JUST GOT OVER A COLD?

Look out for kidney troubles and backache. Colds overtax the kidneys and often leave them weak. For weak kidneys—well, read what a Chestertown man says:

Elmer Newton, tailor, 113 S. College Ave., says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills several times when my kidneys were disordered and they have always cleared up the trouble. If I took cold, it always settled on my kidneys and caused me to have backaches that interfered with my work. I also had frequent headaches and the kidney action was irregular. I used Doan's Kidney Pills from Sterling's Pharmacy and in every instance, they have soon strengthened my back and kidneys."

Price 60c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Newton had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

The Christmas Seal

Walter Greenough

Ho, Little Seal, with your message of hope,
Flung to a world as a life-saver's rope,
Seek you the palace and seek you the shed,
Soft little pillow for suffering head!

Ho, Little Seal, with your message of cheer,
Building up courage and casting out fear,
Shed you God's sunlight in castle and cave—
Bright little beacon of lives that you save!

Ho, Little Seal, with your message to men,
Lifting them back to life's high road again,
Keep you the air of God's heaven above
Flowing in gently to heal them we love!

WASHINGTON COLLEGE

The first Cotillion Club dance ever held in the gym on Nov. 30 was much enjoyed by all those attending. The music was very good and the decorations lent color to the affair. Punch was served during the intermission. Mr. P. P. Heck, chairman of the club, Mrs. Jas. G. Beck and Mrs. G. R. Harrington received. The patronesses were Mrs. L. W. Wickes, Mrs. C. L. Atwater, Miss Sarah Chorn and Mrs. P. E. Titsworth.

The Lebanon Valley game closed the football season for 1r23. Though victories were not numerous the defeat of St. John's well justifies the statement that it was a good one. All eyes are now turned upon the basketball team, which promises to outdo its past performances.

The Adelphia Literary Society will give the following program in William Smith Hall on Dec. 2 at 7 p. m.: Scriptures, chaplain; Who can tell the best joke? Contest between Buchanan, Galvin and Lohran; judges, Ed Keenan, chief justice, and Dalton and Saunders; an oration, Pierson; humorous sketch, Stewart & Co.; reading from De Maupassent, Nelson; Moonbeam, Duffy; critic's report.

The class of 1923 held a banquet at Reid Hall on Thanksgiving Day in honor of Coach Kibler and the football team. Prof. W. R. Howell acted as toastmaster. Many other speeches were given by prominent men at W. C. This banquet is the first of its kind to be held here for some time and it is to be hoped that the custom will continue.

The Mt. Vernon Literary Society presentde a novelty program in the form of a "menu" in Wm. Smith Hall Nov. 28: Blessing, President; appetizer, recitation, Miss Richardson; soup, hominy, served by Miss Mills and P. P. Heck; salads, impromptus; entrees, short talk, Knight; selection of members for debating team; desert apple sauce and nuts, Culley; demi tasse, critic's report, Miss H. B. Jones.

The Baltimore American

The Baltimore American announces the most remarkable gift to its women readers in newspaper history.

That sounds strong. But it's true. Beginning December 2, each copy of the Sunday edition of the Baltimore American will be worth from 75 cents to $1.00 to every woman reader after she is through reading the super-newspaper!

After she has read every line of news, after she has enjoyed Brisban's comment in the "Today" column, after she has read the complete magazine section, the articles by H. G. Wells, Lloyd George, LaFollette, and other world leaders, and has laughed over the eight pages of colored comics—after all that the paper that cost ten cents will still be worth 75 cents to $1.00.

Each paper will contain an actual, full-size dress pattern designed by Harry Collins, America's foremost designer of clothes for women, at 49 E. Fifty-seven St., New York City.

Every Sunday the Baltimore American will contain a Collins pattern printed in invisible ink IN THE PAPER. It will not be a supplement, nor a flimsy, folded, complicated pattern, but a pattern that will occupy two full pages of the Sunday edition of The Baltimore American—a "Mimo Pattern" of patented process.

A few strokes of a sponge or cloth, moistened in a simple formula of warm water and baking soda, and—presto! The pattern comes out bold and clear, FULL SIZE and even easier to handle than the regular flimsy patterns.

Every dress made from The Baltimore American patterns will bear the masterful touch of Harry Collins, the best known American designer of fashions, to whose exclusive New York shop fashionable women go in preference to Paris.

And these exclusive patterns can be secured in NO OTHER WAY than through the Heart papers.

Tomato Growers May Form Pool

Tomato growers of this section held a meeting in the Court House Saturday to discuss the importance of organizing a pooling of the acreage in the county to be grown during the next season. The pool is recommended for Kent, Queen Anne, Talbot and Caroline counties by which all tomatoes grown during the season of 1924 may be sold under contract to the packer at a uniform price. Last season the contract price for growing tomatoes in the counties mentioned above was from 22 to 25 cents a basket, yet towards the close of the season, when tomatoes were ... ce, the packers were offering ... to finish their annual
