KENT FARM BUREAU DIRECTORS MEET

The directors of the Kent Co. Farm Bureau held a meeting in the Court House, Chestertown, Wednesday. At this meeting a number of farm questions were discussed, one of practical interest being the new standards adopted by the Interstate Milk Producers Association, which practically controls the Philadelphia Milk Market, as practically all the milk shipped from Kent goes into Philadelphia, and these new regulations, which deal with the sanitary conditions of the milk stables, will affect the farmers of this section. At the meeting Wednesday a resolution was adopted to try to get Mr. C. I. Cohee, of the Philadelphia Dairy Council, to attend the meeting of the various branches of the Farm Bureau of Kent County and explain in detail the new regulations adopted. These new regulations were adopted by the Interstate Milk Producers Association at the request of the Philadelphia Board of Health.

The secretary reported good progress on the part of the locals in signing up for the tomato pool, some locals having already appointed their committees.

The Stake-Net Question

A delegation of the Watermen's Protective Association of Rock Hall, accompanied by Representative Kerr, went to Washington yesterday, where they met Congressman Goldsborough, who arranged a meeting with the department governing the stake nets of the waters of Chesapeake Bay. The object of the meeting was to secure the consent of the Government to allow the placing of the stake nets further out in the bay than they are now allowed. The request of the Rock Hall fishermen seems but a reasonable one and we hope the authorities will permit it.

EGGS WANTED FOR HATCHING

We can use 70,000 Pure bred eggs per week for hatching.

If you have thoroughbred hens, call and see us as we pay a premium for such eggs.

Every farmer should keep Pure Bred hens, as you will get more for your eggs and several cents more for your chickens when they go to market.

Get busy now-get some Pure Bred Chickens and then in the fall you can get rid of your mixed stock.

With good care and housing you will be surprised to find that they are the best paying crop on the farm.

A number of our patrons tell us that their hens bring in more money than their cows. One farmer in Kent Co., sold over $1400.00 worth of eggs from 400 hens. You can do the same if you care to.

Come and see us and talk it over-we will be glad to help you.
