May 20—Conroe, Texas:
Joe Winters, said to have been identified as the assailant of a white girl, was burned to death in the Court House Square.

20—Alleyton, Texas:
Mose Bozier, 60 years old, was hanged by a mob of 300 persons after he had been taken from the police who were holding him on a charge of an attack on a white girl.

23—Bryan, Texas:
Gilbert Wilson, charged with theft of cattle, was beaten to death by a mob of white men.

26—Waco, Texas:
Jesse Thomas, charged with shooting her escort and attacking a white woman, was shot to death by her father; then his body was dragged to the public square and burned, having been taken from an undertaking establishment.

28—Brentwood, Ga.:
William Byrd, accused of killing one white man and seriously wounding another, was shot to death and his body burned.

June 20—Summit, Miss.:
Robert Collins, charged with rape, was taken from officers of the law and hanged.

23—New Dacus, Texas:
Warren Lewis, 18 years old, said to have confessed to a mob of 300 that he had attacked a white woman, was hanged.

July 1—Liberty County, Ga.:
James Harvey and Joe Jordan, convicted of criminal assault and respited by Governor Hardwick, were taken from a deputy sheriff and lynched while being removed from Wayne County to Savannah for safekeeping.

5—Belhaven, N. C.:
According to reports from Washington, N. C., Philip Tankard was killed as a result of trouble starting after a Fourth of July celebration. A white man, said to be deputized to aid in quelling the disturbance, claimed he was being choked by Tankard. Thereupon a mob of whites shot the Negro to death.

7—Benton, La.:
Joe Pemberton was taken from the Bossier Parish jail at Benton by a mob and hanged two miles from that place. Pemberton had been arrested and jailed following the shooting of two Negro women.

14—Miller County, Ga.:
"Shake" Davis, accused of long standing intimacy with a white woman who gave birth to a child and named him as the father, was hanged.

July 18—Orange County, Fla.:
A Negro believed to be Oscar Mack, charged with killing two white men at Kissimee, Fla., on July 16, was lynched by a mob.

24—Allentown, Ga.:
Will Anderson, charged with assaulting a fifteen-year-old white girl, was lynched near Allentown, after having been kidnapped in front of the jail at Moultrie, Ga. He was taken to a wooded spot and shot to death.

28—Guernsey, Ark.:
As a result of a quarrel over a drinking cup between him and a white man, John West was lynched.

Aug. 1—Holton, Ga.:
John Glover, accused of murdering a Deputy Sheriff was taken from officers and shot to death by a mob.

1—Hot Springs, Ark.:
Gilbert Harris, accused of fatally wounding a white man, was taken from jail and hanged by a mob.

6—Swansboro, N. C.:
Bayner Blackwell, alleged to have been the ring-leader in an assault upon a white mail carrier, was lynched.

23—Lambert, Miss.:
John Steelman, alleged to have attempted an assault on a white woman, was burnd at the stake.

30—Bossier Parish, La.:
The body of Thomas Rivers, said to have confessed to an assault on a young white woman, was found hanging from the limb of a tree. He was taken from officers by a mob as he was being transferred to Benton, La., for safekeeping.

——Mer Rouge, La.:
The daily press of December, 1922, and January, 1923, carried full accounts of the killing of Watt Daniels and Thomas Richards by the Ku Klux Klan.

Sept. 2—Winder, Ga.:
A mob seized and lynched Jim Reed Long as the sheriff was endeavoring to transfer him to Atlanta. Long was alleged to have struck a white woman when she discovered him robbing her house.

7—Newton, Texas.:
O. J. Johnson, twice tried on a charge of murder, was taken from jail, strung to a limb, and his body riddled with bullets.

28—Sandersville, Ga.:
Jim Johnston was taken from officers and lynched while en route to Wrightsville to stand trial, according to the deputy sheriff who had the prisoner in charge. Johnston had been charged wih attacking a white woman.