CHRONOLOGICAL LIST

Jan. 8—Williamsburg County, S. C.:

Two unknown men were lynched by a mob of whites. One of the men had been accused of having improper relations with a white woman. He and another man when they tried to elude the mob were overtaken and shot to death.

10—Eufaula, Ala.:

The body of Willie Jenkins was discovered riddled with bullets beside the road four miles from Eufaula. He was alleged to have insulted a white woman at Batesville, Ala., and to have threatened her husband. He was placed in the county jail by citizens and later was reported to have escaped.

14—Oklahoma City, Okla.:

The body of Jake Brooks, packing house employee, who was kidnapped from his home on January 14, was found hanging from a tree near Oklahoma City.
