An Easter message for you

used to free themselves from sin's condemnation by acknowledging and accepting the One who came to ransom them. Instead, they conspired to rid the world of God incarnate — Christ Jesus.

The Suffering Servant (see Isaiah Chapter 53) was victimized and brutalized, yet willingly accepted the false accusations of blasphemy and sedition; as well as the night arrest and trial, scourging, mocking and an execution usually reserved for thieves and murderers.

I am quite certain most of us perceive this life-changing event as stated above. However, are "they" spoken of, the Pharisees, scribes and Romans? Or — are we, yes you and I included?!

Scripture tells us, "For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish, but have eternal life (John 3:16)." Aren't we part of the world? To further emphasize the point mentioned, God reveals to us in Romans 3:23, "For all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God." Yes! You and I, along with the Pharisees, scribes, Romans, and so very many others, crucified Christ!!

Our Heavenly Father, who is omniscient, knew that we because of our sinful nature would need a redeemer. Our Sovereign God did send the sacrificial lamb in the person of Christ Jesus to save us from sin's condemnation. His written word states, "But God demonstrates His own love toward us, in that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. Much more then, having now been justified by His blood, we shall be saved from the wrath of God through Him (Romans 5:8-9)."

Our Lord and Savior, who died for each of us, did not remain entombed as other individuals. He was resurrected! "And looking up, they (Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James, and Salome) saw that the stone had been rolled away, although it was extremely large. And entering the tomb, they saw a young man sitting at the right, wearing a white robe; and they were amazed. And he said to them, 'Do not be amazed; you are looking for Jesus the Nazarene, who has been crucified. He has risen; He is not here; behold, here is the place where they laid Him (Mark 16:4-6).' "

For many centuries people have tried to discount the resurrection of the Holy One. Yet believers of God and Christ Jesus have the full assurance that this miraculous spiritual and historical event actually occurred: "And God raised Him up again, putting an end to the agony of death, since it was impossible for Him to be held in its power (Acts 2:24)."

As we remember our Lord and Savior this Easter Sunday and every day for the remainder of our lives, we must realize that His death and resurrection was for the ultimate purpose for us to have the opportunity to unshackle the slave chains of sin, which results in death (see Romans 6:23), and receive the free gift of eternal life.

"Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who according to His great mercy has caused us to be born again to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, to obtain an inheritance which is imperishable and undefiled and will not fade away, reserved in heaven for you, who are protected by the power of God through faith for a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time (I Peter 1:3-5)."

Friends, when you attend worship service at a Bible believing church of your choice on Sundays, please remember the wonderful gift God has reserved especially for you. Claim your gift and hold Him in your heart as you strive each and every day to be the person He created you to be.

This Week's Memory Verse: "Looking upon them, Jesus said, 'With men it is impossible, but not with God; for all things are possible with God (Mark 10:27).' "

EASTER TRIBUTE

BROWN—An Easter Tribute in loving memory of a Godsented Person, JOHN BROWN, who passed away November 24, 1985.
God saw the road was getting rough,
The hills were hard to climb;
He gently closed his loving eyes
And whispered: "Peace be thine".
His weary hours, his days of pain,
His weary nights are past;
His ever-patient, worn-out-frame
Has found sweet rest at last.
Love,
LORETTA YOUNG

FATHER and MOTHER

Flowers will bloom at Easter time
Fresh with the light spring rain.
But the face of our dear brother
We would love to see again.
Brother, when the violets open
And the flowers in beauty wave,
We will gather up some bunches
And lay them gently on your grave.
Oh, so often do we wander
To the place where you are laid
And think if God had only left you
Longer on earth with us to stay.
