Farmers, List You Repair Needs

It would be hard to find a farmer who at some time or another had not lost valuable time waiting for necessary repair parts. Take this territory and total up the time lost in this way and it will astonish you. And all because repairs are not odered as early as they should be.

There is no better time than right now—just before the busiest season on the farm—to go over your machines carefully, make a list of repairs you are likely to need and send it to us. With this list in our hands, we can order our stock so as to be prepared to meet every call promptly.

Repair part service is a necessary part of our business. We realize what it means to you in time and money to get what you need at once. Help us to help you by making up your list now and sending it in to us.

THE WINNER.
By Grantland Rice

The cove who never kids himself
Who looks at facts without a frown,
Who knows that life is full of knots,
And not a bed of eiderdown—
Who does his stuff against the breaks,
Unmindful of the yapping throng,
With little time for alibis—
Will get along.

The cove who knows the uphill road
Is better training for the fray,
Than sliding into quick renown
Along the somewhat softer way—
Who throws self-pity to the gales
And knows that life is mostly fight,
Who chips, "What of it" in defeat—
Will do all right.

The bloke who knows the world is rough,
And not a clover bed of rest;
Who takes his fortune as it comes
And promptly counters with his best—
Who slogs along through fogs of doubt
Fear, pain and envy and despair,
With clear eyes fixed upon the goal—
Will get somewhere.

The bloke who chucks aside pretense
And stands four-square with what he has,
Who still can take a sock or two,
Nor crumble up before the razz—
Who doesn't sour on the scrap
Because his luck is badly frayed,
But plays the game out to the turn—
Will make the grade.

General News Items

C. M. Boyer, captain of Boat No. 39, of the fleet of boats on Chesapeake and Ohio Canal, was forced to fight for his life when attacked by a big buck deer. It swam the canal to him. He finally strangled the animal. Sounds like the prize story of the year, but the Baltimore Sun printed it!

Two million trillion marks were printed by Germany money presses during the week ending Oct. 31.

St. John's College has been advanced from a Class C to a Class A college, it was announced this week. President Garey says that the new rating was given in recognition of a strong faculty and the present scholastic teaching.

Three thousand dollars a front foot was recently asked for a lot, with a 75-foot frontage in Chicago.

Trying To Aid Wheat Growers

Wheat growers, millers and others whose interests are involved, were in Washington last week for the opening of the Tariff Commission's first public hearing in connection with its inquiry into the wheat tariff. Their views were sought by the commission as supplemental to the cost data and other information concerning the problem as a basis for recommendations to be made to President Coolidge on the appeal of the Wheat Council of the United States for an increase of 50 per cent in the present wheat duty of 30 cents a bushel. The experts will meet at St. Paul Dec. 3 to obtain data on production and manufacturing costs. The actual field work will be undertaken immediately on the formulation of definite plans there. Means of obtaining production and marketing costs on Canadian wheat, which forms the chief competition in the domestic market, is also expected to be considered at the St. Paul conference.

Horticultural Society Elects Officers

The Peninsula Horticultural Society brought to a close its three-day educational program at Salisbury Thursday, marking the thirty-seventh annual meeting of the organization. The meeting was declared to have been the most instructive yet held, and a record attendance at each session further marked its success. The nominating committee placed the nominees before the members and each was unanimously elected. C. W. Smith, Bridgeville, Del., was named president; Dr. E. G. Cover, Easton, Md., first vice-president, and Wesley Webb, Dover, Del., was re-elected secretary and treasurer. Following established precedent, the next annual meeting will be held in the home town of the president, and Bridgeville draws the assignment.

Settling Elkton Bank Affairs

Mr. Thomas W. Perkins, receiver for the Second National Bank of Elkton, will soon pay to the depositors another 10 per cent from the funds of the wrecked institution, making the third payment since the bank closed its doors in 1921.

Mr. Perkins states that witain the next six months he expects to pay about 30 cents on the dollar, with a possibility of more, and before the affairs are wound up the depositors will possibly receive about 70 cents on the dollar.

A Unique Contest

Senator Magnus Johnson, the new dirt-farmer Senator from Minnesota, has challenged Secretary Wallace, of the Department of Agriculture, to a milking contest. The date has not been set, but the bout will take place in one of the model Government dairy barns at Beltsville, Md. It will be dry-hand, pail between the knees, two quarters at a time, straight away, with tail holders and anti-kicking devices barred and without any of the fudging tricks invented long ago by the Legion of Farm Hands who "can milk but don't like to."

Want Stricter Oyster Law

Efforts to secure a seed oyster law with teeth in it will be made at the coming session of the Legislature by Conservation Commissioner H. W. Vickers. He especially desires that oystermen make suggestions as to the best method of doing this. More seed oysters go from the Eastern Shore than any other section. Many seed oysters which ought to go on Maryland bottoms are going out of the state. Maryland, with only 6000 acres of leased bottom, is not a planting state, as Virginia, Delaware and New Jersey are, and if the catch is limited to supplying the home demand there will not be any inducement for either tongers or dredgers to work on seed.

—Church Extension Aid was given 3469 separate building projects during the last four years by the Methodist Episcopal Church. The treasurer's report showed that of the nearly $26,000,00[illegible] received and expended for the [illegible]t four years, $9,[illegible] buildings.
