"The One Opportunity"

Having decided to go out of the Graphaphone business, in order to make room for my increased stock of imported China, I am going to close out my 1200 Records, includiug the very latest February numbers and stock of Machines on hand.

I Am Going to Let Prices Talk

$ .75 Records.....49c
1.00 " 59c
1.25 " 65c
1.50 " 75c
$85.00 Machines.....$59.00

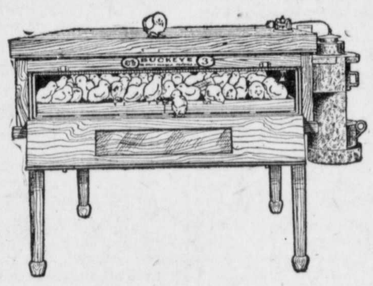

Others in Proportion.

This opportunity will not last long, see us at once.

J. S. KREEGER

JEWELER AND OPTOMETRIST

Phone 53-J. Chestertown, Md

BUCKEYE

Incubators and Brooders

Now is the time to get your incubator started.

The superiority of the Buckeye line has been proven time and again by experiments and comparison with all other lines. Our stock is ready for your inspection. We also carry a complete line of poultry supplies such as Feeders, Water Fountains etc.

"CORNELL BRAND" buttermilk chick starter has now come be recognized as the most dependable and satisfactory feed for baby chicks. It contains all the necessary ingredients needed for the proper growth and development of the baby chick. Try it this time and raise more and better chicks.

Write for our complete catalogue of poultry supplies.

Jones & Satterfield

CHESTERTOWN, MD.

PHONE 51

CULP Lumber

Everything to Build Anything

WORKING PLANS FREE

AT OUR OFFICE

Full Stock Building Material

W. S. & A. M. CULP

Phone 5 Chestertown, Md.

LOCAL ITEMS OF INTEREST

—Kent birds are coming back from the south.

—Salisbury was threatened with a big fire Saturday.

—March came in like a lamb in Kent county.

—Now is the time to trim the grape vines—its the last call.

—The Lyceum is advertising vaudeville for next Monday night.

—The Tolchester Company's Spring schedule appears this week.

—The Income Tax must not be overlooked. Don't put it off—do it now!

—Bishop Davenport is assisting for six weeks the Bishop of Pennsylvania,

—Two-thirds of the time of the General Assembly of Maryland has been spent.

—Maryland Republicans are planning considerable activities in the near future.

—The February issue of the Eastern Shore Churchman was mailed to subcribers this week.

—Easton is said to be fairly overrun with dogs. Chestertown has its share also.

—A delightful social was held in Emmanuel P. E. Parish House Monday evening.

—The Chestertown election is not far off. There will likely be several candidates in the field.

—Saturday, March 1, was a real spring day, although spring does not begin officially until a few weeks later.

—The Young Men's Bible Class will repeat their minstrel show for the benefit of the local fire company in the near future.

—Dr. Dill, the local chiropractor, purchased a new Special Studebaker six from Mr. George Titter, of Chestertown, this week.

—Priscilla Dean in the "Flame of Life," and Buster Keaton in "The Paleface," make a great show at the Lyceum Saturday night.

—Mr. Wm. M. Culp has purchased from George D. Lofland, the latter's half interest in the store building heretofore owned jointly by them.

—Dr. A. B. Burris, former star athlete and Athletic Director at Washington College, has been made manager director of the Salisbury base ball club.

—The fine entire herd of Holstein's of J. Irvin Dayett, of Cooch's Bridge, Del., has been sold and shipped to Winthron College, at Rock Hill S. C. for $10,000, it is said.

—Chester River, in the vicinity of Chestertown, has been fairly alive with ducks of many kinds, which have been curious sights to many local people as well as passing tourists and others.

—The regular monthly meeting of the Parents and Teachers Association Chestertown, was held Thursday afternoon, March 6th at 3 o'clock in the Elementary school.

—Operators of pea canneries on the Eastern Shore, report bright prospects for a big pack the coming season. Contracts are being signed with farmers to grow peas at $70 per ton.

—The Noland-Bennett-Russell Co., delivered this week a Buick Six touring car to Dr. H. C. Hughes; and through the Rock Hall Motors, a Buick coupe, to Mr. Robert J. Shallcross.

—The Harry P. Jones farm, at Fairlee, was sold last week at private sale to Mrs. Lillian Barnes Gilbert. Mrs. Gilbert and her parents expect to occupy the place next year.

—The bill authorizing the voters of North East to pass upon the proposed bond issue. to meet the cost of a water supply system for the town will likely be a law.

—Due to inadequate quarters in the Elkton post-office the Postoffice Department has posted a notice that larger quarters will be sought for a lease of ten years.

—While sinking a pump stock in his brick yard in Newark, Md., aided by Ernest Dougherty and Allen Reed, on Wednesday last week, Jonathan Johnson was struck back of an ear by an axe and was badly injured.

—Assistant Grand Lecturer Harry B. Wright held a Lodge of Instruction at Chester Lodge No. 15 A. F. & A. M., on Tuesday Evening. He was also present at the regular communication Wednesday night.

—There will be a Tuberculosis Clinic for known tuberculosis cases, contacts, and suspects in the Court House, Chestertown, March 10th 2.30 p. m., John M. Nichlas, M. D. Medical Consultant.

—More than $25,000,000 will be spent during budget years 1925, 1926 and 1927 for maintaining and constructing State roads and bridges and retiring State road bonds, according to figures given out by Governor Ritchie.

—Captain Richard Bland, who has been residing in Quaker Neck for many years, has moved to this neighborhood and has rented the Parks-Skipper residence at the foot of Chester River bridge.

—Mr. Richard Leaverton, who recently sold his fine farm in Quaker Neck to Mrs. W. T. Brown, has rented the Rouse Residence, near Cemetery Hill, Chestertown. and will reside there in the near future.

—Large flocks of blackbirds and crows are assembling in the fields around Chestertown, feeding on the new spring sprouts and the worms which usually come to the surface in the spring.

—The farms of Kent County are suplying many of the big men of the cities. Many of the prominent men of Baltimore formerly resided in Kent County and the various counties of the Eastern Shore of Maryland.

—Snakes last week made their appearance at Ringgold's Point and several were killed crawling about.

—Mr. B. L. Bonnett was in New York this week purchasing his spring goods. Watch for adv. next week.

—Dr. A. L. Sterling. proprietor of Sterling's Pharmacy, will celebrate his seventh anniversary Saturday and Monday, March 15 and 17, by giving a half-pound box of chocolates with every purchase of $1.00 or over.

—Mr. A. M. Culp has demonstrated that building can be done in Chestertown in winter. He began the erection of a fine home on the corner of High and Queen street in December and has the greater part of the residence completed.

—Letters from former Chestertown people, now residing in Florida, are to the effect that the season has been a most enjoyable one. There is a big boom in Florida and many northern and western people are there in big numbers, and, with ready capital, are making big investments.

—Instead of marketing their crops individually, as has been the custom for many years, a number of the largest pea growers on the Eastern Shore, have signed up to market their crops in a group this year. The growers hope to obtain better prices for their peas by this method.

—Democratic women of Kent held a meeting Saturday afternoon and elected delegates to a convention to be held in Baltimore this month to elect a delegate to the National Democratic Convention. The following were elected: Mrs. Charles W. Whaland, Chestertown; Mrs. Ida Loller, Worton; Mrs. Samuel G. Caldwell, Galena; Mrs. John Wood, Rock Hall.

—Two consignments of Kansas rabbits reached Queen Anne's county last week for the distribution under the direction of the Conservation Commissioner. One lot was consigned to Sudlersville and the other Centreville, but because of having been permitted to remain in heated cars, it is said. more than half of the Western cottontails were dead when they arrived.

—The observance of Ash Wednesday in Protestant Episcopal and Roman Catholic Churches throughout Kent county last Wednesday, marks the beginning of the solemn season of Lent. Special services will be held in all churches throughout the Lenten season. Easter Sunday this year falls on April 20th, considerably later than at any time in recent years.

—It is reported that Kent stockholders in the Dollings Company will get 25 cents on the dollar. This is conditioned on whether or not the claim of the International Note and Mortgage Company of Ohio is allowed, that being the case the payment to stockholders will be less. There does not seem to be much probability of this claim being allowed.

—Mr. Harry Fallowfield has begun the erection of his home on Kent Circle next door to Mr. Harry Fallowfield. Messrs. Duyer Brothers are doing the work.

—Mr. Charles W. Boggs, formerly of and Treasurer of the Oklahoma Pubthis county, but now the Secretary lishing Co., Oklahoma City, was a welcome caller at this office yesterday. Mrs. Boggs and child is the guest of her father Mr. C. H. Jefferson.

—Residents of the Pondtown community, Queen Annes' county have been mystified by the appearance of a deer, which has been seen by several individuals, and left tracks in various neighborhoods. Where the animal came from or how it reached this section of the country is not known. Several years ago a deer was seen in several sections of the Eastern Shore. Later it disappeared and it is thought that this may be the same animal.

—Mr. B. F. Rash, Prop. of the Flower Grove Fruit Farm, near Worton presented the Transcript this week with a basket of his famous Stamers Wynsap apples. These apples have been in cold storage since they were picked last fall, and are as firm and in as good condition as when picked from the tree. Mr. Rash picked over 2,900 bushels of this fine fruit last year and has since sold 1500 bushels in Kent County. He takes great pride in his fruit and the packing is done under his personal supervision.

CHURCH NOTES

Chestertown M. E. Church

Rev. T. J. Sard, pastor. The services for Sunday and the week will be, Sunday School at 10.00 o'clock. The reception of new members and sermon at 11 a. m., subject, "The Trials of the Church." All the Canvassers will meet at the Church at 2.00 o'clock for the every member canvass. Class Meeting at 3.00. At 7.30 the Missionary Anniversary, a special program will be given in keeping with the occasion, The address of the evening will be made by Rev. O. E. Jones, Dist. Supt. The James Alfred Perkins Class will hold its monthly meeting at the parsonage on Tuesday night at 7.30. Prayer Meeting on Wednesday night at 7.30 all are invited.

Kennedyville, M. P. Church

10 a. m. S. S., L. W. Ford, Supt; 11 a. m. Sermon by pastor, Dr. J. W. Trout. There will be a members meeting directly after morning service and a full attendance is desired. 7 p. m. C. Endeavor, Topic "Dangers of trifling with Life, God and the Soul," led by Miss Ruth Newton. All invited. On Tuesday evening the S. S. Board of teachers held their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. J. W. Urie, and was a very pleasant evening for all.

Bond and Mowbray M. E. Church.

Rev. W. C. McClintock, Pastor. Bond 9.45 a. m. Sunday School; 11.00 a. m., Preaching Service. Epworth League Service on Wednesday evening at 7.30 p. m. The Y. P. B. will meet at the parsonage on Thursday evening.

Mowbray: 2.30 p. m., Sunday School followed by class meeting; 7.15 p. m. Epworth League followed by the preaching service. A Social will be held in the Church Hall Tuesday evening.

Next Sunday, Rev. R. P. Nichols, of Smyrna, Del., will preach at Bond in the morning and at Mowbray in the afternoon.

Fairlee Salem M. E. Church

W. B. Horner, Pastor, Sunday: 10 a. m.. S. S.; 11 a. m. preaching by the pastor; 2 o'clock, Mrs. T. B. Hudson's Class; 7 o'clock song service; 7.30 o'clock, preaching by the pastor.

Worton Union M. E. Church

W. B. Horner, pastor: 2 o'clock, S. S. B. F. Rash, Supt., 3 o'clock, preaching by the pastor.

St. Paul's (Episcopal)

Lenten Services every Wednesday during Lent. Vesper Sermon and short address 2.30 p. m. Sunday Services Church School 10 a. m. morning Prayer and Sermon at 11.00 a. m.

Still Pond M. E. Church.

Sunday School, 9.30 a. m., A. J. Hackett, Supt. Divine Worship. 10.45 a. m., preaching subject: "Forgive us our Sins." Epworth League, 7.30 p. m. subject, "The Epworth League's Task." leader, Miss Mabel Norris. 8 p. m. Preaching service. Junior League Wednesday 3.45 p. m.

Betterton M. E. Church.

Sunday School 2 p. m., Archie Crew, Supt., Divine Worship, 3 p. m. preaching subject, "Forgive us our Sins." Epworth League 7.30 p. m. Prayer Service at home of Mr. Thomas Brice. Wednesday, 7.30 p. m. followed by Bible Study Class.

TO RAISE ENDOWMENT.

KENT COUNTY CITIZENS ORGANIZE FOR WASHINGTON COLLEGE $250,000 ENDOWMEINT FUND CAMPAIGN

The Organization Committee of citizens at the Campaign Headquarters of the Washington College Endowment Fund Campaign last evening and perfected plans for the carrying out of the campaign in Kent County. The following officers were elected: Allan A. Harris, Chairman; P. M. Brooks, Vice-Chairman; W. B. Copper, Treasurer.

The plan of organization as adopted will include the General Committee, five captains of men's teams and two captains of Women's teams for Chestertown, each team having four members including the captain. A chairman will be appointed for each of the twelve towns in the county who in turn will appoint their own fellow workers in their respective towns.

A meeting of the catpains and the town chairmen will be held early next week to work out the details for the campaign.

All the counties on the Eastern Shore will be similarly organized. Organizations are also being formed on the Western Shore, Baltimore, Philadelphia, New York and other points where the college has alumni residing.

DEATHS

Mrs. Priscilla Jane McMahon, widow of the late Michael McMahon, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. H. C. Hughes, in Chestertown. She leaves two daughters, Mrs. H. C. Hughes, Mrs. W. Ernest Armstrong, and one brother Philip Francis Daley, of Baltimore. Funeral well be held in Baltimore at interment, New Cathedral Cemetery. Saturday morning. The deceased was 83 years old.

Mrs. Lizzie Wordon died at her home on Cannon St., March 5. aged 65 years. Leaves one son, W. A. Wardon, and one daughter, Maude E. McClain. Funeral services 11 a. m. Saturday at her late home. Interment Chester Cemetery, Rev. Mr. Sard to officiate. C. L. Dodd, Under taker.
taker.

William C. Quillen, died Thursday night of last week at Harrington, Del., after rounding nearly 86 years, his birthday falling on the 29th of March. News of his death came as a great shock to his many friends. He was the father of Mrs. L. C. Robinson. of Chestertown.

Mrs. Bradley Lloyd, wife of Col. Chas. M. Lloyd, of Chestertown, died Tuesday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. T. Powell, Roland Park, Baltimore, aged 70 years. She had been sick for several years with rheumatism. She is survived by her husband and two children, Mrs. J. T. Powell, Roland Park, and Charles Lloyd, Jr., Chestertown. Her remains were brought to Sudlersville for interment, funeral being held Thursday afternoon.

Mrs.Anna Rouse Glascock died suddenly on Monday March 3, 1924, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. C. Neel, in San Francisco, Cal. She is survived by two sons, Arthur and Dattille, of Baltimore, and Mrs. W. T. Crenshaw of Baltimore and Mrs. J. C. Neel, of California.

Mrs. Mary A. Boggs, widow of Mr. J. W. Boggs, died in Wilmington at her home on Saturday evening. She was 78 years old. Interment took place in Crumpton Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Boggs formerly resided near Crumpton and had many friends in Kent and Queen Annes counties.

What Men Like!

Present-Day Styles

APPEAL!

They Do Not Want to Buy Leftovers

Consequently the store that carries thoroughly up-to-the-minute styles is the store that has the strongest appeal to buyers. We have always endeavored to keep our stock of goods abreast with the latest in men's garments, and today you may come into our store and see the very latest in men's apparel. We try to give you service, and if you are not among our many patrons we cordially invite you to pay us a call.

A Complete Variety

A DEMAND

They Want to Select From a Large Stock

And this is fit and proper, for many times you may want a shirt for one dollar, and if the merchant has but a meagre selection, you in all probability, will be unable to secure just the color or design that is wanted. And it is the same with every article. You should have the privilege of examining a wide selection before deciding on a purchase. Our stock is very complete in this respect.

NOTE About Shoes

We are very proud of the shoes we carry. If it's for dress we offer the RALSTON. Many consider that this shoe is the best made today—and the prices are reasonable. If it's for work we take down a box of the sturdy LION BRAND shoes; and when you see them, the odds are you will buy. Come in and look over these two makes.

ALWAYS WELL STOCKED

VANSANT & NEWSOME

CHESTERTOWN MARYLAND

©Maryland State Archives msa_sc3326_scm8223-0088