DEATHS

The death of Dr. Joseph Elliott Gilpin, for many years professor of chemistry at Johns Hopkins University occurred at the home of Mr. Edward Emory, near Chestertown, Monday. He was 57 years of age. Funeral services were held at 3.30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon from his home on Stony Run, near Thirty-ninth street. Burial in Loudon Park Cemetery. Pallbearers at the funeral were Dr. E. Emmet Ried, Dr. John C. French, Dr. J. C. W. Frazer of Hopkins, T. R. Ball, former register of Hopkins; Charles Baldwin, lawyer, and Harry A. Lane, chief engineer of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company.

Dr. Gilpin, with his wife, Mrs. Olive Russell Gilpin, was spending a part of te hsummer with Mrs. Gilpin's cousin, Mr. Edward E. Emory, on Chester river, near Chestertown, Shortly after dinner Monday night he was taken ill and died a few hours later. Until then he was apparently in the best of health.

He was born in Baltimore November 21, 1866, the son of Albert G and Fannie Elliott Gilpin. He studied at John Hopkins, receiving a bachelor of arts degree in 1889 and the degree of doctor of philosophy in 1892. He was an instructor of chemistry there since 1892 and was a member of the American Chemists' Society, Beta Theta Pi, Phi Beta Kappa, as well as Johns Hopkins and the Baltimore Country Clubs.

Besides his wife, Dr. Gilpin is survived by a daughter, Miss Laura Pleasant Gilpin.

Mrs. Ruth Rasin, wife of McCall Rasin, of Franford, Del., died at the hospital in Milford, Del., on Sunday last of intestinal trouble, aged 23 years. She leaves besides her parents Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Messick, of Frankford, Del., a husband also an infant daughter, nine days old. The deceased lived in Chestertown for two years and while here endeared herself to everyone by her charming manner, lovely disposition and willingness at all times to help in all departments of the Chestertown M. E. Church, of which she was a member. Funeral service was held from her late home in Frankford, Del., Tuesday.

Mr. James Hickey, formerly of Rock Hall, died Saturday morning, August 23 at the home of his son James, at Hamilton, Md., at the age of about 85 years. The remains were brought to Rock Hall Sunday via ferry and interred in St. Paul's cemetery, the funeral service being read by the Rev. W. H. Revelle, of Rock Hall M. E. Church, where Mr. Hickey was at one time a member. He leaves a wife and four sons, John, William, Walter and James all of whom live in Baltimore and vicinity except Walter who is a resident of Florida. All were present at the burial.

Mrs. Skirven, wife of Percy G. Skirven, formerly of this county, but now of Baltimore, died at Dr. Howard's Sanitariam on Monday of this week. She was before her marriage Mamie Gemmill of this county where her host of friends remember her with affection and esteem. She leaves behind her besides her husband three daughters and three sisters. Her remains were brought over on the ferry and she was buried in St. Paul's Church yard on Tuesday, Aug. 26.

Kent Teachers' Meeting

Mteeings of the teachers of Kent County, Maryland, ill be held on Thurs day and Friday, September 4th and 5th respectively, in the Chestertoown High School building.

In order to make the meetings as profitable as posible, the teachers will meet in groups according to the grades they will teach and the kind of schools in which they will work during the year. Problems of peculiar interest to each group will be discussed and objectives for the year decided on.

Among those who will be present and assist with the work are: Mr. Thomas L. Gibson, State Supervisor of Music, Mr. E. Clarke Fontaine, District High School Supervisor and Mrs. Philena B. Cox, an expert demonstratoor in the teaching of primary reading.

It is hoped that many of the patrons and friends of the schools throughout thecounty will be present at these meetings.

Massey Wins Two.

On Saturday, August 23 Massey defeated the fast Middletown club on their diamond the score being six to four. This game was a pitchers battle from start to finish, Groff was on the mound for Massey and besides his pitching is slugging at a great pace. Moffett, Massey's fast short-fielder, is slugging the pill hard.

Wednesday, Aug. 27, Massey played Golt on their diamond at Townsend, Del. It was a one sided game. Groff with excellent support did not let them score until theeighth. The Massey boys were pounding the pill all around the lot and fences didn't mean anything in the way of obstruction. Moffett raised his average to 383. The Massey club has five three hundred hitters.
