WASHINGTON WINS EASY VICTORY OVER BLUE RIDGE COLLEGE—BASEBALL SCHEDULE OUT — OTHER NOTES OF INTEREST

Manager Bounds has arranged an attractive Base-Ball schedule of 19 games for Washington College. The season opens with the Walbrook Athletic Club of Baltimore, here, followed by Temple University, also to be played on home-ground.

Three new colleges are on the schedule this year, West Wirginia Wesleyan, Loyola and Davis-Elkins. The University of West Virginia and West Virginia Wesleyan will be among the big games to be played here. University of Maryland is back on the schedule after a lapse of three years, and also is listed for the opening game on the foot-ball schedule next fall.

The base-ball schedule:

April 12—Walbrook Athletic Club, at Chestertown.

April 14—Temple University, at Chestertown.

April 23—Penn Military College, at Chester, Pa.

April 25—St. John's College, at Annapolis.

April 26—Loyola College, at Chestertown.

April 30—West Virginia University, at Chestertown.

May 1—Western Maryland College, at Westminster.

May 2—Mt. St. Mary's College, at Emmittsburg.

May 3—Blue Ridge College, at New Windsor.

May 6—U. S. Marines, at Quantico. Va.

May 7—University of Maryland, at College Park.

May 8—Georgetown University, at Washington.

May 9—Blue Ridge College, at Chestertown.

May 16—West Virginia Wesleyan, at Chestertown.

May 23—Mt. St. Mary's College, at Chestertown.

May 24—Albright College, at Chestertown.

May 31—St. John's College, at Chestertown.

June 14—Alumni, at Chestertown.

June 16—Davis Elkins, at Chestertown.

The basketball season at Washington College is practically over and the season has been a most successful one, looking at it from any angle you may wish. While several close games have been lost, not one of the victors could come here and defeat Washingtin's quint. This is a well known fact to all who are familiar with the game. Navy has beaten W. C. twice by small scores. Persons who saw the game are unanimous in saying Washington has the best team on a neutral floor. Washington's defeat by Dickinson came after Washington had played four nights in succession against some of the fastest teams in the north. Dickinson on Washington's floor would be about a 32-26 loser. The defeat by Mt. St. Mary's two weeks ago is about the only blot on Washington's splendid record. By the time The Transcript reaches its readers we expect this to be wiped away and the teams to be on equal footing once more—and then Washington to win the deciding game and retain the State championship in the deciding contest. Mt. St. Mary's has not the team that has Washington—taking them man for man, but the night the two teams met Washington played away below form, while Mt. St. Mary's played way above form. The future, however, will be the judge between them and prove our prediction that Washington will retain the State championship.

Washington played in top form last Friday night and hung up a 61-12 victory over Blue Ridge College, which is located at New Windsor, Md. The game, generally speaking, never was without interest, because of the fact that the New Windsor boys never ceased to fight as if they were within a few points of the lead. Their fight-spirit was a credit to them—playing, as they were, against a team vastly their superior in every department of the game.

The outstanding feature of the contest was the wonderful work of Dumschott, who was a marvel of speed on the floor and of accuracy when he got close to the basket. He scored a total of 19 points for Washington. Dumschott, for speed on the floor, has never had an equal in the state. Ruiz, of Mt. St. Mary's is fast, but not in Dumschott's class by any means.

The aggressive and clever playing of McGrann was another decided feature of the game. McGrann, in many ways, is one of the finest players we have ever seen. He is so clean-cut and square with an opponent that, at times, he draws the admiration of unbiased people by his conduct on the floor. And the same thing applies to the whole team. They do not have to run roughshod over an opponent, leaving the other team feel that they have been almost manhandled when the game is over. They win by skill alone.

The first few minutes of the game saw Blue Ridge throw into the game everything they had and make a good showing. In fact, neither team scored a goal until almost ten minutes had elapsed, and the first half was well under way before Washington had shown any decided superiority. The second half, however, saw Washington complete masters of the situation and scoring almost at will.

Carroll was somewhat below his usual form, while Fiore and Carrington played their usual strong games.

The Army-Navy football game will be played in Baltimore this year, it is unofficially announced. This will be a big event for Baltimore.

Football is primarily a College game. Baseball is not. The question often has been asked: "Why is not baseball as popular as football with our colleges and universities?" Many have attempted to supply the answer, and numerous reasons have been advanced. None that we have heard better sizes up the situation than that given by Glenn Warner, the famous football coach, formerly of the Carlisle Indians and the University of Pittsburg and now the head coach at Leland Stanford University in California.

"I have no hesitancy in saying that baseball never will be a great success as a college sport," Warner said, in discussing the matter. It will never rival football and track athletics. Baseball is too professional. For the young man who has real baseball talent—and he must have this to play on a big college team—there are too many temptations. I know whereof I speak."

Salisbury and other lower Peninsula basketball fans will again have the opportunity of seeing in action Coach Tom Kiblers' crack Washington College quint, it has just been announced. The exact date has not been given but it will be some time around the middle of this month at the termination of the regularly scheduled games of the "Flying Pentagon." These dribblers last year attracted to the First Regiment Armory the largest crowd of indoor sports fans ever assembled in this section—about 600 in number. Opposing them on their visit here this year will be a team composed of Peninsula "All-Stars" to be picked by Physical Director G. W. Duffy, of the local "Y."

It has become a ring tradition that a wrestler can't be made into a boxer. Wrestlers have tried boxing often enough and have failed. Frank Gotch a great wrestler, thought he could step into Jim Jeffries' shoes when Jim retired from the ring. He failed as have all others.

Major league baseball is dawning in the South. Major league ball players will have much to shoot at when the sunlight is good and the pennant race is on. Marks were made last season that most of the players will break their backs attaining, not to mention surpassing.

Quintin Romero-Rojas, heavyweight champion of Chile, and the challenger of Luis Angel Firpo, for the South American title has signed a contract with a representative of Tex Rickard for three contests leading up to a bout with Jack Dempsey.

With the opening of the racing season in this State less than two months away, trainers of thoroughbreds are longing for the days when they can substitute exercise in the open for shed work. Those interested in the turf and who get their recreation with the thoroughbred, share the eagerness of individuals whose livelihood is gained through the care and preparation of horses for those contests that point the way to excellence.

Rev. Thomas Donaldson has accepted the presidency of the Easton Baseball Club. as was expected by the board of directors when they elected him last Wednesday night. No better man could have been selected for various reasons.

RESTOCKING THE STATE COVERS

Driving for the restocking of game covers, and with game questionaire cards which were mailed out to hunters in order to keep tabs on the amount of various species of game killed last year already beginning to come in in bunches, and with legislation pending before the General Assembly for the protection and conservation of game, State Game Warden E. Lee LeCompte and his force of deputies have their hands full.

Between six and seven thousand cottontails, a portion of about 20,000 rabbits ordered by the State Game Department to take the places of those killed last year, have already arrived and are being distributed by the game wardens throughout the State. Every county in the State will receive its proportionate number of rabbits and quail for restocking purposes based on the number of licenses sold there last season.

NO REST—NO PEACE

There's no peace and little rest for the one who suffers from a bad back, and distressing urinary disorders. Chestertown people recommend Doan's Pills. Be guided by their experience.

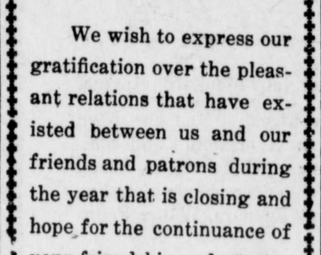

Mrs. Mary V. Elliott, 531 W. High St., Chestertown, says: "I had kidney trouble and was down with lumbago for weeks at a time. I suffered from morning until night with pains through my back. I could hardly turn in bed. My feet became so swollen and painful, I couldn't be on them long at a time. My kidneys acted too often and annoyed me. I used Doan's Kidney Pills from Toulson's Drug Store and they soon had me free from all the distressing symptoms of kidney trouble. I seldom have any sign of the trouble now."
