DEATHS

Mrs. Wilhelmina Redmile, wife of the late Thomas Redmile, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Clara Johnston, Kennedyville, on Monday afternoon September 29, 1924, aged seventy-nine years. She is survived by the following children: Harry S., E. Linwood and Mrs. Clara Johnston, of Kennedyville; Mrs. Bertha Herzog, of Baltimore; and Mrs. Liillie McKnett, of Philadelphia. She leaves one brother, John Silcox; also seven grandchildren and one great grandchild.

Mrs. Redmile was born in Delaware, February 6, 1845, but the greater portion of her life was spent in Kennedyville and vicinity and to this community she was ardently attached, manifesting a heartfelt interest in all that pertained to its welfare. She was a devoted wife and mother and was never happier than when surrounded by the family group. The hospitality of the home was generously dispensed to all and the ministers of the charge were ever welcome guests. Bright and genial in disposition she was loved by many and her presence will be greatly missed.

For more than forty years Mrs. Redmile was a faithful consecrated member of the Methodist Protestant Church and had long been a loyal member of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union. She was unfailing in her attendance at the church services until impaired health prevented the regular observance of this privilege. She was deeply concerned in the advancement of the Master's kingdom. The close of her life was as a beautiful sunset, radiant with light and joy from the Fathers throne.

The funeral services were held at her late home, on Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock, conducted by Rev. F. D. Reynolds and Dr. J. W. Trout. The burial was at Kennedyville Church cemetary. The pall-bearers were Harry and Linwood Redmile, Charles Herzog, George Johnston, Waltie McKnett and Walton Redmile.
Walton Redmile. B. R. Fellows, undertaker.

The Weeks Crop Report.

The week was marked by a continuation of cool weather, with sunshine during the first half and heavy rain during the second half.

These conditions were unfavorable for the maturing of late corn, tomatoes late tobacco, sweet potatoes, tree fruit etc., anh retarded the growth of late potatoes and late truck crops.

Cutting of early corn is in progress. Late corn is maturing very slowly and much of it is still green.

Late apples and late pears are being picked. Harvesting of late varieties of peaches continues in some districts.

Sowing of wheat continues in the Allegheny Mountain region and has begun on the northern Piedmont Plateau.

Pastures and grasses are fair generally, except still poor between the Allegeheny and Blue Ridge Mountains.

Late potatoes are good generally, but growing slowly; they are still in bloom. Sweet potatoes are maturing slowly; digging continues over the southern half of the sectiion.

Tomatoes and late tobacco continue to ripen slowly. The peak of the tomato season has passed. Early tobacco is being cut.

The growing season continues about two to three weeks behind normal; hence the maturing of all crops is very late.

Heavy rain at the close of the week will benefit pastures, late potatoes, and late truck crops. The rain was much needed between the Allegheny and Blue Ridge Mountains, where dry weather has prevailed for many weeks.

A Summerless Year?

Farmers of Talbot are writinv to the Weather Board to know if it's true that next year we will have a "summerless summer."

Some back-yard weather prophet recently got wide circulation for his statement that all the signs point to a repetition next year of the famous summer of 1819, when frost occurred every month and the sun rarely shone Now the folk out in the country want to know if it will be safe to plant crops, if they hadn't better shift from corn to potatoes, and a thousand other anxious things.

Of course, the bureau replies that no man living can predict weather more than a wek or ten days in advance, and the chances are 100 to 1 the prophet is wrong, there having been only one such summer recorded in American history.

The bureau has been put to considerable expense to answer all the letters, and is not in a very charitable mood toward the amateur seer.

May Light Church Hill.

Following the receipt of formal notice H. D. Massey, owner of the Cherch Hill electric light plant, stating that he would not supply current for the town after December 31, 1924, the Board of Town Commissioners of Church Hill last week began making preparations for obtaining electricity from the municipal plant at Centreville A meeting of the taxpayers of Church Hill was held in Guests' Opera House recently when the program of the Commissioners were laid before them. If the plans of the Commissioners are approved, steps will be taken immediately to begin the construction of a $5,000 pole line between Centreville and Church Hill.

Subscription to the Transcript $1.50 per annum.

News From Millington

The special service held at Asbury M. E. Church, on Sunday evening, Sept 27, was unique, well attended and very interesting and helpful.

The service was built around that declaration of the Apostles' Creed which says: "I Believe in the Holy Catholic Church, the Communion of the Saints," and was designed to establish the thought that no one branch of the christian church is large enough to warrant taking unto itself the exclusive use of the label "The Holy Catholic Church," (Happy, no one of them does so name itself, officially.)

For God, in planning man's salvation, had to plan with all shades of mental capacity in mind, and make a plan the humblest of us could subscribe to.

This he did when, according to the Great Master and Saviour, he made the personal acceptation of his son, Jesus Christ, to be our lone hope for grace and power in both world's the one simple, all-sufficient condition.

For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth on him might not perish but have everlasting life."

And the Lord's own, "Him that cometh unto me, I will in no wise cast out."

"Multitudes of sin-burdened souls have met that simple condition and found it altogether satisfying and sufficient, who never heard of the many divisive doctrines of what may right properly be called churchianity, papal in fallibility, Apostolic succession, modes of baptism, forms of Church government, etc, etc." Appeal was made to the Hymnal to prove that when the question of one's salvation was up and the soul turned to Jesus Christ, he was always found to be all that was needed, or desired and more, regardless of the theology of that seeker. The following hymns were used to make perfectly clear the fact that Christians of all denominations think, speak and sing exactly alike about Jesus:

No. 463, "Jesus, Lover of My Soul," read by Miss Anna Jones, for the Methodist Episcopalians, Miss Helen Tyler, for the Protestant Episcopalians read No. 143, "In the Cross of Christ I Glory." For the Roman Catholics, Miss Bessie Slez read No. 536, "Jesus Thou Joy of Loving Hearts;" Mrs. J. E. Hurlock, for the Presbyterian Church read No. 132, "Jesus Wept! Those Tears are Over;" Miss BettyFelton, for the Southern Methodists, read No. 347, "Lord, Thou Hast Promised Grace for Grace;" and Mrs. Susie Hurley, Secretary, Md., was present to represent the Baptist Church by reading No. 556, "Blest Be the Tie That Binds."

Rev. H. A. Wilson, pastor of Trinity M. E. Church South, offered a fervent and lifting prayer, and pronounced the benediction upon a type of service that should be frequently held all over the Christian world.

The Middletown District of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society held a very pleasant and profitable quarterly meeting at Asbury M. E. Church on Tuesday of last week. Forty or more delegates representing most of the Districts auxiliaries were present and many encouraging reports were made. Betterton leading with an all-blue cross, while Chestertown made a strong bid for first honors by showing a cross about 99% blue.

Mrs. Wamsley, of Baltimore and Miss McDade furloughed Missionary from China were the helpful special speakers. Mrs. W. O. Bennett, and Mrs. Merrick Clements gave the meeting a distinct lift by their inspiring singing. Mrs. E. M. Shockley was re-elected vresident of the district and a strong corps of officers was named to help her lead the work on to even higher levels.

Attention was called to the fact that Millington auxiliary has nefer had any other president, corresponding secretary nor treasurer than those named for those offices at the auxiliary's birth 38 years since, Mrs. John S. Newnam, president and Mrs. Louisa A. Hurtt, corresponding secretary, being presented to the convention, Mrs. Mary Bottomley, treasurer, not being present at the time.

The meeting was most fittingly closed when Rev. T. J. Sard, pastor of Chestertown M. E. Church, called the newly elected officers to the altar for an impressive consecration service. Millington auxiliary will doubtless welcome another such convention not many months hence, tho' it was for mally voted to hold the meetings semi-annually instead of quarterly, as heretofore.

Mrs. L. A. Hurtt was the guest this week of relatives in Wilmington.

Mrs. W. G. Painter, of Harrisonburg, Va., Mrs. W. O. Selby and Miss Edna Strong, of Rock Hall, visited their sister, Mrs Merritt Brice, last week.

Mr. J. E. Higman and son, Mr. H. L Higman, spent last Wednesday in Chestertown.

Miss Helen Stevens was the guest this week of friends in Wilmington.

Mrs. Liston Pennington has returned home after spending ten days with her daughter, Miss Martha, at Nevasink, N. J.

Mr. J. Phil Williams, of Baltimore, spent the week end with Dr. and Mrs. Merritt Brice.

The regular monthly meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society, of Asbury M. E. Church, was held on Thursday evening of last week, at the home of Mrs. L. A. Hurtt.

Mrs. W. H. Burris visited her daughter, Mrs. George Bartlett, of Wilmington, this week.

—Navy Day will be observed all over the country Monday, October 29th.

At The Century Theatre Next Week

"Feet of Clay," the latest production for Paramount by Cecil B. DeMille, the man who made "The Ten Commandments," will be shown at the Centuyr theatre during the week beginning Monday, October 6.

The story is one of hectic life in New York an California and the featured players are: Ro La Rocque, Vera Reynolds, Victor Varconi, Ricardo Cortez, Julia Faye, Theodore Kosloff and Robert Edeson.

It is an adaptation by Beulah Marie Dix and Bertram Milhauser of the sensationally successful magazine story of that name by Margaretta Tuttle.

Rod La Rocque is maimed in a fight with a shark while protecting Miss Reynolds, who has the leading feminine role. The incident provides the starting point for an interesting group of situations, the central one of which being the necessity of a wife having to support her husband after he is injured

May Save Shot Tower

The Baltimore Shot Tower, a familiar sight to many Kent visitors to Baltimore, may be saved. Henry Ford, pioneer of the automobile industry, may step forward to save Baltimore's old relic. Acting upon the knowledge that Mr. Ford, on a visit to the city several years ago, ignored the Wasbington Monument and other celebrated spots to pay tribute to the old landmark on Fayette street, George L. Radcliffe, drive chairman, wrote of the efforts of his committee to Mr. Ford's offices. The letter won its way through the maze of office folk to Ford's general secretary, E. G. Liebold, who conferred with Mr. Ford upon his return from an Eastern trip.

NOTICE TO DOG OWNERS.

As there are quite a number of persons who have not procured Licences for their dogs, which Licences were due July first, and as the dog constables have the enrollment of owners or keepers and the numebr of dogs they keep who have not procured these licenses we take this means to warn such persons that unless they procure licenses for their dogs before the fifteenth day of September nevt, their cases will be put in the hands of the Sheriff for the enforcement of the law.

Poultry and sheep are being killed and the owners are expecting pay for what is killed, and this is the only means we have of getting the money to pay them.

By Order of the County Commissioners
