Not Turn Out Beyond Your Best Hopes

Take this old-fashioned recipe and make a batch of waffles. Use Rose Bud Flour and you'll find that you've made the most delicious edible imaginable:

1½ cups Rose Bud Flour, 1½ teaspoons Royal Baking Powder, ¼ teaspoon salt, 1 tablespoonful sugar, 1 cup milk, 1 tablespoonful shortening, 3 eggs.

Sift and mix dry ingredients into bowl, add milk and melted shortening. Separate eggs or egg, beat in yolk and fold in in well-beaten white. Bake in very hot greased waffle-iron.

For Best Display of Rose Bud Four

Any Merchant Who is Handling Rose Bud Flour is Eligible to Enter the Contest for the Prizes.

As an incentive to all merchants who are selling Rose Bud Flour, to pep up their retail sales by better display of the product, we are going to give two cash prizes for the best store display of Rose Bud Flour. Where there are windows, window displays will count more than counter displays. However, if the store has no display window, those made on counters will receive as many credits as the window displays elsewhere. During the weeks of November 26 and December 3 we will send an inspector to each store who will decide the winner of the contest. We feel that this plan will largely increase the retail sales of Rose Bud Flour. Goods well displayed always have a strong suggestive selling power over the customer, and if all merchants handling our product will better display their stock sales will be greatly increased and larger profits will result.
