Democratic Ticket

For President of the United States
JOHN W. DAVIS

For Vice President
CHARLES W. BRYAN

For Congress
T. ALLEN GOLDSBOROUG

HONESTY and the elimination of graft among Government Office-holders is the key-note in John W. Davis campaign speeches. Mr. Davis is a man of force, he is a Financier, a Diplomat, and a man backed up by a record that well fits him for the Presidency of the United States. We feel that with Mr. Davis as a leader, the prospects of a Democratic Administration are very bright.

SOME YEARS AGO some public spirited ladies of Chestertown, in the name of the Town Improvement Association, transformed a rubbish heap, pools of stagnant water and an eyesore to the town, into a beautiful park in the center of which was a fountain of running water. This park greets the stranger upon entering our town and he retains a very favorable impression upon leaving; it helps make Chestertown one of the prettiest and best laid-out towns in the state. Are the residents of our town going to let this park go down? The fountain has long since done its part and is now a draw-back to the beauty of the park. Is the public spirit of the residents lessening to such an extent as to overlook this necessary improvement? Why not erect a memorial to the soldiers and sailors of the late war in the place where the wreck of the old fountain now stands. The Transcript will start a fund for this purpose with a donation of $25.00 and if necessary will contribute more. Lets hear the views of other citizens on the above suggestion.

WEDDINGS

Miss Minnie Hedrick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Hedrick and Mr. Leslie Downey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Downey, of Rock Hall, Md., were married August ninth, 1924, at the home of the bride's parents in Green Street, Reading, Pa. The young couple will reside in Reading for the present.

Chautauqua Begins Today

Chautauqua begins today, Saturday, remember no season tickets can be bought after 3.30 p. m. today. Get a ticket and attend all the sessions. Twelve performances for $2.50. Single admissions to four will exceed the price of a season ticket. Chautauqua will be better than ever this year.

Waterfront Farm Sold

A deal involving one of the most desirably located waterfront farms in Cecil county was perfected this week, when Andrew W. Wilson, of Georgetown sold his Knight's Island Farm, beautifully situated on the Sassafras river, to a company of sportsmen from Philadelphia, who will convert the place into a game preserve.

The farm contains between 500 and 600 acres of land and is regarded as one of the best locations near the Chesapeake bay for ducking purposes. The place will be greatly improved and a commodious club house erected for the pleasures of the sportsmen.

Salisbury Tops League.

By defeating Cambridge again on Thursday, 2 to 0, Salisbury has virtually clinched the pennant in the Eastern Shore League. About 2200 witnessed this critical series between these two rival towns.

The race has been one of the closest ever staged in organized baseball. Every team, with the exception of Easton, has been in the race. Easton was slow getting started but has recently played good ball.

The attendance in the League has been uniformly good. Practically all towns have made money and all will likely be in the league next year.

The season ends Labor Day, Sept. 1.
