A FEW MAXIMS

Life tests real Character, Not 'til Winter comes do we know that the pine is an evergreen.

Regarding Success, Some men grow, Others only swell.

He who cannot be discouraged cannot be defeated.

Attention, Application, Accuracy, Method, Punctuality and Dispatch are the principal qualities required for the efficient conduct of business of any sort.

Faithfulness to duty will save regrets for lost opportunities.

Cultivate a smile and it will frequently arrive without premeditation.

To keep clean, to do good work, to earn friends, to be happy and bestow happiness, to develop opportunity, to serve where possible and learn not to whine—this is a success. There is no greater. There is no other.

Those who talk without thinking, run more risk—than he who thinks without talking.

Never judge a man by appearance. The man with the biggest goggles doesn't always own the machine.

The biggest tree takes the most chopping, but it's worth the most when it falls.

Fight your vices and keep peace with your neighbors May each year find you a better person.

How well we all get along considering how little we all know.

Most people do what makes them happiest in this world, regardless of the next.

Stop, look and listen at lots of places in life besides a railroad crossing.

Growth in our business is measured by the satisfaction of the Customers we serve.

WASHINGTON COLLEGE COMMENCEMENT

The one hundred thirty second Commencement of Washington College opens Thursday evening, June 12 and closes Monday evening, June 16.

With the exception of the alumni dinner and meeting and the commencement ball, to which admission is restricted, the general public is cordially invited to attend all the commencement sessions of the college. It is the season when the college holds open house to its friends.

President and Mrs. Titsworth wish especially to extend to visitors, alumni, people of Chestertown, students, and friends of the college an invitation to be present at their reception in their home on Saturday afternoon. June 14, from 5.45 to 7 o'clock.

Dr. Titsworth will deliver the baccalaureate sermon Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. It is expected that the Methodist Episcopal, Methodist Protestant, and Episcopal churches will unite with the college at this service.

Sunday evening the Y. M. C. A. will hold its closing exercises at which time Rev. James A. Leach, pastor of the Union M. E. Church of Wilmington, will deliver the sermon. Services begin at 8 O'clock. A collection will be taken to help defray the expenses of delegates from the local Y. M. C. A. to the Silver Bay conference.

Music for both Sunday services will be furnished by a choir selected from the choirs of the two local Methodist Churches and the Episcopal Church with a few other voices. This chorus is under the leadership of Prof. A. R. Woodland.

The special feature of commencement will be the address on Monday morning by Congressman T. Alan Goldsborough of Denton, Md. Mr. Goldsborough has an honorable record as a member of the House of Representatives from this congressional district. At this time when the eyes of the people have been more than ever upon Congress, the address by Mr. Goldsborough will be particularly appropriate.

A detailed program for the several sessions follows:

Thursday, June 12. 8 p. m.—Play by Dramatic Club. Friday, June 13, 10.30 a. m. declamation contest for the Simpers Medals; 8 p. m. debate for Rogers Prizes. Saturday, June 14. 3 p. m..
