Although not seriously hurt the men were cut and bruised and had suffered from exposure. Mr. Townshend brought the men to Chestertown where they received medical attention.

FARM BUREAU.

A county wide meeting of the Kent County Farm Bureau was held in the Court House, Chestertown on Wednesday of this week. Every section of the county was represented and there was a large attendance at this meeting.

The chief subject of discussion was the advisability of forming a Kent Co. Farm Bureau Cooperative Association. The meeting was addressed on this subject by Mr. Stewart, secretary and Treas. of the State Farm Bureau, and Dr. Bomberger of the University of Maryland Extension Service.

After much discussion on this subject it was decided to form this association and apply for Articles of Incorporation. The object of this Association is co-operative buying and selling.

Every member of the Farm Bureau can become a member of this newly formed Association by giving an approved note for $20 plus $1.00 for every ten acres that they cultivate. This note is to be held by the Association to guarantee payment of goods ordered and also to be used as collatual for loans to pay for goods upon arrival.

These notes can be used for no other purpose than those stated above, do not draw interest and are returnable to maker within 6 months after he ceases to be a member of the Association.

At this meeting reports were made showing that 2332 acres of tomatoes had been signed for under the Kent County plan. It was the unanimous opinion that in order to make any profit out of this crop, the price should be not lower than 30c per basket. The tomatoe growers are to cooperate with the Farm Bureau.

MEETING OF KENT COUNTY MILK PRODUCERS

A meeting of the Kent County Milk Producers Association was held in the Court House, Chestertown, Thursday of this week. Mr. Cohee of the Try-State Milk Producers Association addressed the meeting explaining the new regulations recommended by the Try-State organizations to conform with the new regulations adopted by the Philadelphia Public Health Service. These regulations deal with the cleanliness of the milk. Temporary permits will be issued the milk producers of Kent County, which will be valid until until until May 31. In the meantime an inspector will inspect the barns and if found to conform with the new regulations, a permit will be given.

IN MEMORY

Smith:—In memory of my dear Smith, who departed this life three Smith who departed this life three months ago February 18, 1924, to enter into the peace which only God can give.

Sleep on dear father and take your rest,
God took you home. He though it best.
I miss you more and more each day,
None but a daughter's heart can tell
The time will come I care not when when
That I may with you dwell.
Your picture I look at each day,
And looking into your dear eyes, they seem to say;
Don't grieve so hard for me, dear daughter
For we will meet again some day
Where parting is no more
And the one I love so dearly
Has only gone on before.

Sadly missed by his daughter
Nettie R. Treuth.

I have only your memory dear Granpa.
To remember my whole life through
And you are the one I will never forget,
For I always will think of you.
Oh for the touch of a vanished hand
And the sound of a voice that is still
His lonesome Grandson.
Hemsley O. Stafford.
