MOTHER knows what her family likes. Corkhill Ham has a perfectly delicious flavor because the Corkhill method of curing is far and away better than the ordinary cure.

Buy a whole Corkhill Ham for economy's sake. Ask your dealer to cut two or three slices from the center. Serve the slices broiled; bake one large portion; boil the other one.

Be sure, too, that you get Corkhill Ham. Its flavor is delicate and mild. It needs no parboiling. It is government inspected. Your dealer has it—or can get it very quickly.

There is no better time than right now—just before the busiest season on the farm—to go over your machines carefully, make a list of repairs you are likely to need and send it to us. With this list in our hands, we can order our stock so as to be prepared to meet every call promptly.

Repair part service is a necessary part of our business. We realize what it means to you in time and money to get what you need at once. Help us to help you by making up your list now and sending it in to us.

SPECIAL TRAIN FOR PENINSULA

ENORMOUS VOLUME OF PRODUCE LEAVING PENINSULA CALLS FOR BETTER SERVICE

Special trains will be run to care for the enormous volume of the perishable produce leaving the peninsula this summer and fall, should the revised freight schedule to be put into effect soon be inadequate to move the shipments, according to assurances made by the officials of the rail line carriers.

A revised schedule will soon be published by the Pennsylvania Railroad for the trunk line and branches in Delaware and the Eastern Shore of Maryland and Virginia, incorporating the plans outlined at a meeting of the officials and representatives of shippers at Salisbury on Thursday. This new schedule affecting all peninsula shipping points is being designed so that exactly one day will be saved to the lower peninsula shipper in the transportation of produce to the Philadelphia and New York Markets. Carload shipments billed from these points in the late afternoon will, with the new service in effect, arrive on the two principal markets for distribution the following morning, and while yet in a fresh state.

The inauguration of this service is the culmination of several years' effort on the part of railroad officials and shippers to effect a satisfactory delivery of Peninsula perishable products in the nearby northern markets without depreciation in the value of the shipments when placed on the retail markets that might be incurred by the time consumed in transit Through the efforts of W. T. Gardner, manager of the traffic bureau of the Salisbury-Wicomico Chamber of Commerce. several meetings have previously been held looking toward the final solution of the problem.

Representatives of the peninsula shippers were: Harry Mears of the Peninsula Produce Exchange, Pocomok City; G. Hale Harrison, Harrison's Nursuries, Berlin, Md.; W. T. Gardner for Marion, Pittsville, Salisfury, Cambridge, Seaford and principal points on the Maryland and Delaware Coast division of the Pennsylvania Railroad.
