THE Citizens of Chestertown are apparently no more reconciled to the removal of the postoffice than they were when it was first definitely known that it was to be removed from its present conveniently located position to one of a remote and inconvenient location. It is to be hoped that a more satisfactory location may yet be found than the one selected near the railroad station.

CHURCH NOTES

The Rectors of Shrewsbury and I. U. Parishes, will exchange services on Sunday morning. The rector of I. U. is delivering a series of sermons on the Home, The Church, The Public School and The Community. Health Day

Wednesday was "Health Day" at Betterton.

The Health Mobile was there with doctors and nurses to examine the children. Many were examined.

The afternoon program was opened by the singing of "America." The Worton children contributed a song and recitation. Kennedyville two beautiful songs, one entitled "Sleep" and Still Pond a very good "Health quotation."

These were followed by a talk by Dr. Knox, who told the parents of the importance of periodie examination for expectant mothers and young children. Dr. Davis of the Delaware State Dept. of Health spoke of the control of communicable diseases.

At the close of the afternoon program everyone enjoyed a delicious supper on the pier.

The evening program started at 8 p. m., Dr. Hines, chairman of Public Health Association presided. The first Health Association, presided. The first on the screen, after which Dr. Knox gave another very interesting talk. Mr. Allan Harris launched the membership drive for the Public Health Association. The drive is to continue until August 30th. It is hoped that every one in Kent county will join our Association. The fee is only one dollar.

These talks were followed by two more pictures "Our Children" and a two reel comedy concluded the program for the evening.

The Health Mobile was given a good start. Everyone in the county should avail themselves of the opportunity of having physical examination. Not especially the sick children are urged to come but all the children.

Golden Rule Sunday.

December 7th will be observed as Golden Rule Sunday. asks the Near East Relief. Maryland is asked by Harold F. Pellegrin, Maryland State Director, to do its share on that day, with the other states of the Union, in a sacrificial expression of the Golden Rule, to help the orphans, over one hundred thousand of them, under care of the Near East Relief. This state on Golden Rule Day will be sharing in this expression of help for the Near East Relief, not only with the other states. but with the whole world, for the day is to be an international observance.
