CENTURY THEATRE BALTO.

"Women Who Give," adapted from the widely read novel "Cape Cod Folks," by Sarah P. McLean Greene, will be shown at the Century Theatre during the week beginning Monday, June 2.

With the rugged New England coast as a background Reginald Baker has produced a motion picture that fairly tingles with romance, drama and thrills. This story of sea-faring men and woman who await the return of their loved ones with the fishing fleets is a classic and it is even more absorbing and interesting on the screen than it was in the book.

Stormy lives and stormy seas—here the story of what happened when a girl gave herself to the man she loved—without thought of price.

Barbara Bedford, Renee Adoree, Robert Frazier, Joseph Dowling, Margeret Seddon, Joan Standing, Victor Potel, Eddie Phillips and William Eugene are in the cast.

It is a Reginald Barker production released through Metro.

The Orphues Quartette, an organization of four male singers with very fine voices, will be retained for this same week at the Century and will render an entirely new program of popular hits of the day. They will be accompanied by the Century Orchestra under the direction of Frank Rehsen.

—Yorktown, Williamsburg, Jamestown and Norfolk, Va., will be visited next month in the annual pilgrimage of the Eastern Shore Society of Baltimore. The trip will be made June 6, 7 and 8. Approximately 225 members and friends of the society are expected to go. The steamer City of Atlantic has been chartered for the water trip, and automobiles will be used to convey the party over the route.

Farmers, List Your Repair Needs

It would be hard to find a farmer who at some time or another had not lost valuable time waiting for necessary repair parts. Take this territory and total up the time lost in this way and it will astonish you. And all because repairs are not odered as early as they should be.

There is no better time than right now—just before the busiest season on the farm—to go over your machines carefully, make a list of repairs you are likely to need and send it to us. With this list in our hands, we can order our stock so as to be prepared to meet every call promptly.

Repair part service is a necessary part of our business. We realize what it means to you in time and money to get what you need at once. Help us to help you by making up your list now and sending it in to us.
