SHALLCROSS EXPRESS,

LOCAL FIRE RATE REDUC

Chestertown fire insurance age on Monday received notice from th Underwriters Association of a reduction in the rate on certain classes of property in Chestertown. As a result of the improved for defences the deficiency rate has been reduced 19 cents per $100 on all mercantile risks, specifically rated. While this reduction applies only to mercantile hazards it adds and benefits a large number of property owners and justifies the expenditure for the new fire engine and apparatus. It proves also the wisdom of those whose forethought and efforts have brought about the improvements.

WEDDINGS

The Chestertown Protestant Episcopal Church was the scene of a very attractive wedding on Saturday, April 26th at noon when Miss Estalena Woodland Derringer became the bride of Mr. Roland Reese Corey. The Church was beautifully decorated in candles, spring blossoms and greens. The bride, attired in a handsome gown of Powdered Blue Canton Crepe with hat to match, carrying a presentation bouquet of bride and sweetheart roses, was given in marriage by her brother, Lieutenant Harry Hurtt Derringer. The maid of honor, Miss Harriette Welch wore a dress of orchid georgette crepe with a picture hat of black lace. The bridesmads, Mrs. Simon Wescott and Miss Helen Connelly wore dresses of honey dew georgette crepe with black hats. The attendants carried bouquets of orchid and pink sweetpeas. The flower girl, little Miss Sophia Schaeffer of New Jersey wore a dress of white organdy and carried a basket of sweetpeas tied with pink tulle. The ribbon bearers were little Miss Elizabeth Westcott and Master Charles Schaeffer. Mr. Corey had as his best man his brother, Mr. J. Norman Corey. The ushers were Messrs. Fay Corey, Harry Lankford, Edward Hughes and Simon W. Wescott. During the ceremony "Oh Perfect Love" was beautifully rendered by Mr. Jerry Dunn. The bride's mother was attractively gowned in grey crepe de chine with hat and shoes to match and wore a corsage of violets. The groom's mother wore midnight blue crepe de chine and corsage of sweetpeas. Reverend Charles L. Atwater performed the cermony, the wedding march being rendered by Mrs. Jesse Medders. Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's mother after which the bride and groom left for an extended trip.

A wedding of considerable prominence took place at four o'clock Saturday afternoon at the home of Robert G. Nicholson, near town when his daughter, Nellie Louise, was united in marriage to C. E. Noland, a prominent young business man of the town. The home was beautifully decorated in spring flowers and evergreens and in the presence of a large company of relatives and close friends the ceremony was performed by Rev. N. O. G pastor of Christ Methodist Prote Church. The bride wore a gown of muffin colored georgette crepe, trimmed in shadow lace with hat to match and carried a bouquet of bride's roses. She was attended by Mrs. Clinton C. Jones, who wore a gown of powder blue georgette crepe, trimmed with rhinestone ornaments and hat to match The bride was given in marriage by her father, Robert G. Nicholson. The groom was attended by Clinton C. Jones. Miss Clara Usilton played the wedding march. Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the birde's father, after which Mr. and Mrs. Noland left for an extended trip. They will reside in Chestertown.

A quiet but very pretty Easter wedding took place at Massey Saturday evening of last week when Miss Evelyn E. Ringgold, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Ringgold became the bride of Elwood Starkey. The beautiful ring ceremony being performed by Rev. John F. Saunders, rector of Holy Cross Chapel. A reception was held after the ceremony.

—Mr. Wm. E. Owens, of Betterton, Monday pleaded guilty in the U. S. Court of violating the Migratory Bird Treaty act and was fined $25 without costs. The charge that he shot and killed a swan on January 4 on the Sassafras river was made by Deputy Game Warden Edgar J. Watson, of Chestertown.
