Chautauqua Most Successful

Chautauqua for 1924, which began last Saturday concluded its seven day program last night. The Chautauqua has been successful and most interesting this year. There have been many excellent musical numbers. This is the thirteenth year of the chautauqua. Although the sale of tickets in advance was not sufficient to meet the guarantee, the deficit amounting to about $450 or $4.50 for each guarantor, arrangements will be made, no doubt, insuring the return of Chautauqua for 1925. When we went to press, Rev. A. H. Covey, president of the Chautauqua for 1924, informed us that nearly the one hundred guarantors necessary had been secured.
