APR

1987

Community Calendar

Free classes offered at HCC

Free classes in Adult Basic Education (ABE) and English as a Second Language (ESL), offered by Howard Community College at sites throughout the country, will begin the week of April 20.

Individualized classes, which allow students to proceed at their own pace, are designed to improve basic skills in reading, writing, spelling and math or to assist students toward the GED (high school diploma).

All ABE/GED students can register at HCC, Room N127 on Monday, April 20 from 5:30-8:30 p.m.

For more information about ABE or ESL, call Patty Keeton or Becky Lessey in HCC's Office of Continuing Education at 964-4919.

Nurse dinner forum

Bowie State College announces its 2nd Annual Distinguished Nursing Leader Dinner Forum, featuring the Honorable Marilyn Goldwater, R.N. (former member of the House of Delegates, Maryland General Assembly, and is currently serving the State of Maryland as the Director of Governmental Relations, Department of Health and Mental Hygiene).

The Forum is being hosted by the College's Department of Nursing, and will be held on campus in the Multipurpose Room in the Wiseman College Centre at 6 p.m. on Wednesday, April 29, 1987.

For reservations and/or additional information, please call 464-3307/3310.

Volunteers for travelers

If you enjoy working with the public in an exciting setting, join our program at the Penn R.R. Station or B.W.I. Airport. The volunteers staff the information desks where they provide information and direction, travel & tourist information, assistance to foreign visitors and the military and aid to stranded travelers.

Day, evening and weekend shifts are available.

To reserve a place in the May training program, call Pat Lundblad, 859-7207, between 10 a.m. and 3 p.m.

Cash Wash!

It's a Car Wash! On April 25 at the League for the Handicap, 1111 E. Coldspring Lane, the Baltimore Ravens Wheelchair Basketball Club will host a Car Wash.

The proceeds of the event will be used towards the team's 1987-88 basketball season.

It's a good cause ... so, please come out and give your support. The event will be held between the hours of 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Cost per car is $3. For more information please contact Eddie Diggs/Program Director at 679-9264.

Junior Volunteer Program

Maryland General Hospital is currently recruiting middle and high school students (14-18 years of age) for its summer Junior Volunteer Program.

Opportunities are available on nursing units as well as in areas such as the laboratory, shipping and receiving, offices and the mailroom.

For additional information, please call Judy Baldwin, Manager, Volunteer Services, at 225-8146.

Symphonic Wind Ensemble

The University of Maryland's Symphonic Wind Ensemble, under the direction of Mr. John Wakefield, will be presenting a special concert of 20th century music of Wind Band on April 22 at 8 p.m. in Tawes Theatre.

The group will be performing pieces by Hindemith, Bruckner, Persichetti, and Paulson.

Admission is free.

There will be a reception following the concert.

Free talks at library

"Nothing to Fear but Fear Itself: Coping with Phobias" will be explained by psychologist Marc Tabackman Wednesday, April 29 at 7:30 p.m. at the Cockeysville Area Branch of the Baltimore County Public Library, 9833 Greenside Drive.

For tickets, call 666-0447.

Flea market/Craft show

As part of its year-long fortieth anniversary celebration, the Community College of Baltimore is sponsoring a Flea Market and Arts & Crafts Show on Sunday, May 3 at Liberty Campus.

The show is scheduled from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Admission is free.

In case of rain, the show will be held on May 10. For further information, call CCB at 396-0248.

Junior volunteer program

The North Charles Hospital, a member institution of the Johns Hopkins Health System, is now recruiting high school and college students for the hospital's junior volunteer program.

Hours are flexible. Uniforms, lunch, and parking will be provided.

For further information and registration, call the North Charles Department of Volunteer Services at 338-2326.

Membership reception

The National Association of Women Business Owners—Baltimore Regional Chapter, will hold its annual membership reception on Monday, April 27 at the Sheraton Inner Harbor Hotel, starting t 6:30 p.m.

The Honorable Mayor "Du" Burns will be the guet speaker. Cost per person is $10.

Reservations and information may be obtained by calling the NAWBO office at 265-7286.

Swimming

The Baltimore City Department of Recreation and Parks Aquatics Division is presently taking photo I.D.'s for the upcoming "87" pool season.

For times, locations and costs phone 396-7765.

Music series

On May 7, the Baltimore Improvisation Ensemble takes the stage at Maryland Art Place as part of MAP's First Thursday Music Series.

This event is the third musical evening held in conjunction with the Charles Street gallery openings. The performance begins at 8:30 p.m. in the MAP gallery located at 218 W. Saratoga St. Admission is $4.

Tickets will be sold on a first come, first served basis. For further information, please call 962-8565.

Commission meeting

The Maryland Racing Commission will hold a meeting on Wednesday, April 22 at 10:30 a.m. in the Commission Office, Room 1400, 501 St. Paul Place.

Any items to be placed on the agenda must be received at least three (3) working days before the Commission meeting.

Dog show

The largest canine entry in the 51-year history of the Baltimore County Kennel Club Dog Show will be on stage on Sunday, April 19 at the Cow Palace of the Maryland State Fairgrounds in timonium, MD.

Nearly 2,400 dogs will parade before a host of judges during the 8 a.m. until 7 p.m. judging.

For more information, call herb Rosen at 252-7555 or 667-6800.

Genealogical workshop

The Maryland Genealogical Society will sponsor an all-day workshop on Saturday, April 11 from 8:30 a.m. to 3:45 p.m. at the Colony 7 Quality Inn, Baltimore-Washington Parkway at Maryland 32.

Genealogical research at the Enoch Pratt, Maryland Historical, and Peabody libraries in Baltimore; the Maryland State Law Library in Annapolis; and Eastern Shore libraries will be discussed. Call 792-7922.

Alumnae reception

The Alumnae Association of Archbishop Keough High School is holding its Annual Wine and Cheese Reception in the school on Sunday, April 26 from 2 until 4 p.m.

All Alumnae, spouses and friends are cordially invited.

Non-dues paying members and guests will be charged $2.

For further information call 646-1979 or 646-4444.

Music and magic

Market Center Association (MCA), the city's downtown retail district's merchants association, will be sponsoring their annual "Music and Magic on the Mall" lunchtime spring entertainment program on Lexington Mall and the Howard Street Transit Mall.

Every Monday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday through May 20, MCA will bring magicians, mimes, jugglers and music acts of all kinds to the downtown retail area.

The performers will be on the Mall between 11:30 a.m. and 1:30 p.m. In the event of rain, all performances will be moved inside to the Arcade in Lexington Market. For additional information, call 539-INFO.

Learn to swim

The Baltimore City Department of Recreation and Parks Aquatics Division in conjunction with the Baltimore City Public Schools is conducting a Learn-to-Swim Program at four sites: Patterson High School, City College High School, Southern High School, and Edmondson High School.

The program is open to boys and girls 7-14 years of age, beginning Monday, April 27 through Thursday, June 4. There is no fee involved. Those completing the program will receive a "Super Swim I.D. Card," allowing them to swim free at any of the five park pools.

For additional information call 396-7803 or 396-7765.

Spring festival

The Mary E. Rodman Recreation Center in conjunction with its Adult Auxiliary and various community organizations is sponsoring a "Spring Festival."

The Festival will take place on Saturday, May 9 from noon until 6 p.m. on the grounds of the recreation center, 3600 W. Mulberry St.

A parade will assemble at 11:00 a.m. at the Westside Skill Center, traveling east on Edmondson Avenue to the recreation center.

A ribbon cutting ceremony at noon will kick-off an afternoon of games, entertainment, a puppet show, a magic show, movies, a clown, face painting, good food, rides, community information provided by the Police and Fire Departments and just good old fashion fun.

For more information call 396-0477 between 2 p.m. and 10 p.m.

Spotlighters present "Nuts"

The Spotlighters Theatre of 817 St. Paul St., presents the drama "Nuts."

The drama is being directed by Barbara Hudson and opens April 10 and runs through May 3. Stage manager for "Nuts" is Neil Goodman.

Performances are Friday and Saturday at 8:30 p.m. Sunday matinee begins at 2:30 p.m. Tickets are $6 for adults, $5 for students and senior citizens.

For more information or for reservations please call 752-1225.

Flower display

The Spring Flower Display at the William Donald Schaefer Conservatory located in Druid Hill Park will continue through April 26.

Featured will be Tulips, Hyacinths, Lilies, Daffodils, and other pot plants arranged in a setting of tropical plants.

The Bureau of Parks maintains a permanent collection of tropical plants at this location so there is something of interest all during the year. The Conservatory is open every day of the year from 10 a.m.-4 p.m. There is no admission charge.

For additional information call 396-0180.

Scholarships offered

The American Lung Association of Maryland is offering summer camp scholarships to children with chronic respiratory disease who are residents of Maryland.

The awarding of scholarship money is based on determination of need and availability of funds. Applications must be completed and returned to the Lung Association by June 1. Early application is encouraged since funds are limited.

For further information, or to request a scholarship application, call the American Lung Association of Maryland, the Christmas Seal People, at 494-1100 or toll-free in Maryland, 1-800-492-7527.

Spring fashion show

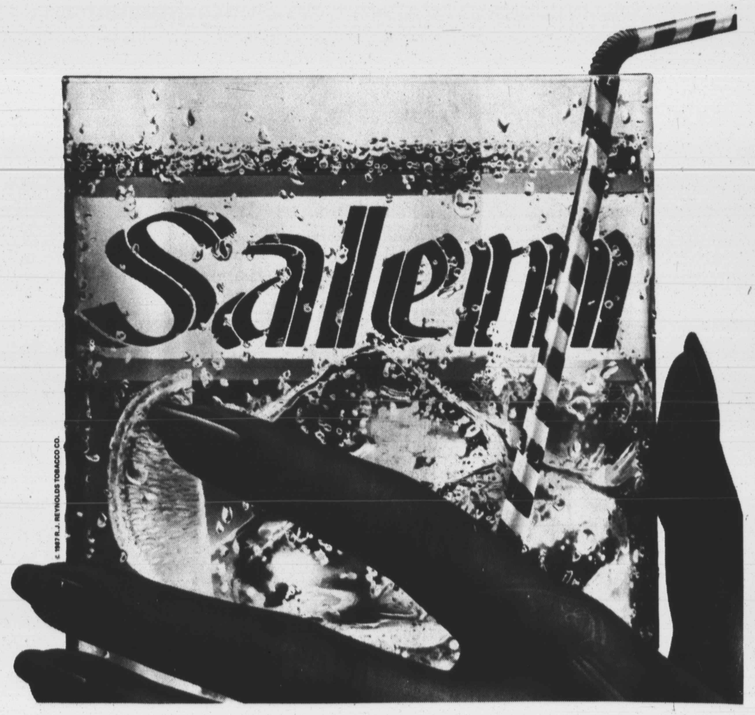
"Spring: The Season for Those Who Dare to Bare," is the theme of the spring fashion show to be presented by Towson State University's Black Student Union on Sunday, May 3, at 6 p.m. in the Chesapeake Rooms of the University Union, located on Osler Drive on the Towson State campus.

Tickets are $2.50 and may be purchased in advance or at the door. For additional information call the university's office of minority affairs, 321-2051.

17 mg. "tar", 1.3 mg. nicotine, av. per cigarette by FTC method.

SURGEON GENERAL'S WARNING: Cigarette Smoke Contains Carbon Monoxide.

THE REFRESHEST



© 1987 R.J. REYNOLDS TOBACCO CO.