The Third National Bank

OF CHESTERTOWN, MD.

The Only National Bank in Kent County

"THE BANK WHERE YOU FEEL AT HOME."

Let the Boys and Girls Come.

All girls and boys enjoy the opportunity to earn money for themselves. It gives them a feeling of independence. It helps more than anything else to develop ambition and purpose in life.

When a boy earns money for himself he is not so likely to spend it foolishly. It helps him to understand the value of money; and that quality is absolutely necessary in later life. To know how to earn money and to spend it wisely is a quality all must have who want to become well-to-do.

We are always glad to have the young folks as our patrons. Let them know the joy of building a bank account; let them learn to feel at home when in the bank. You cannot afford to let your neighbor's children get the advantage over yours in this important matter. Think it over.

At the beginning of the year 1923 we offered a prize of $25.00 in gold to the girl or boy who should build up the most consistant savings account with us during that year. We are pleased to announce that this prize went to Master John F. Wilson, Georgetown, Maryland. We wish to congratulate, publicly, all the girls and boys who entered this contest; and trust that each one feels repaid for the effort put forth.

Board of Directors meet Monday mornings at ten o'clock.

WE WELCOME THE BOYS TO

LOCAL TALENT SCORES

Local talent scored a decided hit on Tuesday night at Lyceum Theatre, Chestertown, when the Young Men's Bible Class of Chestertown M. E. Church gave their minstrel show before a crowd which packed the theatre to the doors. A good sum was realized for a good cause.

A feature of the evening's entertainment were the local "hits" about well-known-people of Chestertown, which never failed to bring forth decided applause from the crowd. The jokes were well put and well received. The numerous solos and other musical numbers also received a liberal share of applause from thegenerous crowd, while the antics of the "colored gentry" were interesting as well as amusing.

The play entitled the "Coontown Thirteen Club," lasted about half an hour and was, in itself, worth the price of admission.

The officers of the Young Men's Bible Class are as follows: Pres., Clark Davis; Cice President, Harold Baker; Treasurer, E. M. Sellick; Secretary, Alvin E. Coleman; Assistant Secretary, Carl LeCates; Teacher. John N. Bennett.

WASHINGTON COLLEGE $250,000. ENDOWMENT FUND CAMPAIGN ALLAN A. HARRIS CHAIRMAN FOR KENT COUNTY

Washington College got under way with its Endowment Campaign last week. The preliminary organization, in charge of G. W. Williams, has made a substantial start in carrying out organization plans.

The nine counties of Maryla the Eastern Shore will be orga for an intensive campaign. Committ at-large will include all other territ where the college has Alumni; De ware, Eastern Virginia, Western Sho Baltimore, Philadelphia, New Yor City and other points.

The expense of the campaign will be taken care of out of a special campaign fund contributed by friends of the college. This will leave every dollar contributed to the Endowment Fund intact.

Kent County is fortunate in having as its chairman of the County Organization. Allan A. Harris of Chestertown. In this county, where the college is located, will be conducted the intensive type of a campaign. The organization will have a committee from each of the Districts and will present the appeal to every citizen.

Campaign headquarters have been opened in the Imperial Hotel Building, Second floor. Telephone 306 M. Chestertown, Md. Friends of the college are invited to come to headquarters. Suggestions will be welcomed and information given.

Tomato Growers Elect Occers.

Officers of the recently formed Queen Anne's County Tomato Growers Association were elected at a special meeting held in the office of the County Agent, Centreville Friday afternoon. At the same time announcement was made that the tomato pool, which was consummated last week included a grand total of more than 2,700 acres, exceeding the goal of the tomato producers by over 700 acres.

Officers were elected as follows:

President—James P. Brown, of Church Hill.

Vice-President—W. Royal Merrick, of Ingleside.

Secretary—Edward P. Cockey, of Stevensville.

Treasurer—John W. Perry, of Centreville.

M. D. & V. TO OPERATE

Chestertown will soon have its boat to Baltimore again. Within the next 45 days the Maryland and Delaware Coast Railroad will be in operation, providing an outlet from Batlmiore to points on the Eastern Shore and in Delaware.

Announcement to this effect was made Wednesday night by Col. Jesse Rosenfeld of Baltimore, who, with several associates, agreed upon the purchase of that section of the old Maryland, Delaware and Virginia Railroad between West Denton. Md., and Lewes, Del.

Colonel Rosenfeld will be president of the new railroad and Harry E. Karr, who is legal representative of the purchasing syndicate, will be general counsel. The legal end of the negotiations in Delaware were attended by Attorney James M. Tunnell, Georgetown.

Chestertown Council No. 177 Jr. O. U. A. M. will hold their 27th anniversary on March 12th. All members are earnestly requested to be present. There will be prominent speakers from a distance,also local speakers. Refreshments will be served. The Juniors are in a most prosperous condition. They meet every Wednesday evening, and are having very enjoyable and interesting meetings. You miss a great treat when you do not come. Please be present on the 12th of March, their 27th anniversary.
