The Third National Bank

OF CHESTERTOWN, MD.

The Only National Bank in Kent County

"THE BANK WHERE YOU FEEL AT HOME."

Where Your Savings Are Safe.

Every Good Citizen Should Have a Growing Bank Account.

Many people have the idea that a "live" town is one where everybody spends freely and saves nothing. Any town where that happened would be "dead" in less than a year.

There can be no growth in a community—no homes or schools, stores or factories—UNTIL SOMEBODY HAS SAVED FIRST.

This Bank's service lies in bringing together these small savings and in using them in part as loans for community development. The role is that of "Big Brother" to this community, using its strength and resources to boost and build up this locality.

You cannot draw any true picture of YOUR OWN successful future which does not have as a background the prosperity of the community as a whole. You may look ahead and see yourself with a good job, a good home, or business or farm. But unless the community is prosperous and progressive, the job will not last long, the business will be bankrupt, and the real-estate will not be worth much per front foot or the farm per acre. The best way for us to succeed as individuals is for us to be good citizens and wide-awake Boosters for Home Interests.

Boost your local community, do your buying locally and do your Saving locally. Build up your bank account to furnish Home Capital for Home Enterprise and improvement.

Join this Bank in this movement. Work with us, and let us work with you—for mutual prosperity, and for the good of our Community. Call at the Bank, let's us talk matters over together.

Murder Trial Settled.

Charles Kassing, who on the night of March 21, 1923, with John Webb, visited the farm of John Szymylix at Barksdale, three miles north of Elkton and is alleged to have shot and killed "Italian Joe" Darine, caretaker of the Szymylix children, while the father was at work in Wilmington, was put on trial before a jury in the Cecil County Court Tuesday. Webb's case was tried here last summer and he was sentenced to Maryland Penitentiary for 15 years.

The jury in the Kassing case returned a verdict of manslaughter which carries with it a sentence of from two to ten years in prison.

TO BUILD MAUSOLEM

Judge Lewin W. Wickes Dismisses Case Brought By Cemetery Company Against Administrator

Judge Lewin W. Wickes has dismissed the case brought by the Cemetery Co., against Mr. Thos. G. Wroth, administrator, C. T. A., of the estate of the late Julia Caroline Wroth. This case is concerning the building of the Mansoleum which the deceased wished erected to the memory of her husband, Mr. Emory Wroth, and her mother, Mrs. Caleb.

About a year ago Mrs. Carrie S. Wroth died leaving an estate valued at about $9,000. Among the provisions of her will which made Thomas G. Wroth, a brother-in-law, her administrator was a request that a chapel or mausoleum be erected on her lot in Chester cemetery as a memorial to the Wroth family, and Mr. Wroth, the administrator, was asked to do it. He consulted with the members of the cemetery company, who objected to the expenditure of the money by Mr. Wroth and refused to allow the chapel turned over to the company.

Mr. Wroth determined to test the matter in the court and employed State's Attorney S. Scott Beck as his attorney, while Harrison W. Vickers represented the cemetery company, of which he is the president, assisted by Herbert E. Perkins.

Mr. Wroth has contracted with an architect to draw plans for a very handsome chapel, which will accommodate a casket and about fifteen people.
