"The One Opportunity"

Having decided to go out of the Graphaphone business, in order to make room for my increased stock of imported China, I am going to close out my 1200 Records, includiug the very latest February numbers and stock of Machines on hand.

I Am Going to Let Prices Talk

$ .75 Records.....49c
1.00 " 59c
1.25 " 65c
1.50 " 75c
$85.00 Machines.....$59.00

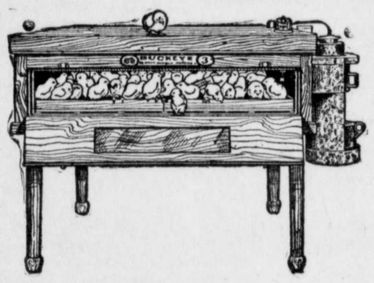

Others in Proportion.

This opportunity will not last long, see us at once.

J. S. KREEGER

JEWELER AND OPTOMETRIST

Phone 53-J. Chestertown, Md

BUCKEYE

Incubators and Brooders

Now is the time to get your incubator started.

The superiority of the Buckeye line has been proven time and again by experiments and comparison with all other lines. Our stock is ready for your inspection. We also carry a complete line of poultry supplies such as Feeders, Water Fountains etc.

"CORNELL BRAND" buttermilk chick starter has now come be recognized as the most dependable and satisfactory feed for baby chicks. It contains all the necessary ingredients needed for the proper growth and development of the baby chick. Try it this time and raise more and better chicks.

Write for our complete catalogue of poultry supplies.

Jones & Satterfield

CHESTERTOWN, MD.

PHONE 51

CULP Lumber

Everything to Build Anything

WORKING PLANS FREE

AT OUR OFFICE

Full Stock Building Material

W. S. & A. M. CULP

Phone 5 Chestertown, Md.

LOCAL ITEMS OF INTEREST

—Potato planting will soon begin in Kent county.

—Eggs cost a franc and a quarter each in France.

—Sheriff Goodman continues to gather in the county thieves.

—The Maryland Farm Bureau will observe its first anniversary today.

—Next Wednesday, March 5, is Ash Wednesday and the beginning of Lent.

—Chincoteague Island had a $300,000 fire this week, the worst in the history of the county.

—Thomas H. Whaley has moved his barber shop to the basement of the Imperial Hotel.

—A number of Chestertown Colored boys are in jail for breaking into Gill Bros. Ice Cream Plant.

—Don't forget the minstrel show to be held in the Lyceum Monday night. This show is to be given by local talent.

—Dr. L. M. Dill moved to his new and larger quarters at the Imperial Hotel this week and opened up his new offices to-day.

—Mr. E. Brooke Lee, Secretary of State of Maryland, has been promoted from major to lieutenant-colonel. Mr. Lee served in the World War.

—The regular monthly meeting of Parents Teachers Association will be held in the Elementary School Thursday, March 6, at 3 p. m.

—The Postoffice Department has executed a rental agreement with the Easton National Bank for a period of ten years.

—On the farm of James Swann, near Greensboro, last week eighty lambs were born; all of them are living and doing fine.

—Wicomico county will erect a handsome monument as a memorial to boys from the county who participated in the world war.

—The Quaker Neck road, from Chestertown to the concrete road, is in bad shape. Work on the new road will begin about April 1.

—Mr. Walter U. Lusby was struck in the eye recently by a piece of wood while cutting kindling and had a narrow escape from losing an eye.

—Captain Pumphrey, well known here because of his participation in the round-up of the murderers of Mr. Coleman, about ten years ago, died in Baltimore this week.

—In spite of the fact that this year is leap year, there has been no increase in marriage licenses at the office of Clerk of the Court Robert K. Ayers.

—State Roads Chairman Mackall predicts that within the next few years tolls over the Susquehanna River Bridge at Havre de Grace will be abolished.

—The Court has refused to grant a divorce in the case of Mrs. James B. Dunn vs. James B. Dunn, both of Quaker Neck. The case was recently heard at Elkton.

—Chestertown has been in semi-darkness, due to a breakdown at the Electric Light Plant. The Lyceum Theatre has been unable to show its pictures because of this.

—Mr. William Ringgold has a duck which has laid for thirty-six consecutive days. He also has twenty-five hens and gets nearly twenty-five eggs a day.

—The new bus lines between Chestertown and Rock Hall and between Elkton and Chestertown are growing in favor with the public and traffic over both routes is beginning to get heavy.

—Discovery of one of the finest deposits of clay in the State on the farm of John Schauber near this town will shortly make possible the manufacture of one of the best grades of bricks no the farket.

—S. Scott Beck, Esq., on Tuesday sold the Merrick Clements farm at public sale to Mr. Robert Jarrell, of Greensboro, Md., for $21,200. This is one of the best farms in Kent county, as well as one of the best equipped.

—Charles Lewis, of Willards, the 10-year-old crippled boy, who broke his neck in a fall from a wagon last Friday, will probably recover, according to medical statements given out regarding his condition.

—When an enraged bull attacked R. P. Howell, a farmer, near Newark, while he was milking in his barn, recently, the animal upset a lantern which started a fire destroying the barn.

—Hope H. Barroll, Esq., trustee, offered the Poore property in Millington at public sale last weeek. The house occupied by Mrs. Maggie Poore was held up and may be purchased at private sale of Mr. Barroll. Lot No. 2 was sold to Mrs. Poore for $850.

—The Women of the Home Demonstration Clubs of Kent have shown theeir skill in cooking and needlework in the three sales held at Gill Bros., in February. No one could ask for more delicious cakes and tempting pies and the buns and Maryland biscuit. These sales will be continued until the last of March at Gill Bros. from 10 a. m. to 3 p.m

—With an estimated margin of between 400 and 500 acres, the Queen Anne's County Tomato Growers' Association went "over the top" at the close of an aggressive campaign to enroll at least 2,000 acres of tomatoes to be produced and marketed cooperatively throughout the season of 1924. The 2,000 acres is believed to represent at least two-thirds of the total acreage in the county. It is definitely known that the pool will exceed 2,000 acres, but until the final figures are tabulated the exact acreage cannot be ascertained.

—The newly elected directors of the Chestertown Business Men's Association met this week and elected officers as follows: H. F. Jefferson, President; J. S. Kreeger, Treas.; R. H. Collins, Jr., Sec'y.

—Gill Brothers fittingly observed their second enlargement anniversary this week by giving free ice cream to children. Between 900 and 1000 plates were given away, amounting to about $100 in money.

—The House of Representatives at Washington last week passed the District of Columbia gasoline tax bill upon the fate of which reciprocal recognition of district and Maryland automobiles licenses hinges. Efforts are being made to speed the bill's passage in the State.

—Members of the Ku Klux Klan ,after the close of services in Chesapeake City M. E. Church on Sunday evening, appeared and left a donation. Middletown Klansmen, during the previous week, visited a family in straitened circumstances and left $50 with them.

—A meeting of the Waterman's Protective Association was held in Rock Hall on Saturday evening for the purpose of taking action to prevent the passage of a bill now before the legislature to abolish pursenet fishing in the Chesapeake Bay. Two hundred and fifty watermen from all sections of the county were present and resolutions were adopted calling upon Kents representatives to use every means to prevent the passage of the bill. The bill was killed Thursday night.

CHURCH NOTES

Kennedyville M. P. Church.

Sunday March 2nd, 10 a. m. S.S., L. W. Ford, Supt., Missionary Service by Mrs. Geo. Johnston's Class. 11 a. m. Sermon by pastor, Dr. J. W. Trout. 7 p. m. C. E., Topic "In His Steps." "What Jesus said about Happiness," led by Mrs. Geo. Johnston. All invited.

Last Friday evening the Christian Endeavor held a Patriotic Social in the Assembly Hall of our School Bldg. The room was beautifully decorated with flags and red, white and blue paper. A very interesting program was prepared, games of different kinds were enjoyed. Our President Miss Emma Shaffer had charge.

The Day of Prayer for Missions will be observed in the M. E. S. S. Room Friday March 7th at 2.30 o'clock. This is an interdenominational service and a large attendance and co-operation is desired.

The regular monthly meeting of the Emmanuel Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary will be held in the parish house on Monday afternoon March 3rd at three o'clock. The members of the Auxiliary and all ladies in the county are earnestly asked to be present. Mrs. Tazewell T. Thomas of Grace and St. Peters Church, Baltimore, will address the meeting.

Bond and Mowbray M. E. Churches

Bond:—Sunday School at 9.45 a. m. Preaching Serice at 11.00a. m. Epworth League Services on Wednesday evening at 7.30 p. m. Bond Church Aid will meet this Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Newnam.

Mowbray—Sunday School at 2 p. m. Preaching Service at 3 p. m., followed by the Epworth League Service.

Correction—At the recent meeting of the Y. P. B. Miss Helen Shinn was elected Secretary, instead of treasurer as given last week.

Chestertown M. E. Church

At the Chestertown M. E. Church Rev. T. J. Sard pastor the services for Sunday and the week will be, Sunday School at 10.00 o'clock, Reception of new members and the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper at 11.00 o'clock. Old time Class Meeting at 3.00 o'clock Epworth League at 6.45 topic "Methodisf in the World;" leader Mr. Heigh Hill. Song service and preaching at 7.30 sermon subject "The Man Who Played The Fool." The official Board will meet at the home of Mr. Thomas Willis on Thursday night at 7.30. Junior League at the Church on Friday night at 6.45. Epworth League business meeting will meet at the home of Mrs. Maggie Hill, on Friday night at 7.30 all young people are invited. Wednesday night Prayer meeting at 7.30 all invited.

The By-Kota Club of the M. E. Church will meet at the home of Mrs. A. A. Crew on Monday Evening next to be entertained by Mrs. Crew, Miss Abigal Atwell and Miss Marion Caldwell.

St. James M. P. Church

S. S. 10.00 a. m. Preaching 11 a. m. Subject, "The Deceitfulness of Riches," A vote will be taken on the delegate to represent the charge at the coming session of the Annual Conference.

Lynch M. P. Church

Lynch M. P. Church, S. S. 2 p. m. Preaching by the pastor at 3 p. m. Subject, The Deceitfulness of Riches" Election of the delegate to the Annual Conference Sunday afternoon.

Chestertown Christ M. P. Church

Rev. N. O. Gibson, minister. Sunday March 2nd. Devine Worship and sermon 10.30 a. m. communion. Sunday School 2.30 p. m. Christian Endeavor 6.45 p. m. Divine Worship and sermon 7.30 p. m. subject of sermon "choosing Gods" Wednesday Junior C. E. 3.30 p. m. Prayer and Bible study 7.30 p. m.

Still Pond M. E. Church

Sunday School 9.30 a. m. A. J. Hackett, Supt. Divine Worship, 10.45 a. m. preaching subject, "Thy Kingdom Come." Epworth League service 7.30 p. m. leader Mr. Carl Norris, 8.00 p. m. Preaching Service. Prayer and Praise Service 730 p. m. Friday. The Still Pond Ladies' Aid Society meets next Wednesday at the Parsonage 2.30 p. m.

Betterton M E.. Church.

Sunday School 2 p. m. Archie Crew, Supt., Divine Worship, 3 p. m. preaching subject "Thy Kingdom Come." Epworth League services 7.30 p. m. Prayer and Praise service Wednesday 7.30 p. m.

Fairlee Salem M. E. Church

W. B. Horner pastor. Services for Sunday: 10 a. m. S. S., 11 a. m. preaching by the pastor; 2 o'clock Mrs. T. B. Hudson class; 7 o'clock preaching by the pastor.

Worton Union M. E. Church

W. B. Hornor, pastor. Service for Sunday: 2 o'clock S. S. 3 o'clock preaching by the pastor.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL

Mr .Charles S. Smith, superintendent of the local Water Company, is out again and is in Baltimore this week.

Miss Julia Power, of Baltimore is at the home of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. T. Power, suffering with an infected finger.

Miss Mildred Covey is quite sick at the home of her parents, Rev. and Mrs. A. H. Covey.

Mr. George Latham. who was operated on for appendicitis at Easton, is greatly ifproved, we are glad to state.

Mr. John Starky, of near town, is quite sick with pneumonia.

Miss Margaret Elliott, of Fairlee, is taking a six months course at Drexel in Philadelphia.

Walter Trew and sister, Miss Katie, attended the funeral of Wm. C. Kirwan, Forest Park, on Monday.

Cashier Robert Huey has been housed with a bad cold.

Mrs. Edgar Pyle is out again after being housed for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rouse are receiving congratulations upon the arrival of a daughter at their home in Havre de Grace.

Miss Virginia Jones, who is sick with fever, is improved.

Mr. Roeder, of Church Hill, is clerking for Mr. Heller, High street.

Mr. and Mrs. George C. Bennett, of Lancaster, Pa., were guests last week of their neice, Mrs. Thomas H. Whaley.

Mrs. George W. Bolton, of Elkton, is visiting her sisters, Mrs. E. E. Hudson and Mrs. Thomas H. Whaley.

Mrs. J. Webster McIntire is visiting relatives in Eeast Orange, N. J.

Miss Minnie Hudson is the guest of friends in Newark, N. J. and Baltimore.

Mrs. Sallie Hines has returned from Baltimore where she has been spending the winter with relatives.

Mrs. Venie Harper, of Philadelphia, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. John Bennett.

Mrs. Samuel Cooper spent last week in Baltimore the guest of her daughter.

Mrs. Frank Robinson visited her son in Baltimore last week.

Mrs. William Walter Chapman entertained a large company of friends at her home on Washington avenue on Friday evening in honor of her brother, Edwin S. Valliant and his bride, of Centreville.

Mr. Grover C. Hatcherson was taken to Easton hospital last Friday and operated on for appendicitis.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving Sparks, of Baltimore, were guests last week of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arlington L. Sparks.

Mr. and Mrs. Galen Vansant, of Virginia, have been visiting his parents Mr. and Mrs. William Vansant.

Mr. Spencer Smith, of Phila., spent the week end with his parents Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Smith.

Mrs. T. G. Wroth and daughter Miss Anna visited relatives in Balto., this week.

Mr. Hugh Hartman and family are spending the balance of the winter in Florida.

Mr. William H. Elliott has been enjoying a most pleasant visit with his brother-in-law, Mr. Harry Anthony and wife, in New York.

Mrs. Mollie Whaland, of Bridgton, N. J., has been the guest of her sisters, Misses Anna and Helen Welch.

Mrs. John Roberts, who has been staying in Baltimore for several weeks has returned.

Miss Mildred Collins, of Centreville, visited Mrs. Hynson Rogers this week.

Mr. William Collins, of John's Hopkins University has been home sick for the past week.

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving rememberance of my dear husband, Thomas Collyer, who died six years ago the eight day of March. I cannot forget you, my dear husband, though long may run the years. I often in the lonely hours, wipe away my tears.

In sad, but loving remembrance of my dear son, Richard Collyer, who died 11 years ago March 16. I cannot forget you, dear Richard, though long may be the years, and often, in lonely hours, I wipe away the tears. No word will ever be so sweet as the word used to say.

Gone but not forgotten by his mother and brother.

WEDDING ANNOUNCdENT . .

Mrs. Spencer Groome Newnam, of Centreville, Maryland, is announcing the engagement of her daughter, Miss Mary Nicols Newnam, to Mr. Aora Milvin Warren, Consul of the United States of America in East Africa and Zanzibar.

FEBRUARY CLOE OUT

To make room for new spring stock we are offering super-saving values in several odd lots of Men's and Boys' Clothing

TWO PANTS SUITS FOR BOYS

Three lots of boys' clothing that for the price cannot be matched. These suits are in cassimeres and cheviots. Most of them are belted and every suit has two pair of trousers. They are real values and you will do well to bring in your boy and have him fitted.

Lot No. 1--$8.50 Suits.....$6.19
Lot No. 2--$10.00 Suits.....$7.75
Lot No. 3--$13.50 Suits.....$11.50

EXTRA!
Broken Lot of Boys' Overcoats
TO GO AT $6.75

Less Than Cost Prices
—ON—
Men's Overcoats
Biggest of Bargains

Lot No. 1
4 Adler Coats
This lot of coats cost us from twenty-two to thirty dollars. We are selling them at this figure to clear. If you can be fitted you will have a bargain in a thousand.
NOW $9.98

Lot No. 2
3 Plain Black
There are just three of these and they are dandies. The original price at the first of the season was thirty dollars. For a dressy coat they are unexcelled.
NOW $15.00

LOT NO. 3—13 COATS VALUES TO $30.00
This lot is in tan, grey and brown. Every one is ulster style with belts. As long as they last you may have your pick for the give-away price quoted.
CLOSE-OUT PRICE IS $17.75

ALWAYS WELL STOCKED VANSANT & NEWSOME CHESTERTOWN MARYLAND

©Maryland State Archives msa_sc3326_scm8223-0080