Democratic Ticket

For President of the United States
JOHN W. DAVIS

For Vice President
CHARLES W. BRYAN

For Congress
T. ALLEN GOLDSBOROUG

THE nomination of John W. Davis, of West Virginia, as the democratic candidate for President and Governor Bryan, of Nebraska, as Vice President makes a strong running team. Mr. Davis is described as a lawyer, legislator and diplomat; a man not bound to any group of politicians or organizations; a man who has rendered successful public service and irreproachable in private life. Mr. Charles W. Bryan, governor of Nebraska, was twice elected govenor of that state, and is well qualified for the vice-presidency.

DEMOCRATS NOMINATE STRONG TICKET

John W. Davis and Charles W. Bryan Standard Bearers Of Democracy For Presidential Honors

John W. Davis, of West Virginia for President and Governor Charles W. Bryan of Nebraska for Vice-President This was the ticket the Democratic party selected at its final session in Madison Square Garden early Wednesday morning, after having been in session since June 24. Bryan was nominated on the first ballot.

The convention then adjourned sine die at 2.31 A. M. amid tumultous scenes

Mr. Davis was nominated during the 103rd ballot at Wednesday afternoon's session. He received the unanimous vote of the various delegations. He had been third man on the ticket when Smith and McAdoo withdrew the preceding day.

Mr. Davis just before midnight, appeared in the convention hall with Governor Ritchie of Maryland as his escort. He made a speech of acceptance and was given a tremendous ovation.

NARROW ESCAPE AT ROLPHS

A Philadelphia man had a narrow escape from drowning at Rolph's wharf one day last week. It seems that the man umped from the side of the wharf and was unable to swim after he got in the water. After sinking several times and wildly clutching at everybody with whom he came in contact, Chestertown people and friends of the man were successful in getting him to the wharf. This should be a lesson to our swimmers, as this is the second affair of the kind we have had at Rolph's Wharf in the past few weebs.

SMASH-UP ON BRIDGE

A bad smash-up occurred on Chester River bridge Thursday about noon when the small bus, belonging to Mr. Vernon Barnett, and used on the Tolchester route, and the Texaco Oil truck, being driven by Mr. Dumont Lambert, collided on the far end of the draw. Mr. Barnett was at the wheel of his car and was about to leave the draw when the crash came. It is said that the brakes of Mr. Lambert's truck failed to hold. Two Baltimore women on their way to Crumpton were slightly injured in Mr. Barnett's car. Mr. Lambert's truck was also damaged.

In the Circuit Court for Kent County
In Equity No. 2281

The object of this bill is to obtain a decree for the sale of real estate and the distribution of the proceeds of sale among the parties according to their respective rights and interests therein and for general relief.

The bill states that on the 25th day of August, 1923, John Chaires late of Kent County departed this life leaving a last Will and Testament which has been set aside on the ground that he was not of sound and disposing mind and at the time of his death he was seized and possessed in fee simple of a tract or parcel of land lying in said Kent County which is described as follows:

That the said John Chaires during his life time purchased a lot or parcel of land located in the corner formed by the road leading from Quaker Neck wharf to Brice's Mill and the road leading from Quaker Neck wharf to Chestertown in the village of Pomona which said lot or parcel of land with improvements thereon he purchased from Claude F. Parks and Ida Skipper Parks, his wife, under deed bearing date the 12th day of July in the year nineteen hundred and nineteen and recorded amongst the Land Records of said Kent County in Liber A. P. R. No. 5 folio 274, a certified copy of which is filed herewith as a part hereof.

That at the time of his death John Chaires left surviving him as heirs at law his widow, Annie Chaires, and the following children, John H. Chaires, Albert B. Chaires, Cora L. Stouffer, Sadie Stafford, Annie Hendrickson and Nathan S. Chaires and also the following children of his deceased daughter Emma Stant, to wit: Clara Benney, Alva Stant, Della Beauchamp, George W. Stant, Ruth Stant, Olivia Stant and William Stant.

That the defendant, Clara Benney, is a resident of the City of Washington and District of Columbia.

That the defendant, Della Beauchamp, is a non-resident of the State of Maryland and resides at Delmar in the State of Delaware.

That all the other defendants are residents of the State of Maryland.

That the said real estate will not admit of being divided amongst the parties entitled thereto as aforesaid without loss or injury to said parties.

The petition prays that a decree may be passed for the sale of the said real estate.

That the proceeds of sale may be distributed between your Orators, Annie Chaires, John H. Chaires, Agnes M. Chaires, Albert B. Chaires, E. Carroll Stafford and the defendants Annie Henderickson, George P. Hendrickson, Nathan S. Chaires, Clara Benney, Bernard Benney, Alva Stant, Bertha Stant, Della Beauchamp, Charles Beauchamp, George W. Stant, Ruth Stant, Olivia Stant, William Stant and Margaret Stant, according to their respective rights and interest.

And that your Orators may have such other and further relief as their case may require.

It is thereupon this 20th day of June A. D. 1924, ordered by the Circuit Court for Kent County, in Equity, that the plaintiffs, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in said Kent County, once in each of four successive weeks before the 28th day of July next, giving notice to the said Clara Benney, Bernard Benney, Della Beauchamp and Charles Beauchamp, non-resident defendants, warning them to appear in this Court in person, or by Solicitor, on or before the 11th day of August next, to show cause, if any they have, why a decree ought not to be passed as prayed.

CHIROPRACTIC FOR Nervous Women

Chiropractic is a God-send to the entire human family, particularly for the ailments peculiar to women.

Nervous trouble is not a disease, but usually a sympton indicating trouble in some organ or part elsewhere. The Chiropractor is really a specialist in dealing with these complaints. His trained and sensitive fingers can locate the cause of the great majority of such complaints in slight deviations of the spinal column, where all the nerves leave to control the functioning of the various organs and parts of the body. Think of it. No medicine to take, no pills, no massage, and, above all, no dread of the cold steel of the surgeon's knife. Chiropractic is the safest and best method to employ when you are sick, run down and nervous.

Your Chiropractor knows that his reputation is dependent strictly on his ability to deliver the goods and get the sick well. I can truthfully say, and Anne Counties, every one has improved in health, who has given me a fair chance to get them well. If you are sick of being sick and have tried all the doctors without relief, try Chiropractic and get well. Consulation without charge.
