Calvary Baptist welcomes new pastor

By Helen Glover Cook
AFRO Staff Writer

The parishioners and friends of Calvary Baptist Church came out in droves to officially welcome their new pastor, Dr. Haywood Robinson, III, in installation services.

Dr. Robinson comes to the pastorate of Calvary after having served as the assistant pastor of the Round Oak Missionary Baptist Church in Silver Spring, Md.

Rev. Robinson was educated in the public schools of his hometown, Lynchburg, Va. He graduated from Hampton Institute, where he majored in music. His musical talent served him as an evangelistic tool and backdrop for many of his sermons.

In 1986 Dr. Robinson carried the gospel of Christ to the nation of India.

The newly elected pastor is married to the former Renee M. Jones of Upper Marlboro, MD. Mrs. Robinson is also a graduate of Hampton Institute where she earned a degree in sociology in 1979.

She has recently obtained a position as a Taxpayer Service Representative with the Internal Revenue Service here in Baltimore.

She and the pastor are the proud parents of two children, Haywood IV and Jacqueline D'Shea.

The Installation Service is divided into two parts including the regular 11 a.m. service and another service at 4 p.m.

Dr. Haywood Robinson, Jr., Pastor of the Diamond Hill Baptist Church and the father of Rev. Robinson IV, traveled from the church in Lynchburg, VA with several busloads of well-wishers.

The senior Robinson hailed this ceremony as one of the highlights of his career.

In his congratulatory sermon Dr. Robinson, Sr. related the election of his son to the pastorate of Calvary Baptist Church to the ministry of St. Paul.

Pastor-elect Robinson stood up to proclaim his duty to God and his church.
