ALL EYES ARE turned toward the Democratic National Convention now being held in New York City. With over fifty-two ballots having been taken the nomination of a candidate is apparently as far off as after the first ballot was taken. The Maryland delegates are holding strong for Governor Ritchie, believing his chances to be good when the break comes. How much longer the deadlock will hold no one seems to know. Maryland is entitled to a president and it is hoped the convention will be convinced of this fact and nominate Gov. Ritchie who we believe would be a winner in November.

CONVENTION SEEMS TO BE DEADLOCKED

Democrats Unable To Agree Upon Candidate At 52nd Ballott

When we went to press yesterday, the Democratic National Convention had been unable to nominate a candidate for the Presidency. Fifty-two ballots had been cast without result. It seemed altogether probable that the record of 56 ballots would be eclipsed before a nomination was made.

McAdoo, who had been leading throughout, appears to be losing, have dropped from 504 this morning to 415½ on the last ballot.

Smith was slowly gaining with 320.

J. W. Davis has fallen to 57.

Ritchie maintains his 16½ votes.

Ralston, of Indiana, is pushing to the front with 93.

Indications are that a candidate will be named on or before July 4.

OTHER LONG DISTANCE CONVENTIONS.

Present Democratic Convention At New York Promises To Eclipse Others

The present Democratic National Conevntion at New York promises to eclipse all others on record.

The long distance record for balloting was established by the Democratic Convention at Charlestown, S. C., April 23, 1860. when fifty-seven votes were taken without result.

Stephen A. Douglas, the "Little Giant," led throughout the contest. At the end the delegates adjourned until June 18, when they met at Baltimore, and nominated Douglas on the second ballot.

Thus fifty-nine ballots in all were required to select the Democratic Presidential candidate.

The plan of adjournment after a prolonged deadlock came near being repeated in 1912 at Baltimore, when forty-six ballots were required before Woodrow Wilson was nominated. After the fortieth ballot, William J. Bry- thirty day recess, but a elegates refused to

The second highest record for balloting was the Whig convention at Baltimore in 1852, when fifty-three votes were taken before General Winfield Scott, hero of the Mexican War, was named as his party's standard bearer. The Democrats, at their convention, June 1, sixteen days before the Whigs met, also had their troubles. They likewise met in Baltimore, and cast forty balots before Franklin Pierce was named.

The forty-six ballots for President Wilson in 1912 stands as the third highest record.

Fourth in the list of long distance contests is the nomination of former Governor James M. Cox, at San Francisco. Forty-four votes were taken before he was selected, and he suffered the most disastrouse defaet of any Democratic candidate since Horace Greeley.

The Republicans at Chicago, in 1810 had their troubles, General U. S. Grant who had twice been elected President, was up for renomination. Thirty-six ballots were required to select James A. Garfield over the Civil War leader.

Democracy's last New York convention, in 1868, resulted in a long-drawn out contest before Horatio Seymour was nominated on the twenty-second ballot.

In the Circuit Court for Kent County
In Equity No. 2281

The object of this bill is to obtain a decree for the sale of real estate and the distribution of the proceeds of sale among the parties according to their respective rights and interests therein and for general relief.

The bill states that on the 25th day of August, 1923, John Chaires late of Kent County departed this life leaving a last Will and Testament which has been set aside on the ground that he was not of sound and disposing mind and at the time of his death he was seized and possessed in fee simple of a tract or parcel of land lying in said Kent County which is described as follows:

That the said John Chaires during his life time purchased a lot or parcel of land located in the corner formed by the road leading from Quaker Neck wharf to Brice's Mill and the road leading from Quaker Neck wharf to Chestertown in the village of Pomona which said lot or parcel of land with improvements thereon he purchased from Claude F. Parks and Ida Skipper Parks, his wife, under deed bearing date the 12th day of July in the year nineteen hundred and nineteen and recorded amongst the Land Records of said Kent County in Liber A. P. R. No. 5 folio 274, a certified copy of which is filed herewith as a part hereof.

That at the time of his death John Chaires left surviving him as heirs at law his widow, Annie Chaires, and the following children, John H. Chaires, Albert B. Chaires, Cora L. Stouffer, Sadie Stafford, Annie Hendrickson and Nathan S. Chaires and also the following children of his deceased daughter Emma Stant, to wit: Clara Benney, Alva Stant, Della Beauchamp, George W. Stant, Ruth Stant, Olivia Stant and William Stant.

That the defendant, Clara Benney, is a resident of the City of Washington and District of Columbia.

That the defendant, Della Beauchamp, is a non-resident of the State of Maryland and resides at Delmar in the State of Delaware.

That all the other defendants are residents of the State of Maryland.

That the said real estate will not admit of being divided amongst the parties entitled thereto as aforesaid without loss or injury to said parties.

The petition prays that a decree may be passed for the sale of the said real estate.

That the proceeds of sale may be distributed between your Orators, Annie Chaires, John H. Chaires, Agnes M. Chaires, Albert B. Chaires, E. Carroll Stafford and the defendants Annie Henderickson, George P. Hendrickson, Nathan S. Chaires, Clara Benney, Bernard Benney, Alva Stant, Bertha Stant, Della Beauchamp, Charles Beauchamp, George W. Stant, Ruth Stant, Olivia Stant, William Stant and Margaret Stant, according to their respective rights and interest.

And that your Orators may have such other and further relief as their case may require.

It is thereupon this 20th day of June A. D. 1924, ordered by the Circuit Court for Kent County, in Equity, that the plaintiffs, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in said Kent County, once in each of four successive weeks before the 28th day of July next, giving notice to the said Clara Benney, Bernard Benney, Della Beauchamp and Charles Beauchamp, non-resident defendants, warning them to appear in this Court in person, or by Solicitor, on or before the 11th day of August next, to show cause, if any they have, why a decree ought not to be passed as prayed.
