THE TRANSCRIPT

Entered at the Postoffice at Chestertown, Md., as second-class matter.

KENT COUNTY was shocked Saturday morning upon hearing of the death of Arthur L. Harris. Mr. Harris was one of Kent's best citizens and was much loved and admired by a large circle of friends. He was a man of modest characteristics, a mellow and kind heart, generous impulses and ever ready to do a kind act for others. Kent county has sustained a signal loss in his death. To his widow and children we extend sympathy along with a long list of others who knew, honored and respected him.

A CLIPPING from the Baltimore American of April 11, says: "Among the delegates almost certain to have seats at the National Convention are Governor Ritchie, Attorney General Thomas H. Robinson, Secretary of State E. Brooke Lee, Mr. Ray, Robert Crain, Representative Millard F Tydings, David G. McIntosh, Jr., Senator Walter J. Mitchell, former Governor Emerson C. Harrington, Senator W. B. Copper of Kent county and W. Mason Shehan of Talbot county."

AS INDICATED in the last two issues of this paper, a primary fight in this county has been forced on the people by the refusal of Harrison W. Vickers, Esq., and his followers to get together on a 50-50 proposition made by Senator W. B. Copper and his friends, for the delegates to represent Kent County in the State Convention, which meets in Baltimore May 22nd. The question now to be settled by the voters in this county on May 5, 1924, is whether Senator Copper and his friends are to be recognized as the controlling power in the political destines of Kent County, or whether Harrisoon W. Vickers, Esq., and his friends are to have that distinction. Every effort was made on the part of Senator Copper and his friends to prevent this contest, but there was no getting together with Mr. Vickers and his friends unless the Senator surrendered the entire delegation to them, which position on their part has forced the fight. The delegates representing Senator Copper and the Governor Ritchie organization are C. S. Hurlock, Massey, Senator W. B. Copper, Chestertown and G. Ellsworth Leary, Rock Rall. The delegates representing Mr. Vickers are Dr. Merritt Brice, Millington; Harrison W. Vickers, Chestertown; and Representative Charles R. Kerr, Rock Hall.
