THE DEMOCRATIC Convention to nominate candidates for President and Vice-President, will meet in New York City, Monday, June 24. An interesting time is promised. Why not nominate Gov. Reitchie for President. He has the qualifications and would be a winner.

THE BOARD of County Commissioners met last night at their office in the court house, Chestertown, to fix the tax rate for the fiscal year. The chances are there will be a small increase over the rate of last year, as there has been many demands made for increased appropriations. Last year they levied $97,000 for the schools of the county, and this year the school board is asking for $140,000 with which to meet the demands for the coming school year. Should the County Commissioners levy the $140,000 for the schools and grant the other demands from other sources, it would mean an additional tax rate over last year of 30 cents. The rate last year was $1.48

KENT WILL BE REPRESENTED

Mr. A. F. Shure, with the cooperation of The Business Men's Association, the County Commissioners, and the suggestions and artistic designing of a number of residents of Chestertown arranged a float to represent Kent County in the historical pageant wihch will be a part of the celebration held at Annapolis in honor of the Severn River Bridge today.

The design selected for Kent represents the first clipper ship to sail into the port of Chestertown during the early part of the 17th, century. As nearly as possible an exact model of this ancient sailing vessel is shown on the float, together with a model of the old Custom House as it was in those days.

The whole design shows in fitting manner this unique period in the history of old Kent when Chestertown was actually the port of entry of Maryland. The vessel was furnished by Dr. Harry L. Dodd and equipped by Captain Bland of Queen Anne County. The model of the Custom House was designed and built by Dr. Dodd, Prof. Owen C. Blades and Mr. George M. Rollison, Sr.

A party of sixteen business men of Chestertown chartered the newest Eastern Shore Transit bus and made the pilgrimage to Annapolis. The bus was decorated in honor of Washington College and represented Kent, the oldest county on the Shore, as being the home of Washington, one of the oldest colleges in the State.
