MUSKRAT SEASON NORMAL

HIGH PRICES PREVAILED, BUT NUMBERS SEEN DIMINISHING YEARLY

The season for trapping muskrats has closed. Much cold weather and ice in the marsh lands prevented a great catch, although in Kent the trapping is said to be normal. Only in the marsh lands was a falling off noticed. The bank muskrats, those found along banks of rivers and streams, were plentiful, and trappers working along the banks made excellent catches, it is reported.

In the marsh lands ice covered the swamps most of the time, and this, with the high tides, prevented the trappers from catching their normal amount. Kent as a whole fared much better than other counties on the Eastern Shore. Buyers here who cover the shore state that neighboring counties did not catch the usual number.

Many thousands of muskrats purchased by local dealers. Some of these came from outside the county, but they were shipped from here to big dealers in the cities. Among these a number of white muskrats were noticed. Some trappers have been in favor of turning the white muskrats loose when caught in order to have them increase in number. It is believed that white muskrats would be a very desirable fur if enough of them could be caught. By protecting them for a time they would have a chance to multiply.

The average price paid for muskrat hides this season is about $1.70. At this arte the season represents a business of $442,000, not to mention the money received for the meat. At 10 cents each there is $26,000 more added to the total. This price is below the amount received in recent years, due to competition from the south.

In the northern part of Florida and in Georgia the southern muskrats have been sought by the furriers this season. It is claimed that the hides are much inferior to those caught elsewhere, but that a special dye so covers up the defects that the difference cannot be noticed outside of an expert. The price paid for these animals keeps the price down on the Maryland animal.

Maryland muskrats are said to be the peer of any. In the north the muskrats have little heavier fur than the Maryland rats, but the toughness of the pelts here makes the local animal more desirable than any other, especially for Hudson seal purposes. In the most selected skins for Hudson seal the Maryland muskrat is always chosen. This year the hides have been very good due possibly to the cold weather. At the beginning of the season the hides are small and of inior quality compared to those caught in the latter part.

I AM THE COUNTRY NEWSPAPER

I am the Country Newpaper.

I am the friend of the family, the bringer of tidings from other friends. I speak to the home in the evening light of summer's vineclad porch or the glow of winter's lamp.

I help to make this evening hour; I record the great and the small, the varied acts of the days and weeks and go to make up life.

I am for and of the home; I follow those who leave humble beginnings, whether they go to greatness or to the gutter, I take to them the thrill of old days, with wholesome messages.

I speak the language of the common man; my words are fitted to his understanding. My congregation is larger than that of any church in the town; my readers are more than those in the school. Young and old alike find in my stimulation, instruction, entertainment, inspiration, solace, comfort. I am the chronicler of birth and love and death—the great facts of man's existence.

I bring together buyer and seller, to the benefit of both, I am part of the market-place of the world. Into the home I carry word of the goods which feed and clothe and shelter, and which minister to comfort, ease, health and happiness.

I am the word of the week, the history of the year, the record of my community in the archives of state and nation.

I am the exponent of the lives of my readers.

I am the Country Newspaper.

BRACE UP

Do you feel old before your time? Is your Back bent and stiff? Do you suffer urinary disorders? Don't despair— profit by Chestertown experiences. Chestertown people recommend Doan's Pills. Here is a Chestertown resident's statement.

Mrs. M. E. Frazier, 410 W. High St. says: I suffered with a run down condition of my kidneys and backache. My kidneys didn't act right and caused annoyance. At times I had dizzy spells when black spots and fiery flashes came before my eyes. When I had occasion to stoop, my back ached dreadfully. Isurely was feeling miserable. As I had known of Doan's Pills for years, I used about two boxes and got relief.

The above statement was given August 17, 1916 and on January 27, 1921, Mrs. Frazier said: "I seldom have any troubel with my kidneys, but when I feel they aren't working right, the first thing I think of is Doan's Pills. They are sure to help me and I know there is nothing better for weak kidneys."

Gill Bros. Formula Is An Open Secret

A young man once suggested "that we sell our formula for Gill Bros. Ice Cream to manufacturers in other towns who wanted to know how to make ice cream as good as Chestertown enjoys."

We told him we had no formula to sell. Any chemist could readily analyze Gill Bros. Ice Cream and find just how we make so delicious in flavor, so rich and so pure.

Gill Bros. Ice Cream contains the same choice fruits, nuts, berries available to any other ice cream manufacturer. More than this, it is made from our pure cream furnished in constant plenty from the pasteurized output of our private sources of superior milk supply.

Above all, it is produced with all possible skill and care to maintain the GILL BROS. reputation for highest quality—and to keep faith with a public that has put the stamp of approval on our daily production. There is no richer, no better-flavored, no purer ice cream anywhere.
