AN ODE.

By Joseph Addison.

The spacious firmament on high,
With all the blue ethereal sky,
And spankled heavens, a shining frame,
Their great Original proclaim.
The unwearned sun from day to day
Does his Creator's power display,
And publishes to every land
The work of an almighty Hand.

Soon a sthe evening shades prevail,
The moon takes up the wondrous tale,
And mighty, to the listening earth,
Repeats the story of her birth;
Whilst all the stars that round her burn
And all the planets in their turn,
Confirm the tidings as they roll,
And spread the truth from pole to pole.

What though in solemn silence all
Move round the dark terrestrial ball
What though no real voice nor sound,
Amid their radiant orbs be found?
In reason's ear they all rejoice,
And utter forth a glorious voice
For ever singing as they shine,
"The Hand that made us is divine!"

—The body of the Italian, who was drowned at Crumpton last week, was recovered Saturday. The man leaves a wife and seven children. He was about 50 years old. Accompained by three friends he started down the river and in some way, fell overboard His companions stated he never came to the surface. A coroner's jury rendered a verdict of accidental drowning.

Where as it pleased Almighty God in his Divine Mercy to take unto Himself our beloved friend and brother, Edward M. Selleck, and remove him from our midst, therefore be it Resolved:

That it is but a just tribute to the memory of the departed one to say that in regreting his removal from among us, we mourn for one who was in every way worthy of our respect and esteem.

Resolved: That in the death of Brother Edward M. Selleck, we recognize that the Class has lost one upright and faithful member and Treasurer and the Class at large a fearless exponent of its principles.

Resolved: That in their bereavement we tender the wife and daughter and parents of the deceased the sympathy and friendly feeling of the class, and with them we mourn our mutual loss.

Resolved: That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the wife and parents of the deceased brother and published in the local papers, and inscribed in the minutes of the class.

TO PREVENT KILLING OF FISH

Wholesale destruction of fish and other sea life in Chesapeake bay and in rivers emptying into it has been haulted, conservation commissioners say, by the adoption of a bill in the closing hours of Congress which forbids any vessel to discharge oily water or similar waste in coastal or inland waters. According to Swepson Earle, State Conservation Commissioner, the fish supplies of Maryland waters have been seriously threatened by the exhausts of oil burning ships putting in at Baltimore. Even as far inland as Middle river dead fish and crustaceans have become commonplace and such fish as are caught alive have an unhealthy appearance. There is no other explanation than these fish have been affected by oil. The new law has already been signed by President Coolidge and will be strictly enforced, Commissioner Earle says.

WHEAT HARVEST BEGINS

The wheat harvest has begun in Kent On every hand the gentle whirr of the reaper is heard through the golden fields of Kent County as the ripened sheaths fall to the ground in heaps. The crop appears a good one. In some places the straw is somewhat small, but the heads seem well filled.

HIGHWAY MEN BUSY IN CAROLINE

Tuesday night of last week two white men, while under the influence of "moonshine," it is claimed, completely wrecked a line of U. S. mail boxes extending over five miles in length and tore to pieces a wire fence on the Dr. Downes farm, Beginning at the H. S. Dailey farm, between Marydel and Templeville, and extending via Wrights Red House into Delaware, thence from Wright's Red House via the Bear Pond road into Delaware, a distance of five miles, every United State mail box on this route was completely destroyed, and the new wire fence on the Dr. Downes farm at Templeville also was torn down by removing the corner and iron posts. It was one of the most daring crimes ever committed in that section of Caroline county, and the citizens of Marydel and Templeville are at fever heat over the affair.

Sheriff Temple, of Denton, was immediately notified and hastened to the scene. It was not long after he had arrived, until he struck [illegible] and rounded up George C[illegible] zen of Delaware,and Henry [illegible] Caroline county, both white m[illegible] married. The two law-breakers [illegible] now in jail, and have signed a writt[illegible] confession, it is reported. They owe their downfall, it is said to an overdose of "moonshine" purchased somewhere in the bounds of the county.
