MR. CARVIL D. BENSON has been made Chairman of John W. Davis' Democratic Campaign Committee for this state. With Mr. Benson as chairman an aggressive and lively campaign may be looked for. Mr. Benson was chairman of the committee that put Senator Brice in the United States Senate. Mr. Benson is an experienced man in the politictl game and is to be reconned with, and we predict Maryland will give Mr. Davis, the Democratic candidate for President, a good majority. The election is only nine weeks off and while there is quite a good deal of work to be done there is not much time to be wasted. Kent and the other counties of the State should be looking after their end of the battle and getting their forces together.

ECONOMICS MEETING A SUCCESS

Kent County Girl's Clubs Make Big Plans for Fall Work.

The Mother and Daughter Meeting held last week was a great success.The purpose of the meeting was to assist demonstrators in finishing projects and to enroll new members. The meeting consisted of demonstrations by the girls in canning, jelly making, buying, making, care, laundering and repair of clothing.

The Canning demonstration was very ably given by Louise Startt, who exhibited some fine jars of canned products.

Elizabeth and Arsula Moffett gave a fine demonstration in jelly making. These two girls made 200 glasses of jelly last year at their home near Worton.

The Clothing demonstration given by five Club Girls was very nicely carried out. Georgeanna Robinson opened the discussion by giving a demonstration in testing cotton, linen, silk and wool and giving many helpful suggestions on "How to Buy."

Laura Rees of Fairlee, who has been a club member for five years, showed the girls the first garment made in her work and told what the work had meant to her. She exhibited a suitcase of clothes she had made this summer and told how the work had helped in her High School Course.

Clara Matthews then gave a very instructive talk on the Laundering of Colored Clothes. Ann Matthews gave a demonstration on "Removing Spots" and Julia Williams finished the discussion by giving a demonstration in machine darning and patching. Julia exhfbited a plaid skirt so nicely patched, it was hard to find the patch.

Helena Brown and Edith Rees had charge of the games and recreation.

An exceptionally fine demonstration in bread making was given by Miss Alberta Jewell, a Drexel student. This demonstration aroused a great deal of interest. Following the demonstration a picnic supper was served which was followed by a Vesper Service and Radio Concert. Miss Minnie Hicks, a teacher at the Maryland School for the Blind, talked at the Vesper Service on "Choosing Your Life Work." The Vesper Service including the demonstrations were planned and carried out by the girls. A number of local leaders and mothers attended the meeting.

ANOTHER KILLING HERE

Fracas Near Butlertown Results In Death Of Colored Man.

Kent county had another killing this week as the result of a brawl in Butlertown, near Worton.

As a result, Andrew Pennington Butler, colored, is in Chestertown jail charged with the death of Reuben Butler.

The killing is the result of a brawl that occurred at a baseball game between Andrew Butler and several other colored boys in which Reuben Butler, finally took a hand, and is said to have shot at Andrew Butler, hitting him twice, once in the arm and again in the head. Butler claims that he acted in self defense in hitting his uncle the fatal blow with a baseball bat after the shooting occurred and after the uncle had made threats against the life of Andrew.

Sheriff Goodman was notified and hurried to the scene with his deputy. Butler was brought to jail here and held for a hearing.
