About Maryland's Telephone System

THE SYSTEM of the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company in Maryland comprises 162,500 telephones serving 117,000 subscribers. Every possible requirement for service is met, from the needs of the large cities such as Baltimore, Annapolis, Cumberland, Frederick and Hagerstown to the sparsely settled rural sections.

Some idea of the present magnitude of the Company's undertaking may be obtained from these significant facts:

35,500 telephones are installed each year.

25,500 telephone are discontinued each year.

1,400,000 bills are prepared and sent out each year, covering, in addition to the charges for local service, itemized statements involving many millions of telephone messages.

250,000,000 local messages pass through the Company's system each year.

10,000,000 toll and long distance messages per year are handled.

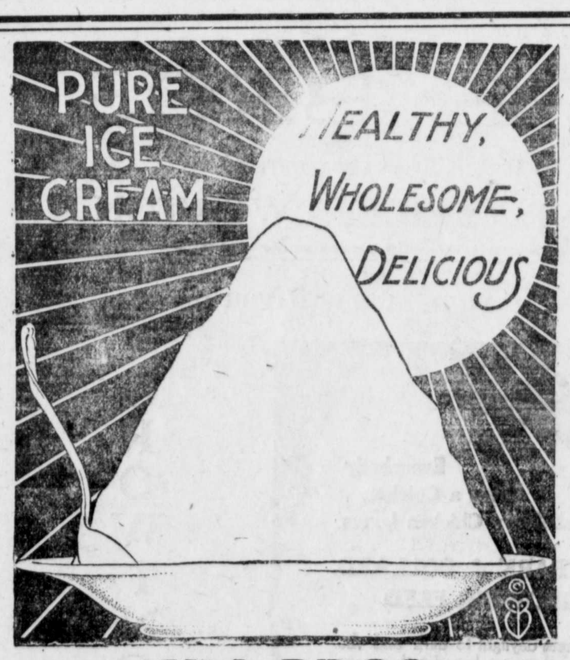

825,000 persons call at the Company's business offices each year.

510,000 pieces of mail matter are received annually.

227,000,000 feet of wire are placed each year; and millions of telephone connections are spliced and soldered.

With a system of such size furnishing a service so highly personal, by means of such intricate mechanism, it is only natural that occasional difficulties will arise. But in spite of the possibility of human error or mechanical failure, the service we are now furnishing is the best in the history of the telephone company.

In a subsequent advertisement we will tell some of the things involved in furnishing telephone service and of the efficiency with which they are performed.

MANY KENT COUNTY GIRLS ENTER THIS CONTEST.

Out of 87 high school girls in Maryland entered in the National Meat Story Contest, Elizabeth Dukes, a senior in the High School at Chestertown, has the distinction of being the first to submit her story to the judges. This information was received today from the Chicago office of the National Live Stock and Meat Board, which is conducting the Contest.

The Board states that the date for the closing of the Contest has been extended from May 1 to May 8. This will afford contestants a little additional time in which to get their story to the judges.

More than 11,000 girls representing every state in the Union and the District of Columbia are now entered in the Contest, according to the latest figures received from the National Board. In this state 50 are entered from Chestertown, 36 from Gaithersburg and 1 from Mjdlothian.

Contestants are required to write a story on meat of 1,000 to 2,500 words and submit with it four meat recipes. The best recipes will be complied into an attractive cook book, giving due credit to the girls submitting them. The Board plans to give this book free national distribution to schools, homemakers and other institutions and individuals requesting it.

Eighty-seven prizes ranging from $300.00 down to $10.00 will be awarded in the Contest.

—Reports from the interior tell of the serious damage done to young forest trees by hords of snowshoe rabbits infesting the Northland this winter. In the absence of grass and herbs for food the rabbits are gnawing the bark of birch, larch, cottonwood, cedar, hemlock and fir. These trees, completely girded by the rodents' teeth are sure to die this spring.

NERVES ALL UNSTRUNG?

Chestertown Folks Should Find the Cause and Correct It.

Are you all worn out Feel tired, nervous, half-sick Do you have a constant backache; sharp twinges of pain, too. with dizzy spells and annoying urinary disorders Then there's cause for worry and more cause to give your weakened kidneys prompt help. Use Doan's Pills—a stimulant diuretic to the kidneys.

Chestertown folks recommend Doan's for just such troubles.

John R. Hadaway, 700 W. High St., Chestertown, says: "I can give Doan's Pills the highest praise. They have never failed to straighten me up whenever my kidneys troubled me. I suffered so with my back, I could hardly straighten and often came home at night tired out and nervous. My kidneys acted irregularly, too. I used Doan's Pills from Sterling's Pharmacy and they soon put my kidneys in good shape."
