WASHINGTON COLLEGE

Madden's Orchestra, of Wilmington, Del., has been obtained to furnish music for the first Washington College Cotillion Club dance, which will be held here on November 30. This orchestra is widely known in Delaware and enjoys a reputation for good dance music.

At a business meeting of the Adelphia Literary Society held in William Smith Hall Monday, Nov. 19, the society voted to have a new constitution drawn up. The old one, in effect since 1903, did not meet the present demands. The following literary program will be given in William Smith Hall on Monday, Nov. 26, at 7 p. m.: Scriptures, chaplain; a talk on The Proposed Year Book at Washintgon College, L. A. Cooper; humorous sketch, J. Kenneth Stewart; debate, Resolved that state scholarships to Washington College should be discontinued; affirmative, Yates; negative, Wheeler; piano solo, Negri; Moonbeam, Nuttle; critic's report, critic; adjournment.

The Mt. Vernon Literary Society gave the following program on Nov. 21: Scriptures, Miss Jones; recitation, Miss Touchton; piano duet, Misses Covey and McWhorter; talk. E. Russell; impromptu, Miss R. Brown, Messrs. Culver and Nicholson; Awguan, Blackiston; critic's report, Miss Lapham. Owing to the fact the President, P. P. Heck, was called out of town on business, Miss Helen Jones, the vice-president, preisded.

A new constitution for the Athletic Association, recently drawn up by a committee appointed for the said purpose, was presented to the association by president, R. J. Bounds, on Nov. 20. The constitution was ratified with a few changes. Among these changes is a proposed system whereby the female students shall be given an opportunity to earn a W to wear on their sweaters. Prior to this no provision has been made for the girls and they have worn the W at random.

A Freshman-Sophomore game played on November 19 at Washington Field and won by the Freshman 2-0 explains the cause of the posters bearing the words Freshman 2, Sophomore 0, 1927, wins, that covered the town on Tuesday morning. Class spirit between the two classes had been at a high pitch prior to the game, and victory for the Freshmen literally set them wild. The game was conducted in a regular manner. The two teams were well-equipped in Washington uniforms and first-class officials, namely, Coach Kibler, Joe Wheatley and W. D. Straughn, officiated. The freshmen scored their 2 points as the result of a touchback, resulting from a fumble, caused by a bad pass on the part of the sophomore center during the first half of the game. In the last five minutes of play the sophomores threatened to score a touchdown, but the final whistle blew before they put it across. Two local boys, W. Chapman and V. Kirby, played well for the freshmen. Between the halves the freshmen attempted a "snake dance." The sophomores, however, charged in and broke it up. It was all taken as great fun.

Mr. A. E. Lindey, a Young Men's Christian Association Worker, from Wilmington, Del., addressed the men of Washington College in William Smith Hall on November 20 at 8 p. m. His purpose was to create an interest that will result in a local Y. M. C. A. being organized. Such an organization existed at the college until quite recently. The present student body feels the need for one and will probably restore it.

Though the football season has been full of disappointments everybody at the college is set to beat St. John's today. A victory will mean much at this point of the season and will help make up for the past defeats.

Rev. C. L. Atwater, of the local Episcopal Church, spoke to the student body on the importance of college education at Chapel services Wednesday, Nov. 21.

Roland H. Nelson has returned to college after a short absence caused by the death of his father.

Killed In Auto Accident

Mr. Barrett C. Smith, of Catonsville, Md., formerly of this county, met with an automobile accident at 11.30 Saturday evening, Nov. 17, near Ellicott City, and was rushed to St. Agnes Hospital, where he never gained consciousness and died 7.35 a. m. Sunday, Nov. 18, aged 52 years. He leaves a widow, Viola Taylor, formerly of this county, one son, Norman Smith, of Edgewood, two daughters, Mrs. Ernest Treuth, of Ellicott City, and Mrs. Edward Fowler, of near town. Interment in Chester cemetery. The Improved Order of Red Men, Mangamita Tribe No. 136, of Chase, Md., and Dr Bowers, conducted services at the grave. The bearers were from the order.

Metcalfe Bros. Open Fine Feed House

Metcalfe Brothers, of Chestertown, opened their new building for business last week and invite the public to an inspection of the same. This building is an exceptionally good one, being well made. It is covered and roofed with sheet iron and has an immense grain elevator that will hold about 10,000 bushels. They have all the most up-to-date electrical apparatus for loading and unloading grain, and have built a side track, where cars can be loaded and unloaded conveniently. This firm also have buildings at Worton and Kennedyville. At the Chestertown plant, like the two other plants, they will handle poultry feeds, dairy feeds and hog feeds. This firm is composed of Messrs. Brown Metcalfe and James Metcalfe. They are both progressive young men and are doing a good business.

News From Pole Heard Over Radio

Mr. Fred B. Westcott, a well-known poultryman of near Rock Hall, has a radio that works wonderfully. On Wednesday night he heard the Chicago Radio Station 9xN talking to WNC Station on Dr. Donald McMillan's ship in Refuge Harbor, North Greenland. The position of the ship was 11 degrees from the North Pole. Mr. Westcott says this remarkable news was received at 2 a. m.
