SENATOR W. B. COPPER introduced in the Senate this week a bill to change the appointment of the road Engineer from the County Commissioners to the Governor. A similar change was attempted two years ago we understand by Senator Russell but the bill was defeated in the House.

AS far as we are able to learn there will be no opposition to the renomination of Congressman T. Allan Goldsborough and in our opinion there should be none. He has made good and should be returned without opposition in the primaries or in the Election.

MARYLAND LEGISLATURE

ITEMS OF INTEREST CONCERNING THE HAPPENINGS OF THE PRESENT SESSION

Maryland farmers, including hundreds of Farm Bureau members, are enlisting their forces just now in a determined effort to defeat the plan for the institution of Daylight Saving in the state during the coming summer months, such a bill having recently introduced in the Legislature by Delegate Dillehunt, of Baltimore. The Bill provides that clocks shall be set one hour ahead from the morning of the last Sunday in April until the morning of the last Sunday in September. County Delegates are said to be solidly against the measure and there seems little liklihood of its passage. However, the farmers are taking no chances on a measure which, if enacted into law. will work hardships on them and already they have begun to pour hundreds of letters and telegrams into the hands of their Representatives at Annapolis, insisting that they do all in their power to defeat this bill.

The Daylight Savings Bill was killed in the House Thursday night.

CHINCOTEAGUE TO REBUILD.

ISLAND TOWN, GUTTED BY FIRE TO ARRISE FROM ITS ASHES.

Chincoteague is already planning to rebuild on sites devastated February 25 by a fire which threatened destruction of the business section.

Many citizens are looking forward to an unprecedented building boom this year. Plans for many of the new buildings will call for brick or other non-combustible building material.

Notable among the new buildings will be a ferry dock, freight warehouse, passenger waiting rooms and offices to be used by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company. These, it is said, will be constructed of concrete and brick, and will be a decided improvement over the buildings destroyed by the fire.

On the site previously occupied by the Island's largest store, a handsome building with space for two stores and offices will be constructed by Daniel J. Whealton. A large barrel factory and an up-to-date oyster shucking house and ice storage will also be built on the waterfront by Mr. Whealton.

The Bank of Chincoteague is now seeking bids for the construction of its new home on Main street, adjoining the Masonic Temple. On the other side of this proposed building a concrete theatre is already under construction. In the same block another large department store is being contemplated by Keas & Co.

FIRES HERE AND ELSEWHERE

The fire alarm called out the Chestertown Volunteer Fire Company in a hurry Thursday at about noon. Upon investigation it was found that a small shed in the rear of the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Smith was afire and the smoke poured forth in a volume which gave every evidence that a fire of no small proportions was in progress. Before the first from down town had arrived Chestertown's Volunteer Fire Co. was upon the scene and was pouring volumes of water upon the blaze with their new equipment, and the fire was extinguished before it had gained any headway.

On Tuesday the fire summons brought out the Volunteer Fire Co., of Chestertown, which proved to be a "false alarm," sounded for the purpose of testing out the efficiency of the company.

A summons from McDaniel, a town 15 miles from Easton, Md., was sounded on Wednesday. The Easton Fire Department answered with their equipment. During the journey to the fire the fire truck skidded into a ditch. One was killed and five others injured. It is said the accident occurred because a motorist refused to give the fire truck the right of way. As a result it is said a law will likely be passed in the Maryland Legislature making it unlawful for autoists not to give the right of way to fire trucks on their way to fires.

The quick response of the Chestertown Volunteer Fire Co. to the fire on Washington avenue Thursday brought forth hearty commendation by everyone present who were interested in the preservation of Chestertown property.

TOWN ELECTION APRIL 28

Prospects are good for a spirited contest at the election of two members of the Board of Town Commissioners at the annual election to be held the third Monday in April. Mr. John .W Barnes has announced his candidacy, and from present prospects there will be a number of other announcements shortly. A bill recently introduced in the Legislature proposes an amendment to the town charter regarding the election of members of the board in case of vacancy, and if it is passed two members will be elected, one to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Curtis A. Goodwin, and the other to succeed William P. Newnam, whose term will expire May1. The taxpayers will also be called upon to vote upon a proposition to add 11 cents to the existing tax rate of 75 cents to provide a modern garbage system and for maintenance of fire equipment.

A CALENDAR OF 13 MONTHS

A strong movement in favor of a 13 month year has been started in Paris and a committee headed by Paul Delaporte, French engineer, has been formed to propagate the idea throughout the world.

The present calendar is a modification of the one adopted by Julius Caesar after the recommendations of the astronomer Sosigenes, and subsequently amended by Pope Gregory in 1582.

Arguments against the Gregorian calendar are that, while it is perfect as regards the year, it has a bad arangements of weeks and months, causing them to vary in length.

Delaporte's idea is that, as 52 is divisible by 13, but not by 12, the year should be made up of 13 months of 28 days each, or four equal weeks of seven years.

The interesting feature of the year be "Zero Day," between the last of the old year and the first of the new, which would occur every four years and replace leap year.
